U Thant Of Burma

U. S. And Soviet Accord Reported On New UN Chief

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States and the Soviet Union were reported agreed today on U Thant of Burma as temporary U.N. secretary-general but many problems remain.

Informed diplomats said the chief of Burma's U.N. delegation is acceptable to the Soviet Union and the United States. There was no confirmation from either the U.S. or Soviet delegation.

A U.S. spokesman said, however, that Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson conferred on Thursday with U Thant.

If the agreement is affirmed, still to be worked out are the two basic questions of how the interim official is to be elected and what his powers will be.

The late Dag Hammarskjold ran the executive branch of the world peace body. But the Soviets who fought to unseat the Swedish diplomat up to the very hour of his death in an African plane crash, want to surround the temporary official with advisers.

Before leaving for Washington and talks with President Kennedy, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko threw cold water on a small nations' plan to name an interim secretary-general with five assistants in place of the Soviets' controversial troika plan.

"We think three is best," Gromyko reiterated to reporters.

Presumably this would call for naming undersecretaries from the United States, Soviet Union and a neutral nation to work in close concert with the acting secretary-general. The advisers would have no veto.

If Ambassador U Thant gets the top post, this probably would result in an executive composed of a Communist and two neutrals with only one representative from the West.

Kennedy Will Seek To Learn Any Soviet Change On Berlin

West Allies File Protest On Shooting

Sharp Complaint Handed Soviet Over Berlin Incidents

BERLIN (AP)—The three Western Allies sharply protested today to the Soviets against two shooting incidents involving Communist East German police in Berlin's French sector.

British Commandant Sir Rohan Delacombe called on his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, to deliver the protest on behalf of all three Western commandants, an Allied spokesman announced.

Delacombe told Solovyev that the incidents resulted from "dangerous and irresponsible action" by the East Berlin Communist police.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's personal representative in Berlin, this morning made an on the spot inspection of the dangerously tense sector—the Bernauerstrasse.

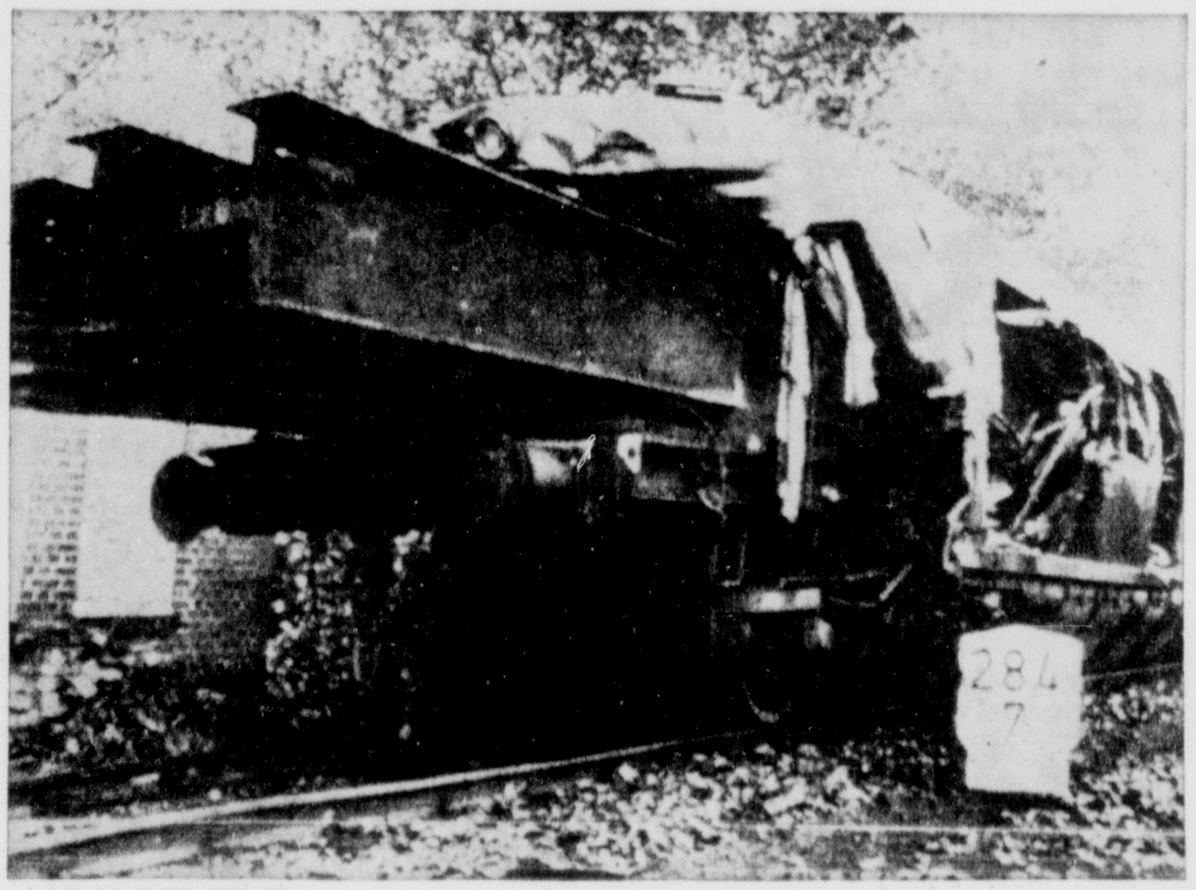

The street, divided by the Communist-built wall now cutting through Berlin, has been the scene of two shooting incidents in the last two days.

The State Department in Washington has called on Soviet authorities to avoid shooting incidents on the Berlin border.

Max Maron, the East German Communist interior minister, sent sharply worded protests to West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and the French commandant, Gen. Jean Lacomme over the shooting. He said any more such incidents will be "a threat to peace."

Clay had discussed the explosive situation with Brandt before the mayor flew off on a three-day visit to New York.

Today, Clay drove to Bernauerstrasse. With an aide, he walked the whole one-mile length of the street occasionally going right up to the wall erected by the Communists, which measures from 8 to 10 feet in height.

U.N. Topic Also May Be Discussed

President Expected To Re-Emphasize West Allies Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy meets Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today, seeking to learn if there has been any significant change in the Soviet position on Berlin.

But U.S. officials did not expect the session, set for late afternoon at the White House, to provide a dramatic opening for peaceful settlement of the long-festering German dispute.

Kennedy is prepared to listen to any fresh instructions Gromyko may have received from Moscow and to prod the Soviet minister for further explanation of the Soviet position on Berlin.

Kennedy also was ready to reemphasize to Gromyko Western determination not to yield on Berlin rights—a message Gromyko will likely relay to Soviet Premier Khrushchev when Gromyko returns to Moscow Sunday.

Another matter that may come up in their conversation is the United Nations. The Soviet Union and the United States were reported Thursday night to be in agreement on a candidate for temporary U.N. secretary-general, a successor for the late Dag Hammarskjold.

The candidate reported by informed diplomats to be acceptable by both Moscow and Washington is U Thant of Burma.

Kennedy plans only a single session with Gromyko. The President's schedule allowed for a meeting of about two hours before he was due at a state dinner being given by visiting President Ferik Ibrahim Abboud of Sudan.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will sit in at the conference. It follows three exploratory talks Rusk held with Gromyko in New York.

No plans have been made for another separate Rusk-Gromyko meeting. Officials stressed, however, that this depends entirely on Gromyko. If he wants one, the State Department is ready to go along.

The objects of these sessions is to find out if the Soviets are willing to negotiate on terms acceptable to the West.

U.S. sources said Gromyko has not yet spelled out the Kremlin position sufficiently to enable the Western powers to decide whether fruitful East-West negotiations are possible. For one thing, the Soviets have not been precise on how their proposed peace treaty with Communist East Germany would affect West Berlin rights which the West deems vital.

American authorities will scan closely Khrushchev's forthcoming policy speech to the Communist party congress, which opens in Moscow Oct. 17. They believe he might shed some light in the speech on any change in Soviet policy toward Berlin and Germany.

2 In Newell Tavern Cited By Deputies

Tavern Operator, Waitress Accused On Liquor, Gaming

Time ran out for the operator of a Newell tavern and a waitress Thursday night at 8:45.

That was the time of a raid on the Stutz Bar, 118 Washington St., by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

Deputies confiscated a quantity of whisky and an electric gaming clock.

They cited the operator, Wallace Simcox, 36, of 118½ Washington St., on a charge of illegal possession of alcoholic liquor, and Anna Gay Beagle, 34, of 1052 Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool, on a charge of operating the gaming device.

Deputies of the staff of County Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny operated on a search and seizure warrant to raid the tavern for at least the second time this year.

Simcox had been arrested June 22 on a charge of operating a game of chance. He posted a $100 bond before Newell Squire Harry Lytton for a hearing, but the results were not made known.

The East Liverpool woman and Simcox each posted $500 bond for hearings Tuesday at 2 p.m. before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Store Display Hit In Looting

Jewelry's Window Smashed By Brick

A burglar fled with at least four watches valued at $250 after smashing a display window early today at Shaw's Jewelry Store, 513 Washington St., police reported.

Store personnel still were working on an inventory today in an effort to determine the full extent of the loss, but they said it has been established definitely that four wristwatches were taken and several more may turn up missing when the check is completed.

The window was smashed at 2:18 this morning by an intruder who hurled a half of a paving brick, officers said. After scooping merchandise from the window, he apparently fled south on Washington St., as the lining from a watch display box was found in front of a dry cleaning store at E. 5th and Washington.

Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes, desk officer, received the first report of the window-smashing and Lt. Clyde Boso directed the initial investigation.

Chester Told Why Sewage Grant Failed

Low Ratings Cited On Need, Ability To Start On Project

Chester's request for federal aid for a proposed sewage disposal system was turned down this summer because of low ratings for financial need and ability to act promptly in starting construction, it was reported at a meeting of Council and the Sanitary Board Thursday night.

Dominic Cerrone, representative of the A. R. Todd Associates of Wheeling, engineers who submitted the application for a $110,000 grant, met with Council and the board.

He presented a letter from John T. Johnson, head of the municipal section of the Division of Water Resources of the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources, which explained why the requested grant was turned down and how the city's priority rating could be improved.

Chester scored low on the estimated per capita cost of the $450,000 project, getting five points — out of a possible 20 points on the rating system — for the estimated cost of $117 per person.

The city also failed to score any points on the median family income which would reflect a financial need. The city's median family income is $3,787. A median income of $3,499 to $3,000 is worth five points in the ratings, and a median income of $2,500 to $2,999 is worth 10 points.

Chester earned only one point in the time estimated between the award of the grant and letting of the construction contract.

It is estimated it would take three months from the time the grant would be approved to when the contracts would be ready. Higher ratings are given for contracts let, or bids opened or advertising approved.

Johnson suggested the city could get an additional nine points in 1962 in this latter classification by showing it is ready to proceed with construction as soon as the grant is obtained and cannot possibly proceed without the grant.

The board agreed to resubmit another application for 1962, and plans to seek the aid of State

Toronto Man Given $200 Fine And Jail

Pleading guilty to a charge of drunken driving, a Toronto area man was fined $200 and costs and given three days in Jefferson County Jail in Steubenville at a hearing Thursday before County Judge Helen M. Huntsman of Toronto.

Leroy Rood, 24, was returned to jail in lieu of a fine.

The charge was filed by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol, who said Rood rounded a curve left of center and crashed headon into a Wellsville man's car Wednesday night at the Yellow Creek.

Rood and seven members of the family of Marshall Smallwood Jr., 32, of 2011 Danbury Ave., were injured in the mishap on Route 213 at 9:45.

Mishap Hurts Midland Man

Officers Cite Youth For East End Crash

A 23-year-old Midland man was injured Thursday night in a violent two-car crash on Pennsylvania Ave. near Minnesota Ave., police reported.

He is Robert Burel Skinner, 136 Midland Ave., whose 1954 two-door sedan was involved in a collision at 6:57 with a 1948 sedan operated by Richard L. Cain, 16, of 322 Haywood St., Beechwood, officers said.

Skinner told police he would seek treatment at a Midland physician's office for superficial injuries.

The Beechwood youth was cited into Juvenile Court for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Skinner told police he was traveling east on Pennsylvania Ave. about 30 miles an hour when Cain's car pulled out of Minnesota Ave. into his path. Cain told police he halted at the intersection, saw no approaching traffic and proceeded. He said he did not see Skinner's car until the collision.

The impact caused heavy damage to the front end of Skinner's auto and extensive damage to the right front of Cain's car, officers said.

Nasser Says He Concedes U.A.R. Death

Won't Oppose New Regime Bid To Join UN, Arab Republic

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser, virtually conceding the death of his United Arab Republic, says he will not oppose efforts of the revolutionary Syrian regime to join the United Nations and the Arab League.

In a dramatic address whose conciliatory tone astounded observers in Cairo, Nasser declared "there is no need for a political or diplomatic blockade of Syria because the Syrian people would suffer." Only a short time before, the Cairo press had been denouncing the rebels as imperialists.

The address at first delighted the Syrian revolutionaries, and Syrian Premier Mamoun Kuzbari offered Egypt the hand of friendship. But he took a new, skeptical attitude this morning.

A Damascus broadcast quoted Kuzbari as saying Nasser agreed not to oppose Syrian membership in the United Nations only because he realized it was inevitable. Kuzbari said Syria had been promised free elections and "our only wish is that the Egyptian people would have the same opportunity."

Nasser, speaking slowly and with deep emotion, said that Cairo will not recognize any Damascus government "until the free will of the Syrian people is manifested and she herself decides her path."

Nasser indicated he wants a Syrian plebiscite stamping voter approval on the outcome of the revolt before he would be willing to exchange envoys. The Syria regime has promised elections within four months.

The Egyptian leader assailed governments that already have recognized the new Damascus regime. He termed Turkey fascist, Iran pro-Israel, Jordan a feudal republic, Nationalist China an outcast, and Guatemala a fruit company government.

Soviets Blast 18th, Far Biggest A-Test

PARIS (AP)—The Soviet Union today staged its 18th and by far the largest nuclear test in its current series, French government detection services reported.

The blast was 1½ times the strength of the last test Wednesday, the detectors said. The last test was reported to have been several megatons in strength. A megaton is equivalent to a million tons of TNT.

Kennedy Asks Prayers

Cancer Perils Rayburn's Life

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Time appears to be running out for Sam Rayburn.

The 79-year-old Speaker of the House of Representatives has cancer and it has spread to such an extent that doctors said Thursday "no further surgery is anticipated."

In Washington, President Kennedy asked the nation to join him and Mrs. Kennedy "in prayer for Speaker Rayburn, who has served his nation so well and so faithfully for so many years."

Depending on "Mr. Sam's" stamina, one doctor said, he could hold out for several months, even longer. Another said "two or three weeks" seemed more likely.

A non-medical aide to Rayburn said following Thursday's exploratory surgery the end could come in several days.

An official hospital spokesman told newsmen "it is too early" to say that Rayburn's cancer in incurable.

"Is he going to die?" a reporter asked.

"It is too early to say that he is going to die," the spokesman said. He added that it also is too early to say that Rayburn would recover.

Asked if it was possible for Rayburn to recover the spokesman replied in the affirmative.

He said Rayburn would be allowed to return to his home in Bonham if he wished to do so "and if we feel he is well enough to go," but "his condition would have to change before he could go back to Washington."

A hospital bulletin said "the biopsy revealed a metastatic malignancy" and "the most likely primary site of the malignancy is the pancreas."

This means, a doctor explained, that the malignancy has spread from its original site to other points in Rayburn's body.

Rayburn had not been told late Thursday how serious his condition is. He was under heavy sedation to relieve extreme pain but talked briefly with members of his family who remained nearby during the night.

Funeral Set Saturday

Death Claims Will Blake, Former OIC Chairman

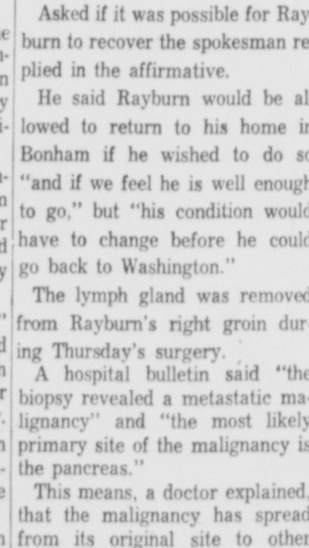

Funeral will be held Saturday for Will T. Blake of East Liverpool, retired Ohio Industrial Commission member under seven governors and chairman for several terms, who died Thursday at 1:20 p.m. after a lengthy illness.

He had been in City Hospital since March after a lingering illness that had cut short his fifth term on the OIC in 1957.

A former potter and newspaperman, he was editor and business manager of the IBOP's Potters Herald for a number of years before entering state service originally in 1929. In all he served the state over 25 years, first as industrial relations director then as a member and chairman of the commission three times.

He resided in Columbus while in state service but since retiring had made his home with his

Teenage Boy Confesses To Slaying Girl

Enticed Her Into Field, Attacked, Then Drowned Her

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—A teenage boy admitted Thursday night, police said, he enticed a 7-year-old neighbor girl into a weedy field, raped her and drowned her in a rainwater pond.

Police said Steven Schloneger, 13, a tall seventh grader, told them: "I just did it for a thrill. I heard you could get a thrill from it."

The nude body of blonde, blue-eyed Yvonne Elliott was found face down in the field near her home by her father, Edward, 27, Wednesday night. She had bicycled to a neighborhood store to get a package of cigarettes for her father.

The boy was charged with delinquency and held in the Du Page County jail in Wheaton. William Bauer, Du Page County state's attorney, said Schloneger will be charged with murder at a court arraignment Monday.

Herbert Mertes, chief deputy sheriff, said Schloneger was arrested after Albertine Fisher, 29, told a deputy her son Steven, 7, related that he had seen Schloneger and Yvonne Wednesday evening standing near a tree in the field where her body was later found.

Merter said Schloneger lives with his stepfather and mother, Edward Pivonka, 42, and Helen June, 42, on the outskirts of nearby Elmhurst. Deputies found a pair of soiled overalls in the boy's home which he admitted he had worn Wednesday, Mertes said.

Seal-Coating Project Will Begin Next Week

The Tri-State Asphalt Corp. of Martins Ferry expects to start work next week, possibly Monday, on seal-coating of 17 East Liverpool blacktop streets, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today.

Tri-State, awarded a city contract earlier in the summer, said it will begin the job "on the first nice day next week," Owen explained.

The job will begin in the Beechwood area, with the first work scheduled on Anderson Blvd. and Rubicon St.

1st Ballots Delivered On Franklin-Southern

First ballots were delivered today to the County Election Board by the printing contractor for write-in election of a new Board of Education Nov. 7 in the newly-created Franklin-Southern Local School District.

The election board delayed starting the printing job until about a week ago because of a controversy before the County Board of Education over the merger, followed by a threat of court action that has not materialized so far.

The ballots provide spaces for write-in election of three members for four-year terms and two for two-year terms. The same ballot lists candidates for the State Board of Education and the County Board of Education.

Deaths and Funerals

Former Ware Employe Dies

Raymond E. Dawson, 80, of Georgetown, a retired potter, died Thursday about 12:30 p. m. at City Hospital after a lingering illness.

He was born in Georgetown to George Dawson and Isadore Winch Dawson. He was employed last at the Homer Laughlin China Co., and retired about 15 years ago.

He is survived by a brother, Carl L. Dawson of Pittsburgh, and a sister, Miss Edna E. Dawson of Georgetown.

Services will be held Saturday at 3:30 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. David Dayen, pastor of the Georgetown Methodist Church. Burial will be in Georgetown Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Miss Odessa Smith

Miss Odessa R. Smith, 420 College St., a native of East Liverpool, died Thursday at 6:15 p. m. at City Hospital, after an illness of five years. She was 43.

Miss Smith was born Aug. 12, 1918, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, with whom she resided. She spent her entire lifetime here. She worked for eight years as a secretary for the Aronson law office until December 1960. She was a 1936 graduate of East Liverpool High School and of the Ohio Valley Business College, where she also was an instructor for several years. She was a member of the First Church of Christ and the Protective Home Circle.

Besides her parents, she leaves four brothers, Dennis H. Smith, Earl E. Smith, Ralph E. Smith Jr. and Gene Smith, all of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Raymond (Vioma) Stevens of Chester, and several nephews and nieces.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by John E. Mostoller, minister. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Scott Allen Moore

Scott Allen Moore, 4-day old son of Earl and Carol Featherstone Moore of New Cumberland R. D., died this morning at 2:40 at City Hospital. He was born Monday.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Kelly Jo Moore at home; maternal grandparents, Mrs. Ruth Fowler of Sarasota, Fla., and Charles Featherstone of Ft. Worth, Tex.; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Moore of Chester, and the paternal great - grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Springer of East Liverpool.

Graveside services will be held Saturday at 3:15 p. m. at Locust Hill Cemetery in Chester by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

The Arner Chapel of Chester is in charge of arrangements.

Senior Citizens Name Chairmen

Mrs. Louise Belaney was appointed membership chairman and Mrs. Alice Tittle, hospitality chairman, at a meeting of the East Liverpool Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon in the VFW Hall.

Mrs. Sam Hall, president, conducted business when tentative plans were discussed to hold a "walk-in" one day a week at the VFW home.

A birthday party was planned Oct. 26 to honor members observing birthdays in August, September and October.

The meeting was opened by Miss Laura Mae Swan who used Ps. 91 for Scripture and read a poem, "Lord Keep Me Busy."

Lunch and social hour followed.

Next meeting is Thursday at the VFW Home.

City Driver Injured In Wreck On Bridge

An East Liverpool motorist was hurt but his Midland companion escaped uninjured in a wreck which demolished two cars Thursday night on the Rochester-Beaver Bridge.

West Bridgewater police said a westbound car operated by Pete Palijash, 20, of New Brighton smashed into a car owned by Richard Monroe, 39, of 440 Orchard Grove Ave., which was parked in the middle of the bridge.

Charges for parking in the middle of roadways are pending against Monroe, police said.

Monroe was treated at Rochester General Hospital for multiple contusions and abrasions while his companion, Walter Allen, 26, of 400 Midland Ave., Midland, was examined and released. Palijash also was examined and released.

Death Claims Will T. Blake

sister, Miss Adeline Blake, 1947 St. Clair Ave., a former member of the high school faculty.

Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, he was the son of the late W. V. Blake and Mary Thornborn Blake.

His father was a former mayor of East Liverpool and state senator from the 20th-22nd District.

As a youth the family moved to Trenton, N. J. and were naturalized, coming to East Liverpool about 1889. He was educated in Trenton and East Liverpool public schools and attended Franklin College at Columbus and Ohio State University.

As a young man he entered the potteries. During his apprenticeship, he recalled in a letter to a local historian, he had worked with Henry Schmidt, German ceramic artist who developed the now famous Lotus ware while employed with the former KTK works.

He said: "I was selected as Mr. Schmidt's assistant by Ben Harker, foreman of the clay shop, for two specific reasons — one to help Mr. Schmidt, who spoke only German, to acquire a quick working knowledge of English, and the other was so that if he should become ill or suddenly decide to leave, the firm would have someone to fall back upon to carry on the work. I kept this position for several years."

He also described the preparation of the now rare ware and told of some of the difficulties in its production.

After his apprenticeship, he became a journeyman turner. Mr. Blake joined the IBOP's paper after earlier newspaper experience on the former Morning Tribune here and in 1924 was granted a year's leave of absence to return to Ohio State University.

He returned to the city, serving as editor until his first state appointment. After that expired, he became editor again following the death of the incumbent, handling the paper for two or three years previous to his 1935 appointment to the state commission.

Mr. Blake entered the state service in 1929 when Gov. Meyers Cooper named him a member of his "cabinet," designating him as industrial relations director. The OIC had not been established then.

Completing his term, he returned to East Liverpool then was called back to Columbus in 1935 when named a member of the commission by Gov. Martin L. Davey. He served continuously until his retiring, being chairman at least three terms. He was reappointed in 1941 by Gov. John Bricker and in 1947 by Gov. Thomas Herbert.

In 1953, he was appointed to a six-year-term by Gov. Frank Lausche, a Democrat, and was the lone Republican in the three-man commission.

He submitted his resignation to Gov. C. William O'Neill in August of 1957, when his health began to fail.

He took an active interest in the Columbiana County Safety Committee's program each year and was among the principals at most of the annual awards banquet.

He was the labor representative on the commission.

In East Liverpool, he served on the YMCA and City Hospital boards and was a member of Riddle Masonic Lodge 315. He was a member of Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Besides Miss Blake, he is survived by another sister, Mrs. Joseph (Isabelle) Holloway of Shaker Heights and a brother, Perce R. Blake of East Liverpool.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Harold Blake, George Blake and Howard Blake, and a sister, Ida Blake.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Boosters Set Fund Drive At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A campaign to equip a football field at the new Southern Local High School by 1963 will be launched Oct. 17, it was decided at a meeting of the Boosters Club Thursday night at Salineville High School.

A fund drive will be held to obtain lighting, seats and other equipment for the field at the new school to be built on Route 39 east of here.

Tom Leek, high school principal, was appointed to arrange a program for the kickoff meeting to be held at the high school. A speaker is to be obtained to estimate costs and details of the project.

Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect who designed the $756,000 structure, was in Columbus Thursday and submitted plans for final approval of the building. Officials have indicated advertising for bids may be held within a month, following state approval.

The Boosters have had a program printed for sale at the homecoming game Oct. 14 with Crestview School. Martin Adams is in charge of the sale.

Club members today began the sale of football-shaped savings banks from which proceeds will be used for the general fund.

Warren Dunlap, president, was in charge. About 11 attended.

90 Parents Hear New Grade Plan

Ninety attended a group conference of parents of primary pupils at the Pughtown elementary school Thursday afternoon.

The school has adopted the "ungraded" primary in which pupils advance as quickly as their abilities merit, and the "faster" youngsters do not compete in classroom work with the "slower" ones.

There are 290 pupils in the ungraded primary classes. Principal R. O. Stevens commented that "the ungraded primary is working out fine, and it appears to be the coming thing in primary education."

Mrs. Virginia Owens, faculty member, and Mrs. Audrey Litman, curriculum co-ordinator of Hancock County elementary schools, explained the primary mental ability test taken by first graders the first week of school to determine their learning abilities.

Mrs. Litman and the principal answered questions following the discussion. the Parent - Teacher Association served lunch.

A young Wellsville area man injured on a wood planer and a Fisher Park woman hurt in a fall were admitted Thursday to City Hospital where seven area residents were treated yesterday and today.

Mrs. Hazel Rose of S. Shady Lane Dr. is in "fairly good" condition with possible fractures of the left hip and pelvis received in a fall getting out of bed.

Raymond McClure, 19, of Township Line Rd. is in "good" condition with an amputation of the second finger of the right hand suffered on an electric wood planer at home.

William Landfried, 36, of Bloomfield, employe of the American Vitrified Products Co., was treated this morning for an injury to the heel of the right foot over which a high lift ran while he was at work.

Audrey Curran, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Curran of 764 Woodlawn Ave., suffered bruises of the scalp and lips and abrasions of the side of the face when struck by a bicycle operated by a 15-year-old E. 9th St. youth.

Charles Patterson, 25, of 1508 Clark Ave., Wellsville, was treated for a cut above the right eye received when a hard object bounced against his face while he was digging with an iron bar. He is employed by the Alvin Dickey Co.

Mrs. Ethel Murdock, 801½ St. Clair Ave., received a laceration of the thumb when caught in a washing machine wringer at home.

Thomas Sloan, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sloan of Maple Dr., received a cut of the left eyebrow when struck by a ball bat.

Dolores Brooks, 31, of 949 W. 8th St. suffered bruises of the left thumb when caught in a car door.

Michel Mikita, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Mikita of Ruth St., suffered a cut of the scalp in a fall at play.

Chester Student Club Plans Dance Oct. 21

Plans for a dance for area high school students Oct. 21 were made at a meeting of the Chester Key Club Thursday at Chester High School.

The club will attend the Sunday morning worship at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church, and will place prayer cards in restaurants and other business places.

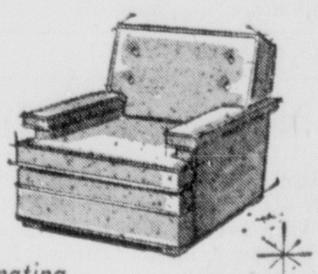

Members will continue to sell peanuts at home football games to raise money for projects. Blaine Pinney, president, was in charge. Next meeting is Thursday.

New Frontiersmen On The Trail

Comments are being made freely on the Kennedy administration's plan to send leading New Frontiersmen to Chicago, St. Louis, Houston, Nashville, Detroit, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Los Angeles to confer with local settlers. It's an interesting idea, though as old an idea as asking the local party contact how things look in his bailiwick.

The purpose is to generate enthusiasm for the Kennedy administration programs that sputtered out in the recent session of Congress. Cabinet members and other representatives of the administration ordered to hit the road will try to whoop up enthusiasm for aid to education, more funds for urban redevelopment, medical care for the aged and ways to boost employment.

IF THEY DIG deep enough to find out why U.S. representatives and senators dragged their feet this year, their trips will be worthwhile. But if they have nothing better in mind than to ask the Democratic mayors and machine bosses why they like the New Frontier, they might as well stay in Washington.

To do worthwhile digging, the Kennedy men would avoid talking with the mayors of the cities they will visit. The mayors are either Democrats or nonpartisan, which is what some Democrats like to think they are when there are enough Republicans registered to make trouble at the polls.

The diggers would have to go to the suburbs and even farther to discover what happened to such ill-advised proposals as wholesale federal aid to schools and development of urban real estate at an ever-faster pace to bail out people who turned it out to pasture after they'd milked it dry.

THEY WOULD have to solicit straight answers from spokesmen for people who came within a sliver fraction of one per cent of not electing John F. Kennedy president last November.

They would even have to spend time studying the political opposition. If they ever started that, they might trudge back to Washington to report glumly that the New Frontier seems to have gone the way of the Edsel. The buildup was stupendous. The design was delightful. The performance chart was breath-taking. The country could scarcely wait, but when it came — phhtt! The idea didn't sell.

At that, the New Frontiersmen might find out why by talking to the Democrats who all but monopolize big-city politics. The New Frontier hasn't bowled over Democrats, either. They're too busy with Old Problems.

Will T. Blake, Public Servant

Will T. Blake died Thursday and his passing is a loss both to the state and to the city where he resided for more than 70 years.

Mr. Blake was the state's first industrial relations director and served five terms on the Ohio Industrial Commission until retiring in 1957.

As evidence of his wide knowledge and great devotion to this vital agency, he was reappointed by successive governors, Republican and Democrat, although at times he was the only GOP member.

Mr. Blake retired four years ago, when his health began to fail, but procedures and policies he helped establish during his long tenure will serve as a monument to his contributions to the workingman's protection.

The compensation standards the agency developed during his administration have been copied by several states. Such an agency had not been created when Mr. Blake first began his state duties.

As the labor representative, he brought wide experience to the job, coupled with an understanding of industry's problems. And he was aware of the public's right to know about the affairs of his agency, having been editor of the Potters Herald for many years before taking the state appointment.

At one time he was a reporter on former The Morning Tribune here, gaining experience that fitted him for the editorship of the weekly journal of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, and which provided his stepping stone to the state career. He put in his apprenticeship in district potteries, which made him familiar with a laboring man's problems.

He found time for civic duties and aided the YMCA and City Hospital by serving on their boards. Although he had been inactive in his twilight years, his contributions during his state career will long be recognized.

Go South For The Right Reason

A National Labor Relations Board ruling this week against a Philadelphia clothing manufacturer who "went South" during a labor dispute may slow down a practice that is giving fits to northern states.

Every time one of their employers gets into a hassle with a union that promises to become a deadlock they can count on hearing that the employer has been approached by a shill from a southern state with a proposition for moving the plant.

This is as sure-fire a pitch as selling windstorm damage insurance during a gale. The southerners are willing to offer everything, including the use of the local mayor's spare bedroom—tax forgiveness, free improvements, special police protection and, of course, freedom from labor organizers.

To all this, NLRB has replied in effect that employers who "go South" wholly to get out from under a labor dispute must provide jobs for its displaced employes either at the new location or the old one. There is nothing to keep a plant from moving to a new location for a variety of reasons, but now there is an NLRB ruling to keep it from going there to strand its employes if they were involved in labor negotiations.

There will be an appeal, and there may be a reversal. But as things stand now, the next southerner who tries to entice a northern enterprise to move South to get away from a union deadlock had better be prepared with ideas for taking care of the old employes as well as the new payroll, the real estate, improvements, overhead and police protection.

Seen, Never Forgotten

The greatest show in nature—the coloring of the leaves before they fall each Autumn—is staged with a master's touch.

The curtain is opened on a bleak and dreary stage, unlighted and seemingly empty. It is one of those damp October days with a weather range from bleak to desolate.

Then a miracle of lighting occurs before millions of wondering eyes. The weather brightens. The colorless stage is transformed into a kaleidoscope of color as sunlight picks out the crimson on the maple leaves, the russet of the oak, the blood-red leaves of sumac, the golden tan of linden and the black green of pines huddled securely in their winter coats.

The color spectacle runs on endlessly. As the eye moves across its span and back again, everything changes in the space of seconds. The greatest show in nature more than fills the eye.

It fills the mind and the whole being of the beholder, so much so that once seen it never is forgotten. The staging is a miracle in itself—not just the beginning but the end.

The miracle fades away. The lights go down. Darkness settles on the scene. Offstage there is the patter of Autumn rain. Then—emptiness. The color spectacle is over for another year. The greatest show in nature has moved on.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Hospitals are filled with baseball fans suffering from "asteriskitis," a battered-up condition due to arguments over ruling that Roger Maris' total of 61 homers in regular season doesn't officially beat Ruth record because "Bambino's" season wasn't quite so long.

(Injured fans can't get necessary treatment because doctors and nurses join in argument. One ambulance driver broke records getting fan to emergency ward, but will get asterisk after name because another driver did better 30 years ago on less gasoline.)

We talked with an injured Maris supporter who said: "Does a potato king get an asterisk if he sells more potatoes than any previous dealer, but takes an extra week?

Does a song writer lose face if he sells more recordings than the previous high man because previous record holder spent less time at piano? Would it be fair to put an asterisk beside Ford Frick's name if he gets more publicity than Judge Landis, but takes six more interviews?

"If my wife wins more arguments with me in 1961, won't it count much on account of somebody's missus did better 30 years ago over a shorter route?"

He was quite disturbed and went on to argue, "No football star who makes a dozen 90 yard touchdowns this year will get an asterisk because a player of the past did it in less time.

No race horse winning three derbies would be rated below one who had won two with a couple of weeks more between races."

He had one more question: "Baseball's biggest sensation is the number of managers fired. If a manager loses his job three seasons in a row, does he get an asterisk because some manager got fired twice in two seasons?"

WE JUST HEARD of a baseball fan who is building a shelter to protect him from fallout from hassles over Maris-Ruth homer record. He had better stock it with supplies enough to last all through winter.

After reading Mark Schorer's book on life of Sinclair Lewis you wonder whether he was reviewing the writer's life or running him through a concrete mixer.

It's An Ill Wind—Or Is It?

Goldberg's Hat Pushed To Ring

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK

It had to happen. A thousand enthusiasts cheered a proposal here that Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg become the first Jewish candidate for the presidency of the United States.

Victor Riesel

Most of those who cheered were as Irish as a garland of shamrock hung on a shillelagh. They were the delegates to Mike Quill's Transport Workers Union convention. The roar for Goldberg's candidacy came after Quill had unleashed a confetti - raining, tape-flowing, placard-waving clamor for the drafting of Mr. Goldberg to run against Nelson Rockefeller for governor of New York in 1962.

The demonstration to convince John Kennedy's closest home front adviser to set up residence in New York ran on and on until Quill gaveled down the shouting, stomping crowd. Goldberg then went into his formal talk.

The suggestion that he someday run for the presidency came an hour later after one of the most unique performances put on by a speaker in all the years this reporter has been covering the breaking news.

AFTER SPEAKING for some 45 minutes, Goldberg opened himself up to sharp questioning by the delegates right from the floor—unrehearsed and as spontaneous as a forest fire.

Furthermore, it was Goldberg's suggestion that there be this unprecedented questioning. When Mike Quill telephoned him early Monday for final arrangements, the labor secretary told the Transport Union president he would like such an open forum.

This, apparently, is part of the White House's new technique of putting the New Frontier show on the road leading to the people wherever they are gathered.

At the end of the questioning, one TWU leader arose with the final query:

"Would you reconsider," the delegate asked the labor secretary, who had been recognizing each questioner by calling him "brother," "moving to New York and running for governor in '62?

"Then in 1968, when John Kennedy has finished his terms in the White House, you can be the first man to be nominated as a man of the Jewish faith and to be elected."

-:-

UP WENT THE ROAR again. Goldberg told the convention that he hoped it would really not push the national labor party it had launched during its session. But if it did, he hoped it would accept another Democratic nominee and that he would be happy to come in and campaign for him.

It was, to this observer, one of those moments which should be part of recorded history.

There was other significance amid the tumult. These men were cheering Goldberg because as their lawyer through the years he had hammered out many a win for them.

They did not cheer him, however, as a representative of the government, though they were pleased that a Cabinet member would come and run a 90-minute town hall for them.

They found themselves opposed to him on many issues.

They are for socialization of the railroads and airlines. Goldberg told them that where governments owned such means of transportation, the employes were usually worse off.

THEY ARE for a national labor party. Goldberg told them this, in effect, was futile and their place was in the Democratic party.

They are critical of John Kennedy. Goldberg told them that the President had rolled up "the greatest record since Franklin Roosevelt's first 100 days."

Their leader is for the readmission of Jim Hoffa's Teamsters to the AFL-CIO. Goldberg indicated how little he thought of Hoffa.

In spite of this a few minutes later Quill went before TV cameras and twice again called Hoffa the "cleanest man in the U.S." and then consulted with other TWU leaders on inviting Hoffa to the conclave.

When this reporter asked him if he would urge his union to join Hoffa's Conference for Transportation Unity, Quill said certainly.

Quill added he would be for joining Hoffa in a national parley of all transport unions, which have members who work on the land, on the sea, in the air and on rockets and moon bases too.

I never let Quill's quips and make-believe buffoonery obscure the seriousness of his strategy.

SHOULD QUILL join with the Teamsters, the Transport Workers Union chief would bring into Hoffa's combine some 150,000 TWU members in public utilities, universities, Cape Canaveral operations, key railroads, workers on some 17 airlines, drivers of buses and trolleys and subway trains in the nation's biggest, most congested communities.

When reminded that this would please neither Mr. Goldberg nor the White House, Mr. Quill said:

"We are not the servants of the Kennedys."

Even as Quill uttered these words, Goldberg was on his way over to a National Association of Manufacturers lunch to tell them that we are in the greatest era of industrial peace — and while he was driving over, scores of thousands of men were striking on the Pacific Coast, at Ford, and all along the line right on up to our radar warning systems.

For the moment Mr. Goldberg had only the cheers for his personal popularity to comfort him.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I read every word of a large advertisement in a national magazine about a pill to help people break the tobacco habit because it's my observation that smoking the cause of more personal unrest than even alcoholism.

When Generalissimo Franco of Spain says his government is getting ready to "restudy" its pacts with the United States, that's a eumphemism, son. And what's a eumphemism, daddys? It's when you use a sweet-smelling expression for a stinking idea, like "restudy" for "raise the price."

I like the candor that surrounded the firing of Jimmie Dykes as manager of the Cleveland Indians. Everybody had a good word to say for everybody else, except Dykes, who declared he had a lousy bunch of personalities who didn't amount to much as ballplayers either and figured his successor would be in the same trouble.

I like the looks of all the new automobiles this year and shudder when I see one of those horrors of a few years ago when designers were all having nightmares simultaneously.

It's an odd thing about my working associates who went to faroff places on their vacations that they all came back this year with a conviction that if this weren't where their work and friends are they would turn it in for a one-way ticket. Other years I thought they seemed glad to be back because they thought there was "no place like home."

NBC's Sunday night documentary on the late Ernest Hemingway seemed first-rate to me, because it explained the Hemingway who could write "The Old Man and the Sea," of which my own younger son said at the age of 14, "I just finished the book and thought it was swell. I understood every word in it."

Hard feelings in California between former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon can be traced in some part to a letter written in 1958 by the wife of former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland, who said her husband tried to take over the state governorship because Knight was making California a satellite of Walter Reuther's "labor-political empire. Nixon was Knowland's friend and still is.

A stirring tribute was paid to Dag Hammarskjold in Sweden, where he was accorded the ceremonial funeral customarily reserved for royalty. Why? Because his countrymen were paying tribute to a quality more honored than even royal blood-flawless personal integrity.

I wonder why football spectators don't use a kind of boat seat I used once on a fishing vacation—your weight on the thing holds a back rest in place, to get rid of that al-gone feeling in the third quarter. Or do they?

Strange U.N. Silence

By David Lawrence

No Action Taken On Cuban Executions

Notwithstanding the eloquent speeches and the big fanfare in the United Nations every now and then about human rights, the organization is rapidly losing the respect of mankind because of its crass indifference to the quest for human freedom in many parts of the world.

David Lawrence

The U.N. has ignored a string of executions in Cuba by the Castro regime. The pace of one-a-day murders has been deliberately adopted in Cuba in the hope that these atrocities will go unnoticed, especially by the U.N.

More than 600 persons are believed to have faced firing squads in Havana in recent months. Trumped-up charges of treason are usually cited but there is no such thing as a fair or public trial.

It's the same kind of brutality that the Soviets practiced in Hungary. Indeed, it is suspected that the Communist advisers of Castro are coaching him on how to put down internal opposition.

But the amazing aspect of the whole thing is the double standard adopted by the United Nations itself.

The U.N. didn't fail to put through its Security Council on April 1, 1960, a resolution urging South Africa to stop repressing the demands of its Negro population for equal treatment. In fact, the Security Council asked the secretary general to consult with the South African government on policies to conform with "the purposes of and principles of the U.N. Charter."

The United States voted for that resolution, as did the Soviet Union. The American ambassador declared that when a nation's domestic policies "evoke the deep concern of a great part of mankind, they . . . contribute to tension among nations."

AGAIN, IN MARCH 1961, following local disturbances in Angola, there was a proposal for a U.N. investigation. It was defeated in the Security Council, but the United States and the Soviet Union voted for it.

Then the Security Council on June 9, 1961, approved a resolution calling on Portugal to halt "severely repressive measures" in Angola. The United States and the Soviet Union voted for it.

Irrespective of whether it is proper for the U.N. to attempt to deal with internal questions, the fact remains that its principal members have taken the position that internal affairs are actually the concern of the U.N.

In view of that record, why is Cuba being exempted from any action by the United Nations?

Much pious talk, moreover, has been heard at the U.N. General Assembly about the rights of man and the humane considerations that should guide member states in handling their governmental affairs. But it is a paradox that no such guidance has been attempted in the case of Fidel Castro.

Perhaps it is because behind Castro stands the Soviet Union, and there is timidity about offending Moscow. Many of the African nations are among the "non-aligned" group. It's strange how quickly they line up if there's a riot in the streets of a South African town but say nothing by way of protest when day after day human beings are placed before firing squads in Havana and shot to death.

WHY IS SUCH cruelty ignored? These episodes are taking place just 90 miles away from the United States.

Once upon a time, when Spain's military executioners were engaged in killing Cuban patriots, the United States intervened and helped Cuba to win its independence.

Today, there is instead a blind indifferrence to the cruelties of the Cuban dictator not only by the United States government but by virtually all the other nations that call themselves humane and which make high-sounding speeches extolling the U.N. as an exponent of human rights.

The Organization of American States sent an investigating commission to the Dominican Republic recently, but apparently no similar mission is to be undertaken in Cuba. But it did cause another part of the organization — The Inter-American Commission on Human Rights — to cable the Cuban foreign minister asking for information on the possible death sentences of 11 Cubans now being tried.

Among the accused is Alfredo Riva, former editor of a newspaper in Havana and the only member of The Inter-American Press Association remaining in Cuba.

Here is something which also concerns the U.N. very directly because freedom of the press is supposed to be one of the rights which the United Nations would presumably be interested in defending. But the U.N. is strangely silent.

Free Trade Drive

By Joseph R. Slevin

Supporters of freer trade have launched a drive to push a liberalized trade law through Congress in 1962.

It may seem like an early start, for Congress has just left town, but the freer trade backers figure they can't begin too soon.

Congressional protectionist sentiment is growing stronger and early soundings suggest that the 1962 trade battle will be the bitterest legislative clash in many years.

The immediate goal of the freer trade advocates is to win grass roots backing. Three different organizations have sent new booklets to this reporter in recent days.

One came from an influential business group, the Committee for a National Trade Policy. Its chief members are the heads of companies that believe they will benefit from a rising foreign trade volume.

A second pamphlet came from the AFL-CIO. It was prepared by the labor organization's research department and holds to the AFL-CIO's established national policy of pressing for freer trade.

THE THIRD broadside was published by one of the best known public service groups in the country, the 132,000 member League of Women Voters. The ladies have battled for liberalized trade policies since 1936 and they have made freer trade the chief program for which they will campaign during the next six months.

Foreign trade is becoming an increasingly hot issue because the latest extension of the 27-year-old reciprocal trade agreements act will expire on June 30, 1962.

President Kennedy wants Congress to approve a greatly liberalized new program but the protectionists plan to counter with demands for fresh restrictions that would make it more difficult for foreign companies to sell their goods in the American market.

The President has not yet settled upon the details of his program but there is general agreement among his advisers that it must give him broad tariff-cutting authority that will allow the United States to offer substantial concessions to sellers from the increasingly powerful European Common Market in return for generous concessions from the Common Market countries to American producers.

The most widely backed plan would replace the current painstaking item-by-item international bargaining with broad, across-the-board cuts in tariff rates. Injured domestic industries and workers would be helped by federal loans and retraining programs instead of by tougher restrictions on foreign goods.

The major difficulty that the freer trade groups face is demonstrating the very real increases in profits and jobs that flow from large exports. It is relatively easy for the protectionists to tell Congress that imported goods are forcing some American manufacturers to cut production and layoff workers.

THE BUSINESS members of the free trade CNTP are offset—often in their own communities—by the business members of protectionist groups.

The AFL-CIO staunchly espouses freer trade but many of its local unions write their congressmen to voice violent objections. The textile, clothing, and electrical workers now are complaining about Japanese competition while the glassworkers are protesting against imports from Europe.

Individual congressmen report that the protectionist pressure from their constituents never has been more intense than it was during the just completed legislative session.

In addition to the textile, clothing, electrical and glass groups they heard from coal, oil, lead and zinc, cement, baseball gloves, carpet, fishing rods, pottery and steel spokesmen.

Wreck Hurts Alliance Man

A 38-year-old Alliance man, who was thrown out of his car along Route 30 east of Lisbon Thursday afternoon just before it hit guardrails and sheared through a utility pole, is in "fair" condition today at Alliance City Hospital.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Robert H. Owens suffered a fractured collarbone, possible rib fractures, laceration of the head, bruises and abrasions of the back, legs and hands and puncture wounds of the right foot and hand.

His car veered off the highway about three miles east of Lisbon yesterday afternoon at 3:30, and went over an embankment onto the roadway of old Route 30, the patrol said.

Owens was thrown out of the car to the old roadway, but the auto careened on through guardrails, through a pole supporting telephone wires and stopped in a field.

Officers said telephone wires were not broken. Owens was taken to Salem City Hospital and later transferred to Alliance.

Firemen To Inspect Grandview School

Plans to inspect the Grandview School as part of a Fire Prevention Week project were made by the Lawrenceville firemen at a meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

The firemen will inspect any homes or business for possible fire hazards if requested, it was announced. A fire drill will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 at the fire station.

Eight members received certificates for completion of the fire school held in May by the Hancock County Firemen's Association. Okey Leaisure, president, was in charge. Next meeting is Oct. 19.

125 At Installation Rites For Officers Of DeMolay

One hundred twenty-five attended an installation ceremony of Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Thursday night in the Masonic Temple.

A slate of new officers headed by Homer (Dale) Hoffman Jr., master councilor, was seated by Carl Bevington, past master councilor of Dillon Crist Chapter of Alliance, and a state senior councilor aide.

The new master councilor was presented a gavel by his father, Homer Hoffman. Jack Geren presented the DeMolay Rose ceremony, a tribute to motherhood.

The interpolation prayer was offered by Steve Neville, chaplain. David Conley, past master councilor, was presented a jewel and a DeMolay Bible.

The newly - installed officers were escorted by officers of Bethel Chapter 61 of Job's Daughters. Mary Alyce Stark is honored queen.

A reception was held in the diningroom following the ceremony. Mrs. Eric Young was in charge for the Mothers' Circle.

Three petitions for membership were received.

Other officers seated include Larry White, senior councilor; Mark Wilson, junior councilor; Roger Hicks, scribe; Ed Carnes, treasurer; David Hoffman, senior deacon; Phil Irwin, junior deacon.

Fritz Eckert, senior steward; Keith Locke, junior steward; Geren, orator; Bill Crooks, sentinel; Neville, chaplain; Bob Gilmore, marshal; Joe Blankenship, standard bearer, and Bob Kidd, almoner.

Preceptors seated were Bill Fletcher, first; Ed Birch, second; Terry Scott, third; Jim Orr, fourth; Bill Peppin, fifth; Charles Herman, sixth, and Keith Hall, seventh.

Other members of the installing team were Gary Mackey, installing senior councilor; Milt Grumbling of Niles Chapter, installing chaplain; Conley and Dick Graham of Dillon Crist Chapter, installing marshal.

Choir boys were Raymond Hicks and John Conley.

Guests included Alvin McDaniels, commander of Pilgrim Commandry Knights Templar of East Liverpool, Clifford Conley, chairman of the chapter's Advisory Board, and J. Wesley Pieper of Canton, 6th District governor.

The chapter will hold obligation practice Oct. 16 and a regular meeting Oct. 19.

Wellsville Autoist In Crash Due Hearing

A hearing is scheduled Saturday morning for Earl W. Reed, 1900 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, who was cited for reckless operation after a mishap in Wellsville at 8:40 a. m. Thursday.

Police said Reed's car struck the parked pickup truck of Patrolman Denton Kevan, 1504 Clark Ave., at 18th St. and Clark Ave.

Reed was treated at City Hospital for a fracture of the eighth rib on the right side and later released.

The hearing will be held before Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville.

Pittsburgh Driver Fined $25 At Chester

Arthur Goss of Pittsburgh was fined a total of $35 and costs Thursday night by Mayor Ray Collins of Chester on charges stemming from a collision with another auto and backing his car against a pedestrian Sept. 25.

Goss was fined $25 and costs for failure to yield the right-of-way and $10 and costs for failure to have his car under control. His car was struck by another at 1st St. as he made a left turn from a right lane, and a few minutes after the mishap, he backed into a Carolina Ave. woman.

Wellsville VFW Sets Fete Tonight

Plans for a social tonight were outlined by Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9285 at a meeting Wednesday night.

The social will follow the Wellsville football game.

Rex Reich, past county commander, spoke on the necessity for more taxes in the county and how an increase would aid the veterans.

A wrestling show will be held in November at the Beacom Memorial Gymnasium.

Richard Carter was named membership chairman for East Liverpool and Ben Thompson and Ed Parker were named for Wellsville. Sixteen were present.

A barbecue and chicken dinner was served. Some members will attend the 6th District meeting Sunday at Orville. The post will host a 6th District dance in the future.

Beaver Local Mothers Club Elects Officers

Mrs. Betty Keister of Apples Corners was elected president of the Beaver Local Public School Mothers Club at a meeting Wednesday. She succeeds Mrs. Iverna Cunningham.

Others named were Mrs. Jackie Dray, vice president; Mrs. Helen Taylor, secretary, and Mrs. Norma Stone, treasurer.

Homeroom mother chairmen are Mrs. Noriene Andreatta, eighth grade; Mrs. Ruth Green, seventh grade; Mrs. Betty Bradley, sixth grade, and Mrs. Kay Barker, fifth grade.

Next meeting is Nov. 1.

Chester

Sen. William Tompos of Weirton and House of Delegates member, Miss Callie Tsapis, of Weirton in expediting the processing of the application.

The recent rejection of the application was the third for the community since the city began to seek federal assistance.

The city achieved a total of 38.75 points in the rating system established to set priority for communities seeking federal funds allotted to West Virginia for such projects.

Chester had 15 points for urgency of pollution control (out of a possible 25) having received a third notice from the Ohio River Sanitation Authority.

The city also received 5.75 points out of a possible 15 for effects of present sewage on downstream conditions.

Chester received 12 out of a possible 15 points for progress rating, claiming final plans are approved, cost estimates current and financing arranged.

The Todd firm has conducted a preliminary survey for the system, and tentative financing procedures have been discussed with Todd and a representative of a bonding firm.

Union Seeks Site At Cleveland For Housing Project

A union foundation with which the IBOP is affiliated, has announced it is seeking a four-acre site in Cleveland for construction of a $5 million housing development for retired trade unionists.

E. L. Wheatley, IBOP president, is a member of the Board of Directors of Four Freedoms, which said it is seeking a site in a Cleveland urban area to erect moderate cost rental homes.

The union foundation plans to build a 400-unit 14-story building if it can find a suitable area with ample shopping, transportation and cultural facilities.

The first property acquired by Four Freedoms is the 205-room President Madison Hotel at Miami, Fla. Purchased about six months ago, it was visited in June by delegates to the IBOP's international convention, which was held in Miami.

Ruritan Club To Elect

LISBON — Officers will be elected at a meeting of the Lisbon Ruritan Club Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the First Christian Church. State Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon will summarize the recent 104th assembly.

Firemen Let Building Job

A contract was awarded to the Boyd Lumber Co. for construction of an $8,900 addition to the fire station when the Glenmoor Firemen's Association met Thursday night.

The addition will be erected in the rear of the present station on land owned by the department. Trustees of the department and a building committee are in charge of plans.

In other business conducted by Devine Banks, president, firemen approved plans to organize a "50-Cents-a-Month Club" in which members will contribute for department operations. Joseph Arcuragi is chairman.

It was reported that a hose reel for the No. 3 truck has been welded. Reports from the secretary and treasurer were heard. Twenty attended. Next meeting is Oct. 19.

Court Handles 115 Cases In September

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of 11 more cases in September than were filed, according to a report to the administrative assistant to the Supreme Court, furnished by clerk of courts Carl L. Stacey.

Beginning Sept. 1, the court had 885 cases pending and during the month 104 were filed for a total of 939. The court disposed of 115 with 874 pending as of Oct. 1.

Disposition shows 75 were tried by the court, 12 were cognovit and default judgments and 28 were settled and dismissed.

One traffic point system case was terminated during the month. The 7th District Court of Appeals trimmed two cases, leaving five pending.

what's new at Olsen's?

"Ollie Olsen"

Fashions for the Petite

Cheers for the fashions for the smaller woman and girls. Doll-sized females take note. You can walk into Olsen's, buy a dress or coat, walk right out with it without hem or waist or other once usual alterations. How come? Because of the new sizings—"Junior petites" . . . "Custom size" — there are many different names for it, but it all adds up to one thing . . . Perfect fit for the gals 5 feet 2" and under.

There is nothing like a fur trimmed coat to make a girl "enjoy being a girl." Olsen's have gathered together a wonderful selection of these fur-trim coats for the petite figure—dainty mink collars, raccoon, and fox. Of course they are all removable. If you are 5 feet two or under, you will want to stop in Olsen's tomorrow and see these coats truly for the "petite" figure. No more costly alterations — new abheviated sleeves — cut smaller thru the shoulders — and the lengths are just right. In the smartest of styles and falls best colors, in sizes 5 to 15 and 6 to 16. Why not take advantage of Olsen's convenient lay-away plan. Select your coat now and pick it up at a later date.

Olsen's buyers did not stop with just coats for the "petites" — they have loads of dresses on display for the doll-sized figure. For the juniors who are 5 feet 2 and under, we have colorful wool flannels with dainty self-ruffle at the wrist . . . some with wide collars and cuffs . . . nearly all of them with giant button trim. These dresses are custom sized, scientifically created for you who are small, carefully made to fit and flatter your tiny figure, especially proportioned and designed to save you the trouble and expense of costly alterations. Such beautiful autumn colors, too. Just right for home-coming dances and parties. Remember these dresses can be layed away for as little as 50c just to hold them for a later date.

We found a fashion scoop for the shorter woman — 5 foot 3 and under. One of the best-known woman's dresses in the country is Olsen's exclusively in this district. "Korell" is the name. "Korell" means perfect fit. "Korell" means newest styles. Best of all, "Korell" means they are priced to fit any budget. "Korell" comes in plus sizes (instead of the old half-sizes) 12 plus to 24 plus. If you are one of these women with a figure problem, your problem is gone, if you buy one of the new "Korells," dresses especially designed smaller thru the shoulders, shorter in the waist line, the skirts are made to exact length, your choice of gored or sheath skirts, too. The necklines are made to flatter the shorter woman.

The colors are so exciting this fall. Milady has thrown that old idea of black out the door. Now she wears glamorous colors that her daughter wears, and looks just as lovely. These plus sizes are in all the most wanted fabrics — crepes, matte jersey, wool jersey —and the newest blends. "Korell" designers did not forget style either. These dresses are just as smart on the plus size figure as the sizes 12 are on a smaller woman.

My advice to you—if you have a figure problem—is to stop in at Olsen's dress department and try these wonderful-fitting dresses on. See for yourself. Be satisfied.

Don't forget Olsen's are open every night until 9 for your shopping pleasure. That's all today. See you next Friday.

Burglary

Store personnel were summoned, but they were unable immediately to determine the extent of the loss. The intruder smashed a hole about 4-x-4 feet in a curved piece of plate glass on the south side of the store. Plywood was placed over the opening and the balance of the jewelry was removed from the display window.

Police said a watchman at the D. M. Ogilvie & Co. store heard the crash of breaking glass and discovered the window broken in the store next door.

A window at Shaw's was looted on at least two previous occasions. Capt. Robert B. Pyle nabbed one of the intruders several years ago in an alley about a block away.

The burglary at Shaw's was similar to a case less than two months ago at the James Locke Jewelry on E. 5th St. An intruder smashed a window and took merchandise worth about $900. It was the second such burglary at Locke's.

Dow Finsterwald placed second to Doug Sanders in the 1956 Canadian Open, the 1958 Western Open and the 1959 Coral Gables Open.

19 Arrested To Face Trial

MCCOMB, Miss. (AP) — Nineteen demonstrators arrested for protesting the suspension of two Negro students remained in jail today with no indication bond would be posted.

The 18 Negroes and one white man—part of a group of 119 demonstrators arrested Wednesday afternoon for demonstrating on the steps of City Hall—will go on trial Oct. 23 on disturbing the peace charges. Ten of the group have also been charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The other 100 demonstrators, all juveniles, will go before Youth Court Judge Hansford L. Simmons at a later date.

Thursday the 19 were arraigned before City Judge Robert Brumfield. All pleaded innocent to the charges. Bond was set at $100 on the peace charge violation and $200 for the others.

Negro attorney Jack Young, who represented the 19, said no arrangements had been made for posting bond. All were returned to the Pike County Jail at nearby Magnolia.

Most of the demonstrators were from Burgland Junior and Senior High School, located near a new Negro housing project.

The students had walked out of a school assembly Wednesday because they said officials would not allow Brenda Travis, 16, and Isaac Lewis, 20, to re-enter school immediately.

Police had arrested the two Aug. 30 after a sit-in attempt at the McComb Bus Station. They were released last Saturday after posting $1,000 cash bonds.

Cuyahoga Unit Urges Censure Of Dr. Wolfe

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cuyahoga County Council of the Army and Navy Union passed a resolution Thursday night calling upon Western Reserve University to fire or censure Dr. Rolland E. Wolfe, chairman of the WRU department of religion.

The action resulted from a speech Wolfe made last Sunday at the sixth annual Peace Seminar in Lakewood Methodist Church. He deplored what he called the American people's insane mania of antipathy toward the Russian people, called for recognition of Red China and Cuba by the United States and said this country has been brandishing bombs while Russia is talking peace.

READY FOR LECTURES. Mayor Bert Goodballet buys the first ticket for series of "World Travel And Adventure" travelogues sponsored by the Quota Club. Mrs. Jeannette Carpenter, ways and means chairman, hands him the ticket as Miss Phyllis Crook, president, looks on. The movies with commentaries are scheduled Oct. 17, 24 and 31 and Nov. 7 at Westgate School. Tickets may be purchased from members and at the door. Miss Gladys DeBolt, chairman, said proceeds will go to the Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Masonic Lodge And Chapter To Hear Past Grand Master

Louis B. Henderson of Steubenville, past grand master of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Ohio, and a 33rd Degree Mason, will be the guest speaker at the banquet of the John Washington Masonic Lodge and John Washington Chapter 68, Order of Eastern Star, Sunday at 7 p. m., marking the opening of their new Masonic Hall on Locust St.

He is employed in the metallurgical department of the Weirton Steel Co. and served the Ohio lodge through various grand offices since 1939.

He was grand master in 1953-55 and is now chairman of the Home Board.

He is a member of the Bezaleel Consistory Chapter 15 of Cleveland and LeHassa Temple Chapter 28. He was awarded the 33rd degree in 1952.

He was graduated from Case Institute of Technology and is a member of the Quinn African Methodist Episcopal Church of Steubenville. He is also active in civic and religious affairs.

Richard Carter will be master of ceremonies and Caesar A. Peters, also past master, will introduce the speaker.

Greetings will be given by Eugene Taylor, worthy master, and Mrs. Sarah L. Taylor, worthy matron. Remarks will be given by Dennis Palmer of Steubenville, deputy Ohio grand lecturer. Officers and visitors will be recognized.

Mrs. Gladys Peters Freeman of Youngstown, a former resident of East Liverpool, and Joseph Porter will present solos.

About 150 persons are expected to attend. Guests will be from Youngstown, Steubenville, Bridgeport, Warren and Midland.

Wellsville Club To Help Buy Item

The Wellsville Oni Boosters Club voted Wednesday night to pay half the cost of a new whirlpool for the athletic department. The Athletic Association will pay the other half.

The new equipment will cost $500. Mrs. Margaret Kiggans, secretary, presided in the absence of the president and vice president.

She reported 165 attended the teen-age dance held Saturday night at MacDonald School. Another will be held this Saturday night.

It was reported 100 were served a meal following the Wellsville-Ashland footbal game Friday night. Plans were made to provide refreshments for the team mothers following the New Philadelphia game tonight.

Don Hutchinson and Russell Baughman were named to sell membership tickets at the game.

Next meeting is Oct. 18.

High point in golfer Bob Rosburg's career was his victory in the 1959 PGA championship. He's a former Stanford athlete.

Singer Lu Ann Simms To Marry Salesman

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Singer Lu Ann Simms is going to remarry.

Miss Simms, 30, took out a marriage license Thursday with Casper Stolt, 32, a Rochester liquor salesman.

The couple will be married in New York on Oct. 15 and then move to Los Angeles, she said.

Miss Simms, who gained fame on the Arthur Godfrey show, had been running the music publishing business of her first husband, Loring Buzzell, since his death in 1959. The couple had two children.

Boys Get Terms For Burglary Of Green Ln. Home

Two East Liverpool boys, 12 and 13, were sentenced to the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster Thursday afternoon by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for burglary of an unoccupied Green Ln. home Sunday.

The 13-year-old was paroled from the institution in June, so he will be returned as a parole violator. The judge ordered the two turned over to custody of the County Welfare Department until they are admitted to the institution.

Court records show both boys had been before the judge on several previous occasions. Judge Tobin said yesterday's appearance was "the end of the line" for the two.

The boys were charged with entering a home at 821 Green Ln. owned by Mrs. Thelma Goodley, who now resides in Florida. Police said the house has been placed in the hands of a realtor for sale.

Receiving a tip from a neighbor, police nabbed the two inside the home. The boys told the judge they noticed the grass on the lawn was high, so they knocked on the door to ask if the owner wanted it cut. They said the door opened and they went inside. Then the door locked and they were unable to get out, they said.

Hadassah Film Chairman Will Address City Chapter

Mrs. Hazel Greenwald of New York City will be guest speaker for the donor meeting of the East Liverpool Chapter of Hadassah Monday night at 8:30 o'clock at the B'nai Israel Temple.

She is national film chairman of Hadassah and has been a member of the National Board for more than a quarter of a century. She has been directly responsible for the production of many movies, filmstrips and still photographs for showing to "live and TV" audiences to promote Hadassah and its work throughout the country.

Mrs. Greenwald has traveled all over the world in making the movies, recently returning from Russia with more than 600 pictures.

Her filmstrip, "Sulamith Finds Tommorrow," earned her an "Oscar" from the American Film Assembly in New York. Another movie, "Hannah Means Grace," showing Hadassah's medical work, was one of the few non-commercial films selected for showing at the 1959 Venice and Edinburgh Film Festivals.

This is the 50th anniversary year of Hadassah, the women's Zionist organization of America. The program, founded by Miss Henrietta Szold in 1912, began as a modest attempt to raise the health standards of what was then Palestine. It has become an intricate system of healing, teaching and medical research, child rescue work, vocational education, social welfare and land redemption, sponsors said.

Mrs. Myron Weis is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Berman and Mrs. Theodore Replane. Mrs. William Sulkes, president, will preside.

Mrs. Lesley Tatgenhorst, chairman, reported 36 from District 6 visited the Tiffin Home Sunday.

Drill prizes went to Mrs. Sue Anderson, Mrs. Bessie Clapsadle and Mrs. Linda Bayer.

Trinity Women Dedicate Sewing Items Of Projects

Dedication of sewing highlighted the meeting of the Women's Association of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in the social rooms.

Mrs. Leonard Kupchinsky, program chairman, explained where items of the sewing projects were sent and conducted a question-and-answer session. She was assisted by Mrs. John F. Wood, Mrs. Edgar Pittenger, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and Mrs. Wesley Montgomery, who gave closing prayer.

Mrs. J. R. Mackall conducted devotions, reading Scripture from John 15: 12-18 and a poem, "I Love You Much—This Much." Mrs. Harold Dray sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go." The group sang "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" with Mrs. Kupchinsky at the organ.

Prayer for missions was led by Mrs. Emmett Lawrence, who remembered the station at Long Island, N. Y.

Mrs. Leonard Gamble, president, opened business with prayer. The group voted to continue with the contributions for parish work and the regular Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Kenneth Persohn, treasurer, read the financial report and presented the goal sheet, which was discussed at the Executive Board meeting preceding. A motion was passed to accept it.

Suggestions for equipment for the kitchen in the new church were presented by Mrs. Harold Allison who, along with a committee, visited several churches of the area.

Mrs. Donald Baxter, membership chairman, introduced new members, Mrs. John Carpenter, Mrs. James Huston and Mrs. Gene Toot.

A large group plans to attend the fall meeting of District 1 of Steubenville Presbyterial Tuesday at the Glenmoor church.

Dr. Edward Fairman of Pittsburgh will be guest speaker for the annual thank-offering service the morning of Nov. 12.

A buffet lunch was served 40 by members of the Bergman Group with Mrs. Lawrence, chairman. The table was covered with a green cloth and featured fall flowers, leaves and orange tapers. "Happy Birthday" was sung for Mrs. Roxie Marquette.

The next meeting is Dec. 5 at the church. Mrs. Lester Hall is program chairman. Mrs. Lawrence will have devotions. All groups will assist with the social hour.

Officers and directors were elected, tribute was paid a local resident for community service and the vital role of the volunteer was emphasized when the East Liverpool Chapter of the American Red Cross held its annual dinner meeting Thursday night in the banquet hall at St. Aloysius Parochial School. There were 110 present.

James Walker, who has been serving as first vice chairman, was elevated to chairman of the chapter's Executive Committee during brief business.

OTHERS NAMED are H. Judson English, first vice chairman; J. Norman Nicely, second vice chairman; Mrs. Lawrence Black, secretary, and John K. Allison, treasurer. Mrs. Black and Allison were re-elected.

Chosen directors for a term ending in 1964 were J. Christ Pallis, Eugene Hall, Mrs. Evelyn Balser, Frank Hancock, Mrs. F. D. Irwin, Mrs. J. Donald Thompson, Mrs. Richard Mayers, Mrs. Neil Shope, Frank Dawson Jr., Alton Weber, Alvin T. Babb, Howard E. Tice, George Mueller, Samuel Brown, Alwyn Purinton Jr. and Allison.

Mrs. Thompson, who has been active in the Red Cross and many other civic organizations over the years, was honored for community service. Following a review of her many endeavors by Miss Nell Robinson, superintendent of City Hospital, Mrs. Thompson was presented a "certificate of appreciation" and a pin "for 20 years of faithful service."

SHE ALSO received a gift from directors of the Child Counseling Center with which she has been associated since its founding. This presentation was by Mrs. Russell Smith, president of the center's directors.

The tribute was included on the program as a "surprise" for Mrs. Thompson.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Gordon Millott of Sandusky, volunteer field consultant for the American Red Cross.

She had words of praise for the efforts of the local chapter, but pointed out that more volunteers are always needed to constantly expand such a program.

SHE URGED all ex-secretaries to "come out of hiding" and help with the chapter's paper work; cited the value of well-organized canteens; asked for more workers in the field of water safety; called for soundly-organized classes to further home nursing, and suggested refresher courses in first aid to keep up with new techniques.

She also lauded the Gray Ladies program.

The speaker declared "there is a place in Red Cross for everyone".

She described Red Cross as an organization encompassing many people and many lands and standing as an "expression of our concern for one another in time of need."

Volunteers were pictured as those "who give service of their own free will" in an unselfish manner.

MRS. MILLOTT was introduced by Miss Mary Katherine Brady of Steubenville, Red Cross field representative.

Judge Louis Tobin, retiring chapter chairman, presided. Harold Sneddon was chairman of the nominating committee.

The invocation was by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church and the benediction by Mrs. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army.

Musical selections were presented by "The Stepping Tones" of the Sweet Adelines barbershop singing society. The quartet included Miss JoAnn Vannoy, Mrs. Madalyn Mack, Mrs. Edith Alexander and Mrs. Marjorie Stover.

Granges Hold Joint Service

Reuben Lunger, master of the Clarkson Grange, and Byron Anglemyer, master of the Elkrun Grange, and other new officers for 1962 were installed in a joint ceremony held Thursday night at the Clarkson Grange.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I live in Port Elizabeth, South Africa, but since human problems are the same all over the world, I think you can help me.

My husband is an only son. He is devoted to his thrice-divorced mother although she gave him to an aunt for raising.

Before we married I made it clear I did not want to share quarters with her. He agreed, but ask if she might occupy our new flat while we honeymooned. I said, "Fine."

When we returned she was settled in our place and made no mention of leaving. After two months I insisted that WE find another flat because he didn't have the nerve to ask her to leave.

Now my husband wants to start a family but I fear eventually his mother will ask to live with us and he will be too gutless to refuse. I will then be trapped. Perhaps the time to end the marriage is now, when there are no children. — WORRIED.

Dear Worried: If you are seeking an excuse to end your marriage or put off having a family, this is as good as any.

It would be foolish, however, to take such a drastic step in anticipation of a problem which may never materialize. Simply adhere to your position of a separate roof for Mama and adopt a positive approach toward your marriage. It will work — if you want it to.

No More Mistakes

Dear Ann: I'm 18 and expecting a baby in three months. My boy friend refused to marry me although we went steady for two years and we talked about marriage a lot. I was so heartbroken and ashamed I told him I never wanted to see him again. I decided to put my child up for adoption.

Last night his mother came over to talk to me. This is the first I've heard from her since I became expectant, although she has known for quite some time. She offered to pay all medical expenses plus $500 if I would give my baby to her sister-in-law.

Her sister-in-law has been married for 13 years and has no children. She is 42 and having a difficult time getting a baby through an agency.

My head is swimming from all the advice I've had. I've decided to do as you say. — BITTER TEARS.

Dear Bitter Tears: If you sell your baby to this boy's aunt it will be the second biggest mistake of your life.

Haven't you suffered enough? Do you want the additional pain of watching your child grow up under your very nose—probably unable to get near him except on phony pretexts?

Tell the woman NO — then continue with your plan to put the child up for adoption through a licensed agency.

Tone Deaf And Blind

Dear Ann: I can't let you get away with this any longer. You keep telling kids they should take music lessons even if they hate it "because it's good for you." Don't you know this only makes kids hate it more?

I'm a grown man now but I have vivid memories of the agonies I suffered practicing the trombone. I was tone deaf and had no sense of rhythm. The neighbors upstairs used to knock on our floor with a hammer. The neighbors downstairs pounded their ceiling with a broom handle.

We had fights every day. I can still hear my mother yelling "Practice! Lessons cost money!"

I have three children and when we want music in our house we turn on the radio or spin a few records. Peace, it's wonderful! — POP.

Dear Pop: Yes — and who makes the music? Probably musicians who hated to practice when they were young.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

2 City Men Face Judge

Two city area men and two from Wellsville were among eight district motorists penalized at hearings Thursday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine.

Lawrence Sullivan of Maine Blvd. was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center at the crest of a hill, and Howard Bomberger of R. D. 2 was fined $10 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Donald J. Coran, 524 Broadway, Wellsville, and Charles E. Clark, 1906 Nevada St., Wellsville, each forfeited $15 bonds for speeding.

Carl White of East Palestine R. D. 2 was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Robert Kiddey of New Waterford was fined $50—with $35 suspended—for permitting an unlicensed minor to operate a vehicle.

James A. Quetot of Rogers was fined $5 and costs for lack of turn signals.

Judge Arfman reported court collections in September totaled $3,456. He heard 97 criminal cases and 30 civil cases.

Brakeman Killed In Weird Mishap

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A huge concrete culvert bounced off a flatbed truck when it was hit by a freight train Thursday. The culvert, eight feet in diameter and weighing about 10 tons, slammed into the diesel engine and crushed to death a brakeman who was standing on the front platform.

The unusual accident in suburban Kettering killed Wendell J. Smith, 53, of Xenia.

The truck driver, James A. McGinnis of Orient, Pickaway County, was not hurt. Kettering police were holding him for investigation of manslaughter.

The crossing where it happened is not protected by flasher signals.

Another fatality involving a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train occurred earlier Thursday in Dayton. An unidentified woman was struck by the train as she appeared to be crawling toward the tracks, according to the engineer, Earl F. Williams, 65, of Columbus.

Stage Set Designer Hurt In 20-Foot Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—Peter Wexler, designer who arranged the sets for the Shakespeare production at the White House Wednesday night, was injured Thursday in a 20-foot fall onto the stage of Radio City Music Hall.

Wexler, 24, suffered a concussion, fractured rib and cuts and bruises. At Roosevelt Hospital, his condition was described as fair.

Humorist Is Resting After Brain Surgery

NEW YORK (AP) — Humorist James Thurber rested comfortably Thursday night at Doctors Hospital after undergoing surgery for removal of a blood clot on his brain.

Although Thurber had a steady pulse and normal blood pressure, the hospital continued to list his condition as critical.

Judge Reverses Trip's Direction For Winter Visit

Raymond (Sarge) Franklin, facing Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff Thursday for the umpteenth time on an intoxication charge, said he thought it was about time he headed south for the winter, but the judge had other ideas.

"You're going north — north to the County Jail in Lisbon," he told Franklin. Judge Chertoff imposed a fine of $100 and $7.50 costs, which will keep Franklin behind bars for close to six weeks.

Franklin protested that he entered city jail as a "sleeper" Wednesday night, but when he asked to leave the following morning he was told an intoxication charge had been placed against him.

Paraphrasing a famous book's title, the judge told Franklin: "Somebody down there doesn't like you."

Fire Prevention Date Proclaimed

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet issued a proclamation today setting aside next week as Fire Prevention Week in East Liverpool.

The mayor's proclamation called on all departments of city government "to co-operate actively in a campaign for improved fire safety." It also asked every citizen "to take part in eliminating hazardous conditions and making our city a safer community."

The local observance is part of a nationwide program. The East Liverpool program is sponsored by the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with area members of the Fire Insurance Underwriters' Association and Local 24, International Association of Fire-Fighters.

GOP Figure Taken

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Austin Meehan, 64, for many years a power in Republican politics in Philadelphia, died Thursday, apparently of a heart attack.

K. Of C. Council Plans Activities

Future events were discussed at the meeting of Carroll Council 508, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening in the K. of C. Hall.

A fish fry will be held Oct. 20, first degree ceremony Oct. 24, district K. of C. Communion at Lisbon Nov. 12, and the district second degree exercise at the local council Nov. 21.

Ralph McNicol is chairman of the fish fry to be held from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from members.

Ralph Yanni, financial secretary, reported that the council has been placed on the national membership insurance honor roll. Yanni said tickets for the Pitt-Notre Dame football game Nov. 11 will be available.

Fr. Anthony Esposito, retiring chaplain, gave a brief talk. He will leave Friday to assume his new duties at Girard.

Following the Canton Central-Potter football game Friday night, a party will be held at the council rooms for members and their guests. The next meeting is Tuesday evening.

Costume Parade Scheduled In Chester Halloween Fete

A costume parade headed by the Chester High School band and a street dance will highlight a Halloween celebration in Chester Oct. 31.

Chester firemen Thursday night furthered plans for the community event.

The parade will form at 7:30 at the high school, and move to 4th St. where Ruth Hissam's orchestra of East Liverpool will provide music for a street dance.

Costume prizes will be awarded, and treats will be furnished for youngsters.

In observance of national Fire Prevention Week, firemen will inspect schools, industries and business places starting Monday.

Blaine Dotson and Richard Shingler were accepted as regular members after serving one-year probation. The group accepted the resignation of Harley Freeman who has moved to Newell after 13 years service with the department.

Melvin Hissom and Paul Doughty were enrolled for a one-year probation period. Lunch was served 17 by Jerrold Wilson and his committee.

Fire Chief William Glover presided. Next meeting is Nov. 2.

Hammondsville Family Returns

Mrs. Wayne Householder and children, Wanita and Calvin, of Pine Grove near Hammondsville have returned from a motor trip in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ferry and family have moved from Wellsville to Cambridge. They are former local residents.

The young girls' class of the Methodist Church Sunday School realized $45 from a recent bake sale, Mrs. Fred Davidson, teacher, reported.

Mrs. Stanley Cooper is a patient in St. John's Hospital in Steubenville.

Mrs. Hazel Griffith Williamson has returned after visiting her husband, Pfc. William B. Williamson, of Ft. Sill, Okla.

Mrs. John Boyle is recovering at home after recent eye surgery in the Cleveland Clinic.

Kenneth Burgett is recovering after a recent illness at his home on Chestnut Grove.

Music Parents Plan Drive For Members

Plans for a membership drive were aired at a meeting of the Beaver Local Music Parents Association Wednesday night at the high school.

The membership committee will meet Oct. 18 at 7:30 (EST) at the high school to map further arrangements for the drive to be launched later this month.

Mrs. Norman Ankrim and Mrs. B. L. Porter are in charge. Mrs. Paul Dailey, president, conducted business. About 25 attended. Next meeting is Nov. 1.

Carl Allison To Head ASC

C. C. Herron, elderly Pughtown farmer, has lost his first "election" in 25 years.

Herron was unseated as chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Committee today after heading the group for a quarter-century.

He lost to Carl Allison of Gas Valley Rd., Pughtown, 66 votes to 61. Herron, however, was given enough votes to be elected vice chairman of the committee.

Ballots mailed by county farmers were counted this morning by Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager.

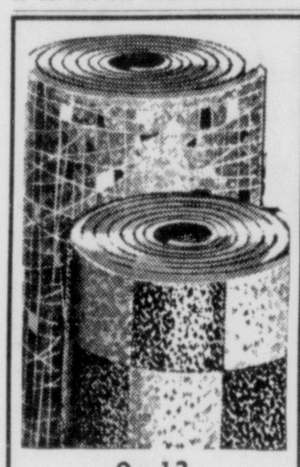

Shields Mayhew of Pughtown was returned as regular committee member with 60 votes.

Elected as new alternate members are Plummer Smith of Pughtown and Leslie Cuppy of Tope Hill Rd., New Cumberland. They succeed Harry Nichol and Donald Allison. Officers will assume duties Nov. 1.

Retiring members of the committee met today. A regular meeting of newly-elected committee members will be held Nov. 15.

Pennsylvania Potters Await NLRB Election

An NLRB-supervised election is scheduled Oct. 25 at the Phalsgraf Pottery Co., a York (Pa.) earthenware firm, in which employes will ballot on a bargaining agent, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

The union said two of its international representatives canvassed the plant's employes and secured sufficient signatures to call for an election on naming a bargaining agent. The IBOP then filed a petition with the NLRB and the date was set.

Meanwhile, the international union said it has been informed that Local 308 has called off a strike against Slidell Brick & Tile, Inc., at Slidell, La., which had been under way since May 15. The local walked out when contract negotiations reached a stalemate, the union said. Announcement of termination of the strike was received here Thursday, but further details are lacking, the IBOP said.

Homeroom chairmen include Mrs. James Goss and Mrs. Jean Staley, first; Mrs. Robert Estell and Mrs. Norman Aikens, second; Mrs. Richard Hunsicker and Mrs. Richard Smith, second; Mrs. Robert Hammond and Mrs. John Frederick, third; Mrs. Allen Johnson and Mrs. David McDonald, third; Mrs. Lewis Browne and Mrs. Macel Cox, fourth; Mrs. Roger Sanford, fourth; Mrs. James Jones and Mrs. Richard Galloway, fifth, and Mrs. Ruth Galloway and Mrs. Jean Mackall, sixth.

Unfair Labor Charge Slated To Be Filed

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — An unfair labor practices charge will be filed today or Monday with the National Labor Relations Board office in Cincinnati against the Master Electric Division here, says a union official.

The firm, a division of Reliance Electric Co. of Cleveland, plans to move its Dayton operations to Madison and Columbus, Ind., next month, leaving its 1,100 workers without jobs. Leo Palewicz, president of Local 2154, International Association of Machinists, which represents the workers, said that will be the basis for the unfair labor practices charge.

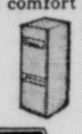

According to Palewicz, recent NLRB rulings indicate that a company under contract with a union "does not have an unlimited right to run away."

Old Movies Threaten TV Program Idealism

Funny thing happened at NBC the other Saturday afternoon. The network received a phone call from a woman who inquired: "What time does the double feature start?"

Marie Torre

A trenchant reminder of our movie-going days, the question holds special significance for those who follow trends in TV. Will the heavy reliance on old feature films turn the television medium into a projector for movies?

Thinking men of television have taken to pondering this dire prospect as they examine the varied and numerous uses television makes of Hollywood features, from silents to talkies.

They abbreviate and rewrite old movies and call them TV adaptations. They turn old movies into weekly series. They use old movies for morning viewing, and afternoon viewing, late night and late, late night viewing.

AND NOW they're showing vintage celluloid in the prime time hours.

After many years of rating futility opposite the CBS Western Goliaths ("Have Gun, Will Travel" and "Gunsmoke" NBC launched this season the two-hour "Saturday Night at the Movies," utilizing films never seen on TV before (followed locally by another movie — which is what prompted the aforementioned "double feature" inquiry).

The opening presentation, "How To Marry a Millionaire," with Marilyn Monroe, achieved the desired effect, but the people least happy about that are apperceptive citizens of TV who fear that the experiment, should it prove successful in the long run, will encourage — nay, force— the other networks to follow suit, and thus, discourage programming made specifically for TV.

AT CBS they admit no surrender to movies in prime time, but they are watching the "Saturday Night at the Movies" results with more than a passing interest.

"We do not believe," said a CBS man who requested anonymity, "that putting old feature films in prime time is a network function. It may be all right for local marginal time, where there are economic problems.

"And it also is all right to put on an occasional film classic, such as 'The Wizard of Oz,' but movies in prime time on a regular basis defeat the purpose of TV programming."

While network men await the results of the NBC venture, the word at CBS is "let's not panic" should early returns prove unwelcome to the long-reigning Westerns.

The corporate feeling is that NBC had to buy B-movies along with the A's, and that NBC obviously is showing the best of its film package in the early weeks of "Saturday Night at the Movies."

-:-

OTHER INDUSTRY men support this theory, their attitude being that NBC will at some point run out of Marilyn Monroe, Ava Gardner or Gregory Peck movies, and then what?

An ABC man speculated that there aren't enough top-drawer post-1948 movies available for wholesale use of Hollywood pictures—on NBC or anywhere else. Additionally, movie producers are not turning out films on a scale to accommodate an increased television demand.

Where motion picture producers once made 50 films for $50 million, they're now producing 30 or 35 movies for the same $50 million or more.

But the major concern of many industry men is the fear that old-movies-in-prime-time will become a common practice, putting the TV medium at the mercy of the motion picture industry.

If it becomes so easy to defeat the competition, ask TV men, what will become of that urge to create so necessary to the future of television?

-:-

"CAPT. KANGAROO," TV's most honored children's program, will be expanded to an hour this week. Asked to explain the CBS program's success, creator-performer Bob Keeshan said: "We talk the same language the children do. We meet them in a never-never land where they find reality. We give them fantasy and we give them education—learning about things in the world they are growing up in," . . .

James (Gunsmoke) Arness will leave the guns at home when he appears as host of "The Chevrolet Golden Anniversary Show," an hour-long salute to the auto company on the occasion of its 50th year in American industry. Nov. 3 is the date.

Top IBOP Officers Plan Fall Conference

The 12 - member Executive Board of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters will open its fall conference Tuesday, Oct. 17, in Chicago.

The session, expected to last three days, will be held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel. The IBOP said the board will study "matters of a specific nature" and also "take up pending legal matters and appeals and complete unfinished business."

The Executive Board is comprised of international officers and is headed by E. L. Wheatley, president. The IBOP members also may attend meetings of the National Safety Council, which will meet concurrently at the same hotel.

Court Income Cut Again As Fines Decline

Municipal Court revenue totaled $3,330 in September, off $233 from August's $3,563, it was shown today in the monthly report of Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The court turned over $2,892 to the city treasury, a decline of $389 from the $3,281 paid the city in August.

For the second consecutive month, a drop in criminal receipts accounted for the decline in the court's overall revenue. The criminal receipts produced $2,164 last month, down $378 from the $2,542 shown in August. The August criminal receipts were off $658 from July's $3,200.

The city's share of the receipts included the $2,164 in fines, costs and forfeitures from criminal cases and $727 from costs in civil cases.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $125 to the state treasury from state cases, $211 to the county treasury, also from states cases, and $102 to the Law Library Association.

The overall amount handled by the court last month gained by $2,628. It was $13,199 in September — $6,894 in the civil branch and $6,305 in the criminal branch —compared with $10,571 in August.

A breakdown of cases showed 60 civil cases filed, 54 disposed of and 182 left pending; 47 city criminal cases filed, 43 disposed of and 48 left pending, and 31 state criminal cases filed, 33 disposed of and 78 left pending.

Employment Better

CLEVELAND (AP) — An increase in the demand for skilled workers indicates employment is on the way up in the Cleveland area, Ward A. Riley, area head of the Ohio State Employment Service, reports. He said placements in skilled occupations jumped from 238 in August to 313 in September.

McNamara Warns Military Speakers At Seminar Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has decreed that military speakers at private seminars must stick to military subjects, avoid partisan expressions and must not challenge established policy.

McNamara drew these and other boundaries Thursday for military participation in seminars and other information programs sponsored by nongovernmental groups.

He left with local commanders the responsibility for determining whether military personnel, equipment and facilities should be allowed to take part in such activities.

But he specified that no military organization may sponsor or co-sponsor such programs unless he or a service secretary expressly approves.

Pentagon sources said the rules, filling out what have been general policies, are intended to dispel any doubts or confusion in the minds of local commanders.

McNamara circulated the memorandum at the top level of the Pentagon as a Senate subcommittee was preparing to open an inquiry, perhaps next month, into Defense Department policies in this field.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., has argued that the Pentagon has been stopping officers from espousing anti-Communist views in speeches and lectures.

Other senators have complained that some military officers have been involved in seminars leaning toward the far right.

Sharon Finley Heads Future Nurse Group

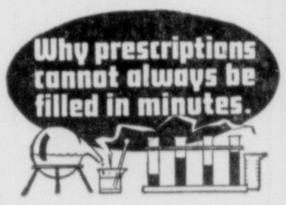

Sharon Finley was elected president of the Future Nurses of America of Chester High School at a meeting Thursday.

Others named were Susan Wilson, vice president; Linda Carpenter, secretary; Shirley Kennye, treasurer, and Charmil Pugh, reporter.

The program committee includes Linda Carpenter, Bonnie Graham, Carol Tuttle and Karen Greenlee. The group meets every Thursday noon, and plans monthly evening meetings.

Airman Visits Kin At Rogers

Navy Airman Charles Holsinger of Rogers is home on leave after completing a basic helicopter course and has been assigned to duty at Quonest Point, R. I.

Wednesday guests of Mrs. Mary Cope were Prof. and Mrs. Kemp Shafer of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Beulah Gains of Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Francis Mullen of Lisbon spent Tuesday with Mrs. Veda Cope.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis of Farmington, Mich., are making an extended visit with Mrs. Florence Bable, due to the illness of an uncle.

Mrs. Myrtle Nulf of Youngstown visited Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Ada George.

Mrs. Dorothy Hill has returned from a visit at Racine.

George Cunningham and family have moved from Highland Ave. to the Souders property south of here.

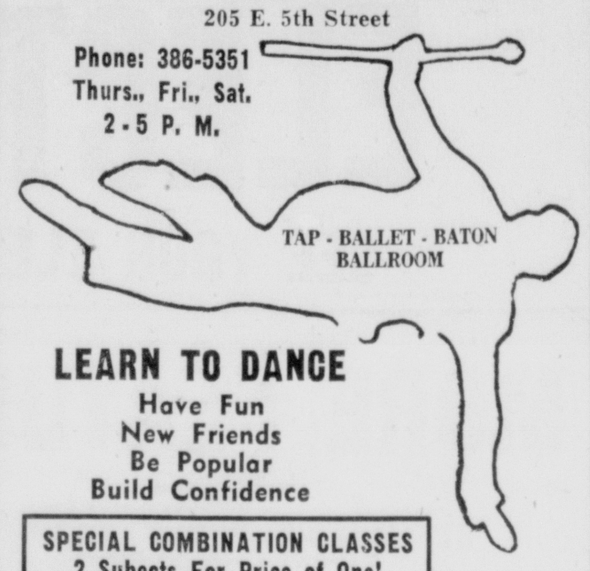

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCoy of Pymatuning have purchased the property of Mrs. Frankie Henderson.

Youth, 16, Killed As Car Flips Over

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—Kenneth S. Watson, 16, of Xenia died early today in a single car crash on Ohio 380 four miles south of here.

The Xenia post of the Ohio Highway Patrol said Watson, traveling alone, lost control of the car and that it crashed into a bridge and flipped over several times.

Get Your Gas Furnace Ready For Winter NOW!

Now—while the weather is mild—is the time to make sure your Gas furnace is in tip-top working order. By calling your heating contractor or dealer early, you avoid the rush for service when cold weather strikes . . . assure your family they'll have heat when they need it.

And, you protect your furnace. Like anything mechanical, your Gas heating equipment will last longer and give better service if you give it proper care. Periodic check-ups insure continuous, efficient, economical operation of your Gas heating plant.

Make arrangements now to have your heating dealer clean your furnace . . . check burners and pilot light . . . inspect vents and flues for stoppages . . . replace clogged, dirty filters if you have a forced-air system. The cost for these important services is low, and you'll be glad later that you acted early to put your furnace in shape for better service all winter long.

Now is the time, too, to join our Budget Heating Plan. Ask about this helpful plan which lets you spread your winter heating bills evenly over 10 months, starting in October.

But Auditor Cites Hazard

Annexation Seen Answer To City's Population Loss

Extending the city limits is one way of solving the population and tax losses caused by postwar population shifts to the suburbs, but there's no guarantee it would be wise for the municipality from an economic standpoint, City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate said today in a review of fiscal problems and policies.

Sometimes the new obligations a city assumes by annexation are far greater than the increase in income resulting from additions to the tax duplicate, Applegate commented.

"Many cities have delayed annexation moves too long, with the result that extensive subdivisions have been developed with inadequate water supplies, poor streets, little or no storm drainage and no central sanitary facilities," he said.

"Sometimes the additional costs of annexation exceed the revenues the city will receive from the new area for many years," he commented. "If annexation is too costly, the city must turn to its run-down neighborhoods in order to avoid continued deterioration of the economic base that has supported it in the past," he added.

"Any city that does not enlarge its boundaries or rehabilitate its present buildings is sure to suffer financial difficulties."

Applegate pointed to the nationwide "tendency of people to move out of old - fashioned houses and crowded districts into new homes in the suburbs."

The migration has left older residential sections "stricken with blight," with a consequent drop in real estate values and a cut in the city's financial resources, he said.

Applegate declared that the first concern of the city government and the citizens should be "maintenance of a healthy business climate" here.

"A city that has a bad lighting system, rough streets, run-down properties and a lack of civic pride never will attract new industries," he said. "We are losing customers in our local stores because of limited parking facilities, yet there are those who condemn Council when it strives to provide those facilities on a self-liquidating basis."

Applegate pointed out that revenue bonds will be issued to finance purchase of the Ceramic Theater and convert the property to off-street parking. In a revenue bond issue, the money received from the facility pays the principal and interest and there is no additional direct cost to the public, he pointed out.

Turning to the wages and salaries paid city officials and employes, Applegate declared they cannot be compared with the payrolls of private industry because the limits are set by the city's ability to pay.

"City officials realize that employes under their jurisdiction are underpaid in most instances and would like to do something about the situation," Applegate said. "But operating funds are not available to boost salaries or wages. If the public is not willing to pay for certain services, then it has no right to expect them."

Bethesda Church Will Give Dinner

Plans for a public chicken and ham dinner Oct. 25 at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church at Millport were made at a committee meeting Tuesday with Faye Grubbs.

Others on the committee are Harvey Grubbs, chairman, Mildred Walker, Irma Thompson, Ruth Phillips, Laura Stewart and Della Treffinger.

The Senior Youth Fellowship of the church will meet Sunday night at 8 at the church with Mrs. Judy Burrows as leader.

Mrs. Jennie Bettis and Mrs. Hazel Hart of Salineville visited Mrs. Francis Burns Tuesday.

Miss Donna Crawford, student at Youngstown University, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford, over the weekend.

Georgetown WSCS Meets

The WSCS of the Bethel Methodist Church plans to sell Christmas cards, candy and sponsor a rummage sale in Weirton, Dec. 14-16, according to plans made at a joint meeting with the Quilters Circle of the society Tuesday in the church near Georgetown.

The topic was "Decisions by Bible Women."

Speakers were Mrs. Charles Fazikas, president, Mrs. Ronald McAfee, Mrs. Helen Tingler and Mrs. Reason Mayhew. Mrs. Fred Stroud led devotions.

Mrs. Bruce Hobbs spoke on "Great Decisions by Bible Women." Decorations on the church altar table were sweet peas, lilies-of-the-valley and a Bible on red velvet.

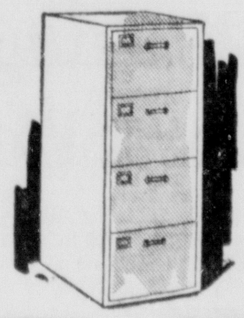

Mrs. Mayhew sang, accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Bish. Bible verses beginning with the letter "B" were used to answer roll call.

Mrs. John McConnell gave the closing prayer. Next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the church. The willing Workers' Circle will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Gates.

Mrs. Lloyd Beal is president of the Willing Workers Circle and Mrs. L. B. Hobbs the Quilters Circle.

Series Moves To Cincy All Even After Yanks Fall, 6-2

Clutch Pitching By Jay, NY Errors Help Reds

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— The World Series flares anew Saturday after a change of scenery and certainly a chance of prospects for the lightly-regarded Cincinnati Reds in their postseason championship duel with the New York Yankees.

The Reds, seemingly well outclassed in losing Wednesday's opener, came back to life in New York Thursday with a 6-2 decision that proved the Yankees mighty human after all.

But while the Yankees were playing Alphonse and Gaston with themselves as the two-game New York phase of the series concluded, the Reds uncorked the same type of performance that confounded the experts while they ran off with the National League pennant.

Strapping Joey Jay was the pitcher against the Yanks his regular season 21-10 record stamped him to be. But additionally, Cincinnati's cast of unknowns produced a couple of sideshow whizzes in Venezuelan second baseman Elio Chacon and reserve catcher John Edwards.

When the series third game is played at Crosley Field Saturday (2 p.m. Eastern Standard Time), the Yankees will find themselves hammered down to 2 to 1 favorites from a 4½-1 choice prior to the loose frolic Thursday before 63,083 in Yankee Stadium.

As for the third game—in which Cincinnati's knuckleballer, Bob Purkey (16-12) faces New York's Bill Stafford (14-9)—the Yankees are a 7-5 pick to triumph in the cozy confines of Crosley Park. The forecast for Saturday is fair and pleasant.

In the three games that now must be played in Cincinnati in the best-of-7 series, the Yankees are expected to be bolstered by return of ailing Mickey Mantle, who sat out—very gingerly—the two New York games because of an infected hip.

Certainly Mantle's long-ball hitting is needed to offset a terrific swoon thus far by Roger Maris, the man who set an all-time season home run record with 61.

Maris, still hitless in seven series official at-bats, has struck out three times, twice being whiffed Thursday by the 6-4, 225-pound Jay. Roger hasn't hit a ball out of the infield in the series.

Although he allowed only four hits, Jay kept walking himself into and pitching himself out of trouble, no small thanks to the 5-9, 163-pound Chacon from Caracas, Venezuela.

Chacon, substituting for regular Don Blasingame, who had a jammed finger, started two crackling double plays, a department in which Cincinnati supposedly is hurting.

But Chacon's big feat was an explosive bit of base-running on a short passed ball for an unearned but decisive tally in the fifth off Yankee loser Ralph Terry which put the Reds ahead 3-2.

Although the Yankees committed three other errors, the big miscue was when Terry pitched a slider which eluded catcher Elston Howard in the fifth with Vada Pinson at bat and Chacon on third and Eddie Kasko on first.

The ball rolled only about 10 feet from the plate and was quickly retrieved by Howard. Chacon set sail from the plate "on his own" but neither Howard nor Terry was aware the flying Chacon was in full flight until it was too late. Terry hung back instead of covering the plate, and Howard first looked to see if Kasko was heading for second before making a futile dive at Chacon racing home.

As events turned out, that was the ball game, but the 6-4, 220-pound Edwards, catching in place of ailing Darrell Johnson, still was to taste some World Series glory.

Right-hander Terry, after spinning across two strikes for an 0-2 count, let a fat pitch fly and Edwards singled into right field, scoring Post for a 4-2 Cincinnati lead.

Again, in a weird eighth inning, Freese was walked intentionally and Edwards uncorked a bloop double which scored the sixth and final Red run.

The Redleg eighth, in which lefty Luis Arroyo proved anything except the ace reliever he is supposed to be, found veteran Yogi Berra flitting from a hero to goat role.

Berra, who slammed a two-run homer in the fourth to gain New York a 2-2 tie, let Post's drive whistle between his legs for a three-base error, setting up the second Red run of the inning. Berra seemed to have the ball caught for the third out, but it sank rapidly and streaked past him to the wall.

But Berra's two hits hoisted his record series total to 70 in 70 series games and his other continuing marks for the post-season classic now include 38 RBI's, 40 runs scored and 116 total bases.

Although Houk said he was uncertain over his Sunday pitcher, it most likely will be Whitey Ford, who pitched a two-hit 2-0 opening victory Wednesday and can break Babe Ruth's pitching record of 29 2-3 scoreless innings. Ford has pitched 27 runless innings—three successive shutouts, including two against Pittsburgh last year.

What Would Games Be Like? . . .

These are only opinions of "the man on the street," but collectively they spell out the same thing. The question which arose among Potter followers was on the subject of East Liverpool and Beaver Local getting together in football.

Will the series be a good one from the standpoint of the outcome of each game?

Several fans pointed to the score of Monday's reserve game which showed the Potter jayvees walking away with a 50-0 victory over the Beaver Local reserves.

Now these are the boys who will be playing varsity football in the future. If this is an indication of what would occur in the next few years, then a Potter-Beaver Local series would not be advisable.

Looking over the enrollment of boys in each school, East Liverpool more than doubles the male enrollment of Beaver Local.

In the four upper grades Beaver Local shows a little over 200 boys while East Liverpool, in only its three upper grades, at last count, had 514.

The schedules played by each school don't match either. We feel that week after week East Liverpool plays a much stronger schedule. This season the Potter eleven hasn't done so well with a young team, losing by lopsided scores to Niles and Steubenville Central.

We doubt if Beaver Local could remain undefeated very long playing East Liverpool's schedule. They just don't have the enrollment and manpower to compete with the larger schools, year in and year out.

A Potter-Beaver Local series might be a fine backyard rivalry. Maybe the only way to find out is to try it, but that is up to the officials and coaches from both schools.

Thayer Signs With Browns . . .

APPARENTLY looking for more strength at quarterback for next season, the Cleveland Browns have signed as a candidate in New Cumberland's Jack Thayer, who has completed a three-year stint with the Army.

Thayer, an All-West Virginia selection in 1956, inked a contract in Cleveland on Sunday for a tryout at quarterback when the Browns report to Hiram College for pre-season drills next July.

Although there was no announcement on terms, Thayer is believed to have signed for a substantial sum.

Thayer graduated from New Cumberland High School in 1956 after starring at quarterback under Coach Charlie Miller. He entered West Virginia University soon after with Larry Foltz of Newell and East Liverpool's Jim Potts.

After the freshman football season was over, Thayer dropped out of WVU and enrolled the next year at Dayton University. He enlisted for Army duty following the grid season and played quarterback at Fort Knox and in Texas.

The Army life apparently agreed with Thayer, as he increased in stature to 224-pounds, and 6-3½ inches. Coach Paul Brown indicated he was well-pleased with Thayer's size last weekend in Cleveland and commented he wished Thayer would have been discharged from the service a little earlier.

The Browns have informed Thayer that he "definitely has a good chance of making the squad."

However, if he makes the Browns' roster, getting a starting job with the professional squad would be another matter. The Browns are three deep at quarterback this season, with Milt Plum (6-2, 205), Len Dawson (6-1, 190) and John Roach (6-4, 200).

Thayer is married and has three sons. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thayer of Chester St., New Cumberland.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

WE ENJOYED one of our most successful weekends of "crystal ball" football picks with 12 out of 13 correct. The only miss came when Crestview (New Waterford) won its first game of the season over North Lima.

Here's the way we see them this time: Canton Central 30, East Liverpool 6; Wellsville 20, New Philly 12; Midland 12, Monaca 6; Warwood 32, Chester 6; South Side 19, Newell 0; East Palestine 26, Lisbon 12; Minerva 32, Leetonia 13; Columbiana 24, Canfield 12 and Salem 12, Marietta 6.

Saturday, in that big one at Hanoverton between the undefeated of Columbiana County, we like Beaver Local by a 14-6 margin over United. In others, Stanton Local to remain undefeated 32-6 over Salineville; New Cumberland 14, Follansbee St. Anthony 9 and McDonald 22, Crestview 12.

THURM ALLEN of East Liverpool, a brother of Bernie the ex-Purdue quarterback, is a sophomore end at Purdue. Although Thurm stands 6-foot-2 and weighs 190 pounds, he is the smallest end candidate on the Boilermaker squad.

—:—

ANOTHER area gridder starring at Purdue is Weirton's Tom Bloom, who averaged seven yards per carry in a 13-6 opening win over Washington last week.

—:—

NICK MUSURACA, ELHS class of 1958, is the third ranking ground gainer in the Ohio Conference.

The Denison University fullback, in his third season as a regular, has gained 196 yards in 44 carries for an average of 4.5 in the first two games.

Musuraca also ranks seventh in total offense in the conference, and all his 44 carries this season hasn't lost yardage.

WE WISH Fr. Anthony Esposito, who was the assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, the best of luck in his new assignment at Girard.

He has many friends here and was a big hit with the youth of his church. Fr. Esposito will be greatly missed at the East Liverpool football games where he formed a "cheering section" for the Potters. You always knew the "cheering section" was around by the sound of a bugle blowing the old University of Southern California "C-H-A-R-G-E."

—:—

CRAIG BURBICK, who lettered in three sports at East Liverpool, is the No. 2 man on the Navy varsity golf team. Burbick, who was a top golfer in high school, is competing this weekend at Penn State University in the Eastern Collegiate sectional qualifier.

The top 10 golfers and the first four teams which qualify at Penn State will advance to the Eastern Collegiate tournament next weekend.

IT'S ON to Cincinnati for yours truly, who will get to see what the Yankees and Reds look like in person, after watching them on the magic screen for the last two days.

The odds have shifted now, but Cincy pitching will have to be particularly careful in the small confines of Crosley Field. Don't count the Reds out of it.

Ham Shoot Slated

The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will hold another ham shoot Sunday at 1:30 at the club's range located on the Lisbon-Elkton Rd. Trap shooting is also on the schedule for the hunters of the area to sharpen up their eye for the coming hunting season.

Canton Is Heavy Favorite Here

TOM BECHERER
Will Quarterback Crusaders.

Baker Will Start At QB

Sophomore passing star Chuck Baker is scheduled to get the call at quarterback tonight when the underdog East Liverpool Potters take on the husky Canton Central Crusaders at Patterson Field. Kickoff is set for 7:45 p. m.

Baker has recovered from a leg injury and his appearance will be the first since the Steubenville Central game two weeks ago. He sat out the New Philadelphia game last Friday night with a pulled leg muscle.

The sophomore passer is responsible for the only touchdown scored by East Liverpool's offensive forces in three games. He completed three for over 100 yards against Steubenville and pitched a TD pass after setting up the tally through his aerials.

Coach Bob Hedmond indicated he would go to the air tonight with Baker in the lineup. However, the hard-charging defensive line of Canton Central, which will average over 200 pounds, may put the "blitz" on any Potter aerial attempt.

That was the case a year ago when East Liverpool suffered a 22-0 defeat at the hands of the Crusaders. Kenny Cunningham was quarterback then for the Potters and was rated one of the best passers in the state. But he couldn't combat with the big Canton lineman which put the rush on him.

Vince McKinnon, a 150 - pound senior, started at quarterback last week but suffered a bad ankle sprain in the final minutes of the game. He responded to treatment faster than expected and may be ready to see some action tonight.

Another change in the Potter backfield shows Allen Douglas, a senior letterman, moving back to his right halfback spot in place of sophomore Bob Mercer.

However. Hedmond indicated Mercer and senior Gene Wolfe would be used quite a bit.

Jerry Bell, the most spirited runner in the Potter backfield, goes to fullback while "old reliable" Tom "the foot" Kraft will be at left halfback.

Kraft does the punting for the Potters and turned in a fine job against New Philly in several desperate situations.

Scotty Musuraca will replace injured Jim Wilson at right guard. Wilson is sidelined with a knee injury.

Jim Richardson will be at one end, with Bud McElhaney on the other side. Jeff Hayes, who turned in a good job last week, will be at one tackle, along with captain Jim Ferello.

Bob Parsons will man the other guard spot with Ron Kennedy handling the duties at center.

Coach John McVay's Central eleven brings a 3-1 record here and is fresh from defeating Jackson Memorial, 16-0, last Saturday night.

With a big line in front of them to open up huge holes in the opponent's defenses, Central shows a balanced backfield when it comes to yardage gained.

Canton will stick primarily to the ground with quarterback Tom Becherer the team's leading gainer.

Jim Piersall Not Surprised By His Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Piersall, not at all surprised by his trade, will play center field for the Washington Senators next season—with pleasure.

"I wasn't at all surprised by the trade," said Piersall after it was announced just before the second World Series game that he had been sent to Washington by the Cleveland Indians in exchange for pitcher Dick Donovan, outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a fourth player to be named later.

"The first thing my wife said when she heard of it was that she was happy," the 32-year-old Piersall said in Boston. "If she's happy, then I'm happy."

Jim Doran, 34, is the oldest member of the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League. This is the 11th pro season for the former Iowa State star who plays outside end.

Should Terry Have Covered Home?

'Didn't See Chacon Right Away,' Yanks' Howard Says

NEW YORK (AP) — What if Ralph Terry had come in fast to cover the plate in the confusing play in the second World Series game on which Elio Chacon scored the run that put Cincinnati ahead of the New York Yankees 3-2.

"I doubt if it would have made any difference," said Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees.

As it was the Reds went on to get three more runs on some rather improbable Yankee baseball, and Joey Jay, the ace of the Cincinnati pitching staff, tamed the Yankee hitters in masterful style. The final score was 6-2, and the series stood even today at one game each.

It happened with two out in the fifth and the score 2-2. Chacon singled to center on a ball Roger Maris was late going after, and went to third on Eddie Kasko's single.

Then Elston Howard, Yankee catcher, let one of Ralph Terry's sliders get away from him for a passed ball.

He jumped back to retrieve it and looked to second, expecting Kasko to break. Meanwhile, Chacon was racing—unnoticed — toward home.

"I didn't see him right away," said Howard. "When Kasko broke I expected to throw to second, but then I caught Chacon out of the corner of my eye he was starting to slide, so I dove on top of him. It was a close decision."

Cincinnati opened the scoring in the fourth after Frank Robinson was safe on Cletis Boyer's error. Gordon Coleman belted a 400-foot home run into the right field bleachers to make it 2-0.

The Yankees came back in the bottom of the inning on Yogi Berra's 12th home run in series play, scoring Roger Maris who had walked.

Following Chacon's key run in the fifth, the Redlegs added another in the sixth when with two out Wally Post doubled, Gene Freese was intentionally passed, and catcher John Edwards crashed a single that scored Post. Jay grounded out, ending the inning.

The final two Cincinnati runs came in the eighth.

Injuries Could Slow Beaver Local Game

At full strength, Beaver Local would go into Saturday's showdown game with United a slight favorite, but injuries have cropped up in Coach Jack O'Rourke's camp and the battle of the undefeated must go down as a "toss-up."

The contest will get underway Saturday at 2 p. m. with a capacity crowd expected at the United High gridiron.

Francis Possage, one of the leading scorers in the district, was discharged from City Hospital only Wednesday and will not be permitted to play for at least a week to 10 days. Possage, regular halfback for the Beavers, suffered a slight concussion in the Salineville game last Saturday night.

Mike Klembara, Beaver's top-notch quarterback, also may be sidelined along with fullback George Gaydos. Klembara has a knee injury and Gaydos is suffering with a stiff neck.

John Broadbent will be running the team at quarterback in place of Klembara. Broadbent, a senior is a very capable alternate at this position and has played everywhere in the backfield for the Beavers.

In Possage's place, O'Rourke will use either freshman Jim Nulph or Larry McLaughlin. McLaughlin is the more experienced of the two.

If Gaydos isn't at full strength, Floyd Saltsman will fill in at fullback.

Beaver Local will be counting on Carl Hoppel to carry the burden from his halfback position. Hoppel, a senior, is his team's leading ground gainer and at present the second leading scorer in the district with 39 points.

With its offensive forces suffering a blow, the strong defensive team which has been as tough as a stone wall may have to turn in an all-out performance.

Since a 14-14 tie in the opening game with Leetonia, Beaver Local has not been scored upon in its last three contests.

In order, Beaver Local shut out Chester, 40-0, posted a 24-0 win over Union Local and last week routed Salineville, 46-0.

The starting line will show Gary Berhar and George Wilkinson at ends. The tackle posts will be filled by Roger Walker and Keith Berger while All-Ohio candidate Dave Myers will be at one guard and Dave Stacey at the other spot. Snapping the ball at center will be Larry Carroll.

Chief replacements on the defensive team are John Detchon and Gary Bookman at ends and Gary Rambo who moves into a guard post.

Beaver Local will have to contain United's fullback Larry Marks who currently is leading the district in scoring with 44 points. The Golden Eagles also have a fine passer in quarterback John Hanna.

Starting at the halfback positions will be Bill Schroyer and Bill McGranahan.

The two rivals have played one common opponent. United, in its opening game, defeated Chester, 14-8, but Beaver Local gained a 40-0 shutout over the Panthers.

After the Chester contest, United went on to tackle Crestview, 22-6, defeated Springfield Local, 41-6, then blanked Jackson Milton last week, 16-0.

Beaver Local Fans To Form Car Caravan

A motor caravan for Beaver Local followers to the United game at Hanoverton Saturday afternoon will form from 11:30 to noon at the Beaver Local High School.

Navy Faces Miami's Mira-Miller Combine

Iowa, S. Cal. Tangle In TV Tilt Saturday

By The Associated Press

Navy's football team knows it is in for a tough night when it takes on Miami's Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl tonight. But far be it from the hosts to underestimate their opponents.

There is a mutual respect on both sides, Navy because of the passing and running of quarterback George Mira and the pass catching of end Bill Miller, and Miami because of Navy's all-around good condition, hustle and offensive potential.

Mira, whose action may be limited by rib bruises suffered in the victory over Kentucky two weeks ago, ranks fourth nationally in total offense with 394 yards, 305 of those through passing. Miller has caught 12 for 172 yards and is a pillar on defense.

Navy, loser in its opener 20-10 to Penn State which Miami leveled 25-8 last week, showed good offensive power in beating William & Mary 44-6, with junior quarterback Ron Klemick leading the way.

Penn State tries to regain its touch at Boston against winless (0-2) Boston University while Tulane, which has given only a pair of field goals and touchdowns in two losing games, meets Florida, which has a victory and a tie.

There is full-scale action Saturday, with all the top teams except 10th ranked Baylor in action, plus a bevy of conference games.

Iowa, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll, journeys to Los Angeles ot meet the University of Southern California, in a game that will also be televised nationally (ABC-TV, 4 p.m. Eastern Standard Time). The Hawkeyes, who walloped California last week, will be without halfback Larry Ferguson against the Trojans (1-1).

There are some other intersectional games involving members of the top ten. Fifth ranked Texas (2-0) plays pass-minded Washington State; Michigan State (No. 6) takes on surprising Stanford (2-0); UCLA travels to meet eighth-ranked Ohio State and Michigan, ranked ninth, is at home to Army (2-0).

Second-ranked Mississippi tackles a tough little customer in Florida State as it goes for its 18th straight game without a loss. Georgia Tech (No. 3) the surprise so far of the 1961 season, has an SEC game against defense-minded Louisiana State while fourth rated Alabama (2-0) has an SEC battle aginst Vanderbilt, also (2-0). Both are at night.

OSU Faces Single-Wing

Buckeyes Rate 2 TD Edge Over Visitors From UCLA

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Bruins of UCLA, who meet Ohio State at 1 p.m. Saturday in Ohio Stadium, are an air-minded group.

This is the third straight weekend they've winged their way from home. Two weeks ago, they made the Los Angeles-Denver round trip and beat the Air Force Academy. Last week, it was a Los Angeles-Ann Arbor round trip, to lose 29-6 to Michigan.

They were due in here today, to bang into Ohio's two-touchdown favorites.

On the football field the Bruin aerial record is not too good. Maybe it's because they use the almost obsolete single wing, but they've completed only 7 of 22 passes.

Coach Woody Hayes has worked his deflated Bucks hard this week, following last Saturday's 7-7 deadlock with underdog Texas Christian.

With All-America fullback Bob Ferguson booming up the middle, Ohio figures to gain a lot of ground. But the Buckeye defense is due for a rugged afternoon since a college team seldom gets a look at the single wing offense as employed by the coast club.

Bob Smith, a senior, is the Bruins' No. 1 man in the tailback slot. He has gained 192 yards in 42 carries, but he's completed only two of nine passes for 23 yards—and two were intercepted.

While Ferguson's battering-ram tactics are expected to be Ohio's bread-and-butter offense again, Hayes said he'd run his halfbacks more than he did a week ago. Two costly interceptions cost victory against TCU, and Woody is expected to keep the aerial offnese locked up until dire need arises. Ferguson carried the ball 35 times for 137 yards against TCU — and if he keeps up that pace he'll break all the records in the Buckeye book.

Thursday, Hayes made three changes in his starting lineup for the UCLA tilt. Bob Middleton of Marion got back the offensive right end job he held most of last season. Tom Jenkins of Dayton takes over as offensive left guard so that Mike Ingram won't have so much double duty at that spot. And Dick Laskoski of Shamokin, Pa., will defend at left tackle to relieve Bob Vogle from double duty.

Practice Injury Fatal To College Gridder

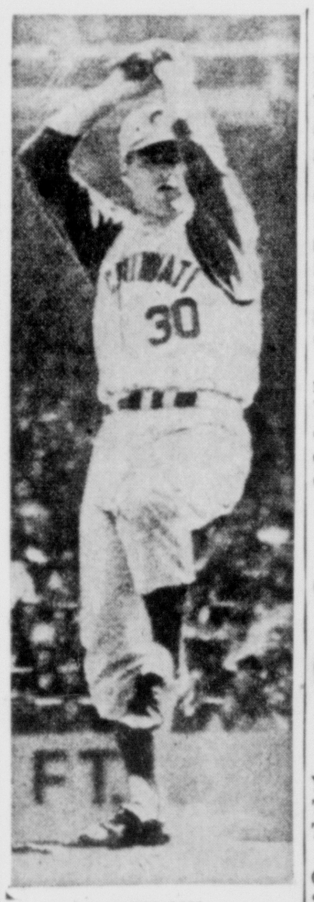

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A college football player died Thursday, 10 days after he received internal injuries while making a tackle during practice.

William Foster, 20, third-string guard for Johnson C. Smith University here, was kicked in the stomach Sept. 20. A surgeon who performed an exploratory operation Wednesday, said the player died of a stoppage in the small intestine.

Foster was a native of Indianola, Pa.

Jay Gets Loudest Cheers As Reds Fans Greet Team

JOEY JAY
4-Hitter Evens Series.

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, all even with the New York Yankees in the 1961 World Series after two games, should be getting used to howling greetings when they return home.

They got it several weeks ago when they returned after sweeping a key three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers. They got it a week ago Tuesday night on their return from Chicago where they had clinched at least a share of the National League pennant.

And they got it again Thursday night as they returned from New York where they bounced back earlier that day for a 6-2 victory over the Yankees after losing the opener, 2-0.

Greater Cincinnati Airport was jammed with fans. They waved banners and shouted as the players and their wives began to emerge from the charter plane which had brought the team back immediately after the game in Yankee Stadium.

A caravan of horn-blaring automobiles followed the team's bus into the downtown area.

Biggest cheers, of course, went to Joey Jay, the pitching hero of Thursday's victory; to Elio Chacon, the little second baseman whose dash to home on a passed ball broke a 2-2 tie; to rookie catcher Johnny Edwards who got two hits and drove in two runs, and to Gordy Coleman, whose home run drove in Cincinnati's first tallies of the World Series.

'Yanks Aren't Supermen, Can Be Beaten'—Purkey

By JOE REICHLER

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—"The Yankees are no supermen. They're the same as anybody else. They can be beaten."

Bob Purkey, who will pitch for Cincinnati against the Yankees on Saturday in the third World Series game, (the opener at Cincinnati), was telling of his reactions after watching the clubs split the first two games at Yankee Stadium.

The Reds, behind right-hander Joey Jay, defeated the Yankees 6-2 Thursday after Whitey Ford had shut them out 2-0 in a southpaw duel with Jim O'Toole in the opener.

"We gained confidence by winning," said the 32-year-old right-hander. "It showed us they were not unbeatable. It also must have changed the Yankees' minds about us. That we're not the ragamuffins we're supposed to be.

"Now we know they do make mistakes like everybody else, that good pitching can stop them, and that their pitchers make bad pitches, too.

"From what I've read, nobody is supposed to beat the Yankees. I watched them in last year's World Series in Pittsburgh. I live there. So I knew before this series they could be beaten."

Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson, according to plan, held Purkey out for the game in Cincinnati, when he'll have five days of rest, counting today's off day.

Warped Floor Stops Game At Steubenville

A warped floor caused the exhibition game between the Cincinnati Royals and New York Knicks to be called at halftime Thursday night at Steubenville.

The portable floor which had been stored since last March came apart in sections some as much as four to five inches.

The two professional clubs, fearing injuries to their players, requsted the game be called. Both teams put on a basketball clinic for the fans after the game was stopped.

Car manufacturers:
Check your car owner's manual. Most Detroit car manufacturers advise draining the cooling system, then filling with fresh anti-freeze every fall.

Automotive engineers:
Engineers have been quick to point out that there's nothing really new in anti-freeze. The so-called "2-year" and "no-drain" products are ethylene glycol plus inhibitors. Ethylene glycol was introduced by "Prestone" Anti-Freeze in 1927.

8 Shooting For Big S In Frizette

By The Associated Press

Cicada, heir-apparent to the 2-year-old filly championship, will go after her sixth and richest stakes prize of the season Saturday in the $70,000-added Frizette Stakes at Aqueduct.

Cicada and seven other filly misses are lined up for the Frizette, a one mile affair. Owned by Christopher T. Chenery, Cicada is expected to be an entry with the stable's other good filly, Baroda. The combination may go off as the 4-5 choice.

The Frizette already is worth $114,075 through various fees, payments and the $70,000 added by the New York Association. Eight starters at $1,000 would hike the total of $122,075 with $84,575 to the winner.

There were three supplementary nominees at $5,000 apiece, Ogden Phipps' Broadway, King Ranch's Tamarona, and E. Barry Ryan's Firm Policy. Broadway beat Cicada in the Polly Drummyng Stakes at Delaware Park.

Another filly who will gain some support is John E. Hughes' Island Belle.

Dawson Slight Choice In USGA Senior Golf

TULSA (AP) — A 58-year-old sportings good executive entered today's semifinal round of the seventh annual U.S. Golf Association Senior Amateur Tournament as the title favorite.

George Dawson, Glen Ellyn, Ill., closed out his match against Merrill L. Carlsmith, Hilo, Hawaii, with a short putt on the 18th green. Dawson won 4 and 3.

Dawson was paired against Dexter H. Daniels, Winter Haven, Fla., who Thursday defeated C. C. Taylor, Durban, South Africa, 2 and 1.

William K. Lanman had to go 19 holes to shake off John W. Roberts. Lanman met Richard H. Guelich Jr., Buffalo, N.Y., in their other semifinal match. Guelich stopped Ted B. Payseur, Evanston, Ill., 1 up.

Costello To Start For Browns Sunday

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vince Costello, who lost his middle line backing job with the Cleveland Browns to Dave Lloyd this season after four years as a starter, will get a starting opportunity Sunday when the Browns play the Washington Redskins at Municipal Stadium.

Galen Fiss, the left side backer, pulled a thigh muscle against the Dallas Cowboys last Sunday and will be replaced by Costello against the Redskins. Fiss was feeling better Thursday, but did not participate in defensive drills at League Park.

Hockey All-Stars To Play Black Hawks

CHICAGO (AP) — Dominated by players from Montreal and Toronto, the National Hockey League All-Star team challenges the Chicago Black Hawks, Stanley Cup champions, Saturday night.

A sellout crowd of some 14,000 will pack Chicago Stadium for the 13th game in the series in which All-Star teams have won 6, lost 4 and tied 4.

Sid Abel, whose Detroit Red Wings bowed to Chicago in the sixth game of the best-of-seven championship series last season, will coach the All-Stars.

THIS YOUNG SOUTH SIDE football squad will be looking for its second win of the season tonight at Newell. Coach Dave Nichol shows only three seniors on the squad which gives the Hookstown area school a bright outlook for next season. The 1961 edition includes, first row—left-to-right: Bob Butterfield, John Buchanan, Dick McGaffick, John Barrett, Tom Moore, John Mackall and Ken Rosak. Second row—John W. McLaughlin, Dave Tremble, John F. McLaughlin, Bill Cooper, Joe Sipp, Bill Misouk and Jerry Skolnekovich. Third row—Dave Nichol, head coach, Ernest Nejus, Dave Brooks, Jim Kisling, Clyde Curtis, Vince Golden and Chuck Schmidt. Fourth row—Scott Walker, Joe Barrett, Wilber King, Bob Malone, Jim Todd and Dave Wern, assistant coach.

21 Contests Scheduled For Ohio Grid Teams

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State, tied by TCU in last week's 7-7 opener, hopes to head toward the heights Saturday when the Bucks battle the UCLA Bruins before 82,000.

That's the big game on a 21-contest program involving the state's collegiate gridders this weekend.

The President's Conference plays its opening games, and some clearing of the title picture is due in the other leagues.

Bowling Green and Western Michigan, each 1-0 in the Mid-American, tangle on the Bee-Gee grid to determine which stays on top. Kent State, last week's surprise victor over Ohio University, entertains Miami's Redskins who haven't scored a touchdown in three starts.

Only one tilt between unbeaten teams is on in the Ohio Conference, Wooster going to Mount Union for a night fray. Four other with clean conference records go against league opponents.

Ohio Northern and Findlay, tied with Ahsland for the peak in the Mid-Ohio circuit, clash at Findlay. Ashland meets Defiance, and Bluffton and Wilmington, each seeking its first loop conquest, meet on the latter's field.

The non-league slate, headed by the OSU-UCLA event, has some eye-catchers. They include Xavier at Cincinnati, Ohio University at Dayton, and a pair of two-time winners — Youngstown and Baldwin Wallace—at Berea.

Saturday's slate, with won-lost records:

UCLA (1-1-0) at Ohio State (0-0-1)

2 Games Open Big 10 Race On Saturday

By The Associated Press

The Big Ten football championship race gains momentum Saturday with a pair of conference games that send Northwestern to Illinois and Wisconsin to Indiana.

In six games against outside opponents, Big Ten teams are favored in all but one. Notre Dame is a one-point choice of most oddsmakers at Purdue.

Only one conference game has been played thus far. Michigan State romped over Wisconsin 20-0 last week and gained the No. 6 spot in The Associated Press poll.

It will be the first game for Indiana and Purdue in two weeks. They got a head start in the season, the Hoosiers losing 14-8 at Kansas State and the Boilermakers winning 13-6 at Washington.

Top-ranked Iowa is favored by 14 points in a nationally televised game with Southern California in Los Angeles; Michigan by 7 over Army; Michigan State by 17 over Stanford; Ohio State by 12 over UCLA; and Minnesota by 8 over Oregon. Iowa is the only team on the road.

Most Fans Pleased With Piersall Trade

CLEVELAND (AP)—The majority of fans contacted in a newspaper poll and Jim Piersall were pleased with the trade that sent the fiery centerfielder to the Washington Senators.

The Cleveland Indians announced Thursday they had traded Piersall to Washington for veteran pitcher Dick Donovan, outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a fourth player to be named later. No cash was involved.

"Good riddance," "He was a troublemaker," "Glad he's gone," were the most frequent comments from a majority of the fans contacted by a Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter for their opinion on Piersall's departure.

Duke Rodney Favored In Kentucky Futurity

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — It was the field against Duke Rodney for today's 69th Kentucky Futurity, a $59,220 trotting classic for 3-year-old standardbreds over Lexington's famed Red Mile.

The Duke, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick di Gennaro of Rochester, N.Y., was a solid 2-1 favorite for the futurity, third jewel in trotting's triple crown. A field of eight was entered.

Duke Rodney won the first leg of the crown, the Yonkers Futurity, but was beaten in the Hambletonian by Harlan Dean when he broke stride in both heats.

Caleb and Matastar, first and second respectively in the Hambletonian, were expected to give the major competition.

Deem Scores 2, Westgate Registers 2nd Win, 22-6

Fullback Dick Deem tallied two touchdowns as Westgate rolled to its second straight victory with a 22-6 decision over Wellsville Thursday at Patterson Field.

Coach Norm Six's team took the opening kickoff and marched 60 yards, with Deem crashing over from the three-yard line.

In the second quarter, Westgate on the march again, Deem went over from the one. Danny Burke, who tacked on the two-point conversion after the second touchdown, scored the final TD from two yards out following a sustained drive. Chuck Taylor scored the conversion on a run.

Westgate meets Toronto Thursday at Patterson Field.

East Junior Scores Twice In 4th To Gain 14-14 Tie

East Junior was forced to punch across a touchdown in the last two minutes of the game to come out with a 14-14 tie Thursday at Toronto.

The young Red Knights scored first in the second quarter, but East Junior tied it with a touchdown early in the fourth period on a three-yard run by Mike Snowden. The conversion failed on both TD's.

Toronto took a 14-8 lead on a touchdown and two-point conversion midway through the final period. On the kickoff after the touchdown, East Junior High's Duane Lacey returned the kick 70 yards to set up the touchdown for Coach Dom Cascio's team.

Jim White crashed over from 10 yards out and then added the conversion on a run for the deadlock.

East Junior now shows one victory and one tie.

Cascio pointed out Nick Marchbanks safety man for his defensive work.

Not one penalty was called on either team.

Why Do Some Quit College? Council On Education Asks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Business is booming but half the customers walk out after sampling the merchandise.

That's one of the chief problems nagging higher education today.

Every year the tide of college-bound students runs stronger, and enrollments rise by leaps and bounds.

But for every two students who start college, one will drop out before graduation.

Why? That's a question which has plagued college officials for years and it is plaguing them here at the annual meeting of the American Council on Education.

"We have been writing and talking about this for 40 years, and we still do not have the answer," Blanchard L. Rideout of Cornell University said Thursday.

"What we do know is that 50 per cent of those who start college don't finish.

"Less than one-third of the dropouts can be classed as academic failures. The others leave because they are unhappy, because they run out of money, because they get married, or because they are thinking of getting married.

"What we really need is better counseling and more exciting teaching, particularly at the freshman level."

Governor Asked To Probe Alleged Elections Fraud

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A Trumbull County commissioner has asked Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to assign a special prosecutor to investigate alleged illegal operations and an alleged vote fraud at the Trumbull County Home.

Joseph J. Baldine in a letter to the governor complained that Lynn B. Griffith Jr., Trumbull County prosecutor, failed to act on his request for such an inquiry.

Baldine, a Democrat, won a victory Wednesday in the Ohio Supreme Court. The high court let stand a common pleas court decision that Baldine won the office by an 11-vote margin over Dr. W. A. James, a Republican, who originally was declared elected.

The trial court found irregularities in the markings of disabled voter ballots by employes of the county home and tuberculosis hospital for patients.

Baldine's letter to the governor said in part: "I was shocked to learn that he (Griffith) is unable, or unwilling, to proceed with the prosecution of the vote-fraud case, and claims he has discovered no evidence of illegal operations at the county home."

Baldine requested immediate action because of the statute of limitations on vote dispute runs out early next month, and an appointment to discuss the matter with the governor.

Griffith declined to comment on Baldine's letter.

Tudorich, winner of this year's Chicago and Arlington Handicaps, was foaled in England. He's a 4-year-old son of Tudor Minstrel.

Announcer Paddles Own Canoe, Then Given Lift

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — Pete Stenger, a radio - TV announcer here, once said on the air that if the Cincinnati Reds won the National League pennant he would paddle a boat down the Ohio River to see the World Series in the Queen City.

The Reds won the pennant, and some of Stenger's listeners insisted that the New York Yankee fan keep his promise.

Thursday Stenger began paddling away from Huntington in an inflated rubber boat, with Cincinnati 150 miles downstream.

But if he paddled all the way, he'd never make it for the third game of the series Saturday. Perhaps that's why a Coast Guard cruiser took his boat in tow before he was out of sight of Huntington.

They towed him to Portsmouth, Ohio, 47 miles from here, but today he planned to board the Coast Guard craft for the rest of the trip to Cincinnati.

150 Set To Tee Off Monday In Ohio Open

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Fifty amateurs and 100 professionals will tee off Monday on the tricky Firestone Country Club course in quest of the Ohio Open golf title.

The three-day, 72-hole test starts with 18 holes Monday. There will be 18 holes Tuesday and 36 holes Wednesday. The field will play the same 7,165-yard, par 70 championship course that was used for last year's PGA and for the $50,000 American Golf Classic last August.

Professionals will be competing for $2,625 in prize money, with $500 going to the winner. There will be $875 in merchandise prizes for the amateurs.

EL Club Sets Trial

The East Liverpool Beagle Club will hold a Class B sanction trial Saturday at the club's grounds near Glenmoor. All Eastern Ohio hounds may pick up Ohio Championship points. Measuring time is 7 to 8 a. m.

Dave Ragan Jr., Don Bisplinghoff, Pat Schwab and Doug Sanders played on the game University of Florida golf team. Sanders was team captain.

Driver Jailed For 9 Months On 2 Charges

A 34-year-old Beechwood man who pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on charges of driving while intoxicated and operating a car after his license had been suspended by the state Bureau of Motor Vehicles drew two jail terms totaling nine months in addition to a $500 fine.

Hal Hamblet, 170 Haywood St., was sentenced by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who told him at the end of a scatching lecture:

"If you think you're bigger than the state of Ohio, you have nine months to think it over."

Court records show it was Hamblet's third arrest for drunken driving in six years. He was arrested first on June 22, 1955, and again on Jan. 19, 1961.

As a result of the January arrest, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles suspended his operator's permit for three years or until he posted proof of financial responsibility. At the same time, his permit was suspended for a year by the local court.

Police said Hamblet was arrested at 11:59 a. m. Thursday by Patrolman Floyd K. Heddleston on Boyce St. Hamblet gave a statement in which he admitted consuming "three beers" a short time earlier at the Veterans Social Club, police said.

Judge Chertoff ordered that Hamblet must serve the two jail terms consecutively rather than concurrently. With a concurrent sentence, he could have been out of jail in six months.

"You seem to be making a career of driving while drunk," the judge told Hamblet after reading his record. "I'm going to prove to you that the state means business when it suspends your license!"

"You knew you weren't supposed to drive that car, but you did so deliberately," Judge Chertoff said. "I am going to impress on you that when the court speaks you're going to believe it. If you feel you're bigger than the state of Ohio, you have nine months to think it over."

Under Ohio law, Hamblet will be required to take a driver's exam before he can obtain a new license.

"But I will do everything in my power to see that you do not get a license again," the judge said.

Assistant Fire Chief Aids Training Class

Asst. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne is assisting in instructing a class on radiation for the Lisbon volunteer fire department.

Twelve members of the department plus three volunteers, George Dotson, Ed McKee and Ray Hempstead, village clerk-treasurer, are enrolled in the six-week course which meets each Wednesday under the direction of Sal Trainer, Civil Defense director of Smith Township near Sebring. Thirl Flugan is chief of the Lisbon department.

The course will be offered city firemen starting about the middle of November, Van Dyne said. He received instruction on the subject at a course in Akron.

Madison Missionary Group Will Convene

The Women's Missionary group of the Madison congregation of the Beaver Valley United Presbyterian Larger Parish will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

A feature will be screening of thank-offering slides.

Especially For You . . .

THE WARMTH AND FRIENDLINESS OF AN OPEN FIREPLACE on a winter evening is yours in the large carpeted living room of this fine home on Calcutta Smiths-Ferry Road. An oil furnace keeps the 5 rooms and 1½ baths cozy all winter, too. The 6½ acres of ground are a beautiful setting for this brick home surrounded by planned landscaping. A dream home, at a modest price. Drop by and see it for yourself. $19,000.00

BRAND SPANKING NEW? No, but it's a well taken care of older home. A two story 6 room home on Chester Avenue with 1½ baths, garage, oil furnace, and many extras. All rooms except 1 of the 3 bedrooms are carpeted, and there's a plate glass mirror to reflect your pride in being a "happy home-owner". Give it a good look and it will give you plenty of good living. $10,500.00

THE MAGIC CARPET is already laid in the hall and 1 of the 2 bedrooms of this 1 story home in LaCroft. The kitchen has built-in cabinets, and it's all heated by a gas furnace. A fairly new home at a fair price. Shrubs and trees provide the final touch to this cozy home.

ARE YOU THINKING of selling your home or business? Give "Mac" a call for complete realtor service . . . appraisal, listing, advertising and SELLING! Years of experience in East Liverpool and vicinity make "Mac" your man, for the finest in real estate service for both home and business.

Rep. Moeller Raps Hodges On Aid Plan

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, says he fears that Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges "does not appreciate the severity of the problems of unemployment and underemployment in the so-called depressed areas."

Hodges has criticized the program of federal aid for depressed areas, saying it has many shortcomings. He suggested that areas pull out of the program and conduct their own economic development projects.

Moeller met here Thursday with officials of Athens, Fairfield, Vinton and Hocking counties who are working out a program for federal assistance.

The Lancaster Congressman declared: "Instead of the commerce secretary suggesting communities pull out of the area (Area Redevelopment Act program) let him use the facilities of his office to help people help themselves."

He added: "If the Area Redevelopment Administration regulations were made less strict, if more concern were applied to making loans available to those in need of business expansion, employment would be increased and earning power of our people would also be improved."

Moeller said Hodges should iron out what the congressman called complexities in the ARA program. He said his district (the 10th — Athens, Fairfield, Hocking, Vinton, Meigs, Gallia, Lawrence and Jackson counties) was not getting its fair share of income and that consequently the standards of living are forced lower.

Convention Trip Given To Club

A report of the Ohio Kiwanis convention at Columbus Monday through Wednesday was given by Bert Wakefield, city Kiwanis Club secretary, at a meeting Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Ed Maloney, chairman of the club-sponsored rummage sale to start Oct. 16 at the former Zange & Bence building, reported on collections for the sale.

Al Weber reported on a public pancake and sausage supper to be held in December. Bill Kent, insurance firm manager, was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. Dorothy Horsley and Miss Mildred McGregor of the Quota Club spoke to the club concerning a travelogue series planned by the club.

Jud English, president, was in charge.

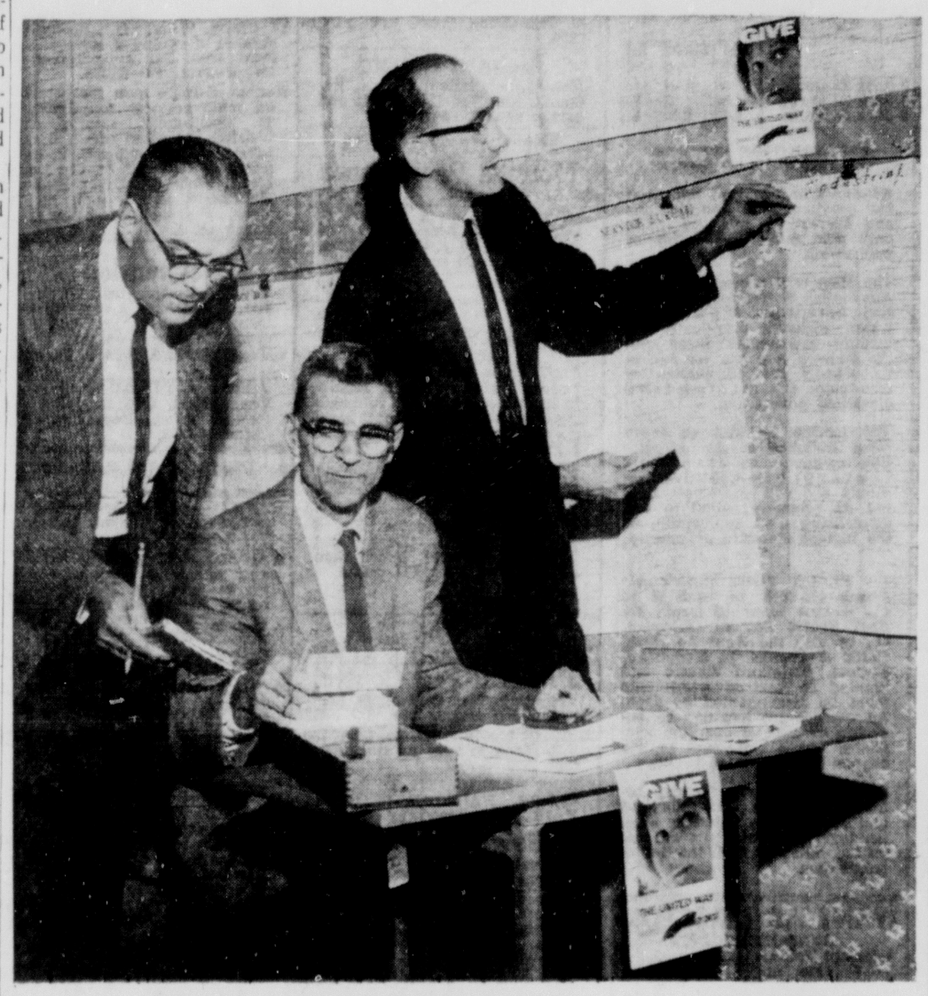

Ex-Teamsters Local Granted AFL-CIO Nod

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO, has granted tentative membership to a former Teamsters local, pending the outcome of a National Labor Relations Board election.

Council President Al Bilik said Thursday Local 152-b, Brewery Workers Union, will become a full council member after its 700 members have voted officially to quit the teamsters.

First Report Scheduled

Fund Drive Machinery's Ready

Volunteers in the Community Fund solicitation now under way are shown checking the "machinery" at the YMCA in preparation for the first reports scheduled to be received Monday in the campaign for $77,600.

They indicated that all record-keeping operations have been set up at the headquarters office and explained the reporting procedures.

Each worker received, in working kits distributed at Monday's "kick-off" dinner, a pink "check sheet" to be filled in with the name of the division in which the volunteer is working and the "numbers" of donor envelopes. This "check sheet" is to be turned in with each report.

When the reports arrive at headquarters, file cards, which are maintained for each individual donor and company, are removed from the slotted division "charts" which cover one entire wall at the headquarters office. Since a separate wall chart is maintained for each of the campaign's 10 divisions, drive leaders will be able to make a quick visual check on progress throughout the month-long solicitation.

Emmerling emphasized that instructions given to the workers last Monday night call for periodic reports — the first on Monday, the second Oct. 23— with final reports due Oct. 30. However, he urged all workers to make headquarters their final stop each day, turning in gifts and pledges as they are received.

"If these reporting dates and procedures are observed," Emmerling said, "the Community Fund campaign should be completed successfully by the end of the month."

60 At Mothers' Tea Of LaCroft PTA Unit

Following the tea, homeroom mothers were appointed with Mrs. Mary Rudibaugh as general chairman.

The group includes Grades 1, Mrs. Betty Harvey and Mrs. Peggy Copestick; Grade 2, Mrs. Dorothy Shafer; Grade 3, Mrs. Marguerite Hargraves; Grade 4, Mrs. Rudibaugh; Grade 5, Mrs. Bernice Deems, and Grade 6, Mrs. Delores Hendricks.

Mrs. Janet Poole was chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Viola Densmore and Mrs. Eileen Purinton.

County Distributes 22 Tons Of Aid Food

LISBON — Approximately 22 tons of surplus food was distributed in September for the county needy, according to Robert Bycroft, welfare director.

A total of 43,957 pounds was distributed to 2,896 persons at the four centers in East Liverpool, Salem, Wellsville and Lisbon.

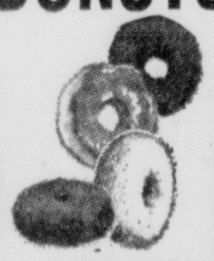

A breakdown shows 4,372 pounds of dried milk, 204 rice, 10,730 flour, 1,924 dried eggs, 2,714 rolled oats, 5,666 beans, 2,470 lard, 2,663 butter, 2,096 peanut butter and 9,194 of pork and gravy.

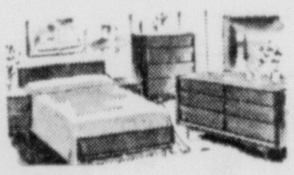

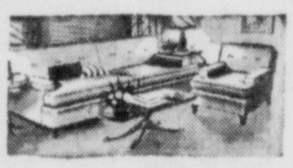

Next distribution is Oct. 16 at Salem, Oct. 17 at Wellsville, Oct. 18 at East Liverpool and Oct. 19 at the Lisbon warehouse.

Do you have the freedom that "money-wisdom" can provide?

Does their money travel further than yours?

Some people get left out of living. Others seem to get a lift out of living. So often it's not that they are making more money, but that they've discovered how to make it go further. In all probability, they've learned to use a full-service commercial bank . . . and use it for all it's worth.

A full-service commercial bank—such as ours—takes the clearest view of all your money matters. It can put all your requirements in proper perspective because, by law, it can do more for you. Unlike other financial institutions, it is not just limited to savings and a few kinds of loans. Only at a full-service bank is everything possible from a checking account and savings account to all types of loans and the most thorough kind of counselling.

It's often been said that it's not just the money, but what it can do that counts.

Our full-service bank will gladly see to it that your money makes that little extra effort. Why not pay us a visit . . . soon?

U Thant Of Burma

U. S. And Soviet Accord Reported On New UN Chief

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States and the Soviet Union were reported agreed today on U Thant of Burma as temporary U.N. secretary-general but many problems remain.

Informed diplomats said the chief of Burma's U.N. delegation is acceptable to the Soviet Union and the United States. There was no confirmation from either the U.S. or Soviet delegation.

A U.S. spokesman said, however, that Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson conferred on Thursday with U Thant.

If the agreement is affirmed, still to be worked out are the two basic questions of how the interim official is to be elected and what his powers will be.

The late Dag Hammarskjold ran the executive branch of the world peace body. But the Soviets who fought to unseat the Swedish diplomat up to the very hour of his death in an African plane crash, want to surround the temporary official with advisers.

Before leaving for Washington and talks with President Kennedy, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko threw cold water on a small nations' plan to name an interim secretary-general with five assistants in place of the Soviets' controversial troika plan.

"We think three is best," Gromyko reiterated to reporters.

Presumably this would call for naming undersecretaries from the United States, Soviet Union and a neutral nation to work in close concert with the acting secretary-general. The advisers would have no veto.

If Ambassador U Thant gets the top post, this probably would result in an executive composed of a Communist and two neutrals with only one representative from the West.

Talks With Gromyko Today

Kennedy Will Seek To Learn Any Soviet Change On Berlin

West Allies File Protest On Shooting

Sharp Complaint Handed Soviet Over Berlin Incidents

BERLIN (AP)—The three Western Allies sharply protested today to the Soviets against two shooting incidents involving Communist East German police in Berlin's French sector.

British Commandant Sir Rohan Delacombe called on his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, to deliver the protest on behalf of all three Western commandants, an Allied spokesman announced.

Delacombe told Solovyev that the incidents resulted from "dangerous and irresponsible action" by the East Berlin Communist police.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's personal representative in Berlin, this morning made an on the spot inspection of the dangerously tense sector—the Bernauerstrasse.

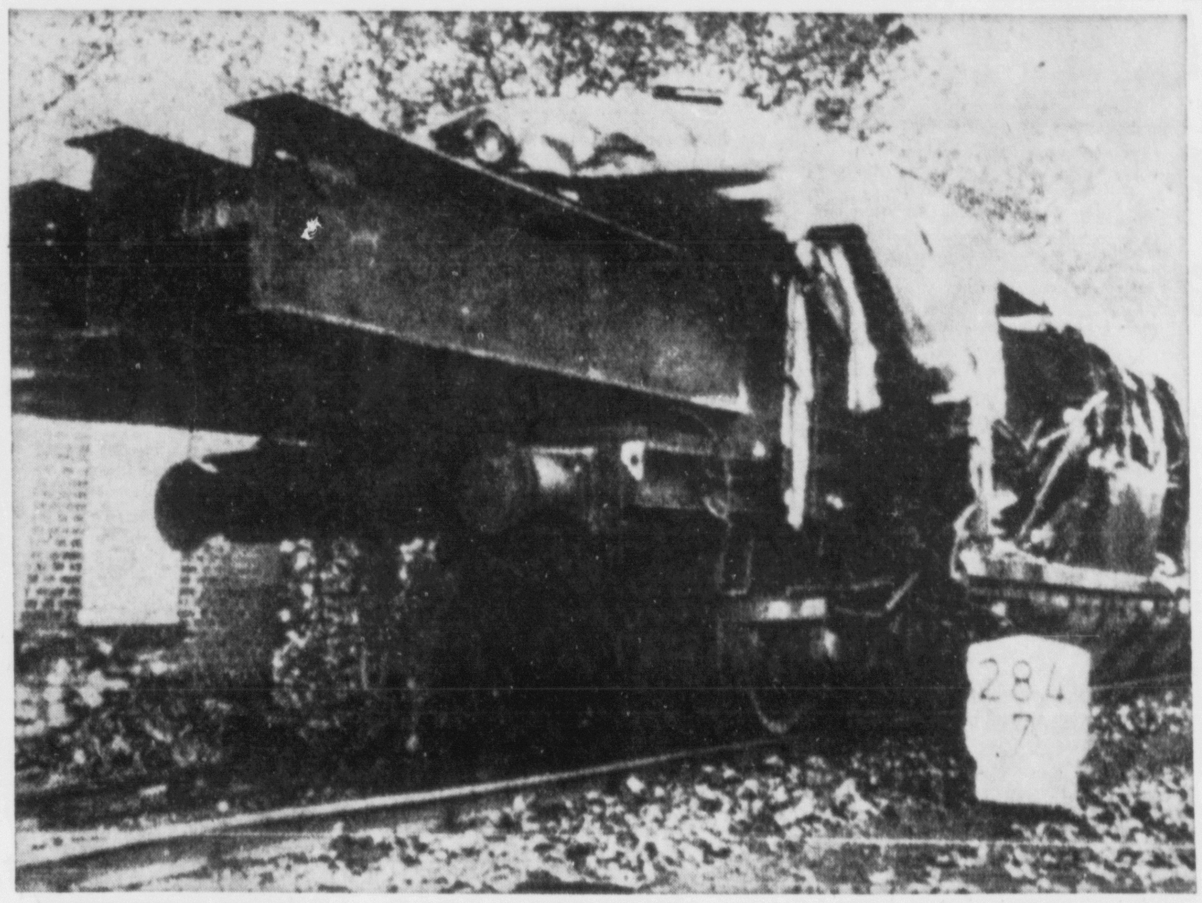

The street, divided by the Communist-built wall now cutting through Berlin, has been the scene of two shooting incidents in the last two days.

The State Department in Washington has called on Soviet authorities to avoid shooting incidents on the Berlin border.

Max Maron, the East German Communist interior minister, sent sharply worded protests to West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and the French commandant, Gen. Jean Lacomme over the shooting. He said any more such incidents will be "a threat to peace."

Clay had discussed the explosive situation with Brandt before the mayor flew off on a three-day visit to New York.

Today, Clay drove to Bernauerstrasse. With an aide, he walked the whole one-mile length of the street occasionally going right up to the wall erected by the Communists, which measures from 8 to 10 feet in height.

33 DIE IN WRECK. When this 20-ton steel girder on a work train in Hamburg, Germany, plowed through a passenger car, 33 commuters died. The accident occurred today when the passenger train rammed the rear of the work train, forcing the girder into the car. (UPI Telephoto)

U.N. Topic Also May Be Discussed

President Expected To Re-Emphasize West Allies Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy meets Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today, seeking to learn if there has been any significant change in the Soviet position on Berlin.

But U.S. officials did not expect the session, set for late afternoon at the White House, to provide a dramatic opening for peaceful settlement of the long-festering German dispute.

Kennedy is prepared to listen to any fresh instructions Gromyko may have received from Moscow and to prod the Soviet minister for further explanation of the Soviet position on Berlin.

Kennedy also was ready to reemphasize to Gromyko Western determination not to yield on Berlin rights—a message Gromyko will likely relay to Soviet Premier Khrushchev when Gromyko returns to Moscow Sunday.

Another matter that may come up in their conversation is the United Nations. The Soviet Union and the United States were reported Thursday night to be in agreement on a candidate for temporary U.N. secretary-general, a successor for the late Dag Hammarskjold.

The candidate reported by informed diplomats to be acceptable by both Moscow and Washington is U Thant of Burma.

Kennedy plans only a single session with Gromyko. The President's schedule allowed for a meeting of about two hours before he was due at a state dinner being given by visiting President Ferik Ibrahim Abboud of Sudan.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will sit in at the conference. It follows three exploratory talks Rusk held with Gromyko in New York.

No plans have been made for another separate Rusk-Gromyko meeting. Officials stressed, however, that this depends entirely on Gromyko. If he wants one, the State Department is ready to go along.

The objects of these sessions is to find out if the Soviets are willing to negotiate on terms acceptable to the West.

U.S. sources said Gromyko has not yet spelled out the Kremlin position sufficiently to enable the Western powers to decide whether fruitful East-West negotiations are possible. For one thing, the Soviets have not been precise on how their proposed peace treaty with Communist East Germany would affect West Berlin rights which the West deems vital.

American authorities will scan closely Khrushchev's forthcoming policy speech to the Communist party congress, which opens in Moscow Oct. 17. They believe he might shed some light in the speech on any change in Soviet policy toward Berlin and Germany.

Tavern Operator, Waitress Accused On Liquor, Gaming

Time ran out for the operator of a Newell tavern and a waitress Thursday night at 8:45.

That was the time of a raid on the Stutz Bar, 118 Washington St., by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

Deputies confiscated a quantity of whisky and an electric gaming clock.

They cited the operator, Wallace Simcox, 36, of 118½ Washington St., on a charge of illegal possession of alcoholic liquor, and Anna Gay Beagle, 34, of 1052 Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool, on a charge of operating the gaming device.

Deputies of the staff of County Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny operated on a search and seizure warrant to raid the tavern for at least the second time this year.

Simcox had been arrested June 22 on a charge of operating a game of chance. He posted a $100 bond before Newell Squire Harry Lytton for a hearing, but the results were not made known.

The East Liverpool woman and Simcox each posted $500 bond for hearings Tuesday at 2 p.m. before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Store Display Hit In Looting

Jewelry's Window Smashed By Brick

A burglar fled with at least four watches valued at $250 after smashing a display window early today at Shaw's Jewelry Store, 513 Washington St., police reported.

Store personnel still were working on an inventory today in an effort to determine the full extent of the loss, but they said it has been established definitely that four wristwatches were taken and several more may turn up missing when the check is completed.

The window was smashed at 2:18 this morning by an intruder who hurled a half of a paving brick, officers said. After scooping merchandise from the window, he apparently fled south on Washington St., as the lining from a watch display box was found in front of a dry cleaning store at E. 5th and Washington.

Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes, desk officer, received the first report of the window-smashing and Lt. Clyde Boso directed the initial investigation.

Chester Told Why Sewage Grant Failed

Low Ratings Cited On Need, Ability To Start On Project

Chester's request for federal aid for a proposed sewage disposal system was turned down this summer because of low ratings for financial need and ability to act promptly in starting construction, it was reported at a meeting of Council and the Sanitary Board Thursday night.

Dominic Cerrone, representative of the A. R. Todd Associates of Wheeling, engineers who submitted the application for a $110,000 grant, met with Council and the board.

He presented a letter from John T. Johnson, head of the municipal section of the Division of Water Resources of the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources, which explained why the requested grant was turned down and how the city's priority rating could be improved.

Chester scored low on the estimated per capita cost of the $450,000 project, getting five points — out of a possible 20 points on the rating system — for the estimated cost of $117 per person.

The city also failed to score any points on the median family income which would reflect a financial need. The city's median family income is $3,787. A median income of $3,499 to $3,000 is worth five points in the ratings, and a median income of $2,500 to $2,999 is worth 10 points.

Chester earned only one point in the time estimated between the award of the grant and letting of the construction contract.

It is estimated it would take three months from the time the grant would be approved to when the contracts would be ready. Higher ratings are given for contracts let, or bids opened or advertising approved.

Johnson suggested the city could get an additional nine points in 1962 in this latter classification by showing it is ready to proceed with construction as soon as the grant is obtained and cannot possibly proceed without the grant.

The board agreed to resubmit another application for 1962, and plans to seek the aid of State

Toronto Man Given $200 Fine And Jail

Pleading guilty to a charge of drunken driving, a Toronto area man was fined $200 and costs and given three days in Jefferson County Jail in Steubenville at a hearing Thursday before County Judge Helen M. Huntsman of Toronto.

Leroy Rood, 24, was returned to jail in lieu of a fine.

The charge was filed by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol, who said Rood rounded a curve left of center and crashed headon into a Wellsville man's car Wednesday night at the Yellow Creek.

Rood and seven members of the family of Marshall Smallwood Jr., 32, of 2011 Danbury Ave., were injured in the mishap on Route 213 at 9:45.

Mishap Hurts Midland Man

Officers Cite Youth For East End Crash

A 23-year-old Midland man was injured Thursday night in a violent two-car crash on Pennsylvania Ave. near Minnesota Ave., police reported.

He is Robert Burel Skinner, 136 Midland Ave., whose 1954 two-door sedan was involved in a collision at 6:57 with a 1948 sedan operated by Richard L. Cain, 16, of 322 Haywood St., Beechwood, officers said.

Skinner told police he would seek treatment at a Midland physician's office for superficial injuries.

The Beechwood youth was cited into Juvenile Court for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Skinner told police he was traveling east on Pennsylvania Ave. about 30 miles an hour when Cain's car pulled out of Minnesota Ave. into his path. Cain told police he halted at the intersection, saw no approaching traffic and proceeded. He said he did not see Skinner's car until the collision.

The impact caused heavy damage to the front end of Skinner's auto and extensive damage to the right front of Cain's car, officers said.

Nasser Says He Concedes U.A.R. Death

Won't Oppose New Regime Bid To Join UN, Arab Republic

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser, virtually conceding the death of his United Arab Republic, says he will not oppose efforts of the revolutionary Syrian regime to join the United Nations and the Arab League.

In a dramatic address whose conciliatory tone astounded observers in Cairo, Nasser declared "there is no need for a political or diplomatic blockade of Syria because the Syrian people would suffer." Only a short time before, the Cairo press had been denouncing the rebels as imperialists.

The address at first delighted the Syrian revolutionaries, and Syrian Premier Mamoun Kuzbari offered Egypt the hand of friendship. But he took a new, skeptical attitude this morning.

A Damascus broadcast quoted Kuzbari as saying Nasser agreed not to oppose Syrian membership in the United Nations only because he realized it was inevitable. Kuzbari said Syria had been promised free elections and "our only wish is that the Egyptian people would have the same opportunity."

Nasser, speaking slowly and with deep emotion, said that Cairo will not recognize any Damascus government "until the free will of the Syrian people is manifested and she herself decides her path."

Nasser indicated he wants a Syrian plebiscite stamping voter approval on the outcome of the revolt before he would be willing to exchange envoys. The Syria regime has promised elections within four months.

The Egyptian leader assailed governments that already have recognized the new Damascus regime. He termed Turkey fascist, Iran pro-Israel, Jordan a feudal republic, Nationalist China an outcast, and Guatemala a fruit company government.

Soviets Blast 18th, Far Biggest A-Test

PARIS (AP)—The Soviet Union today staged its 18th and by far the largest nuclear test in its current series, French government detection services reported.

The blast was 1½ times the strength of the last test Wednesday, the detectors said. The last test was reported to have been several megatons in strength. A megaton is equivalent to a million tons of TNT.

Kennedy Asks Prayers

Cancer Perils Rayburn's Life

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Time appears to be running out for Sam Rayburn.

The 79-year-old Speaker of the House of Representatives has cancer and it has spread to such an extent that doctors said Thursday "no further surgery is anticipated."

In Washington, President Kennedy asked the nation to join him and Mrs. Kennedy "in prayer for Speaker Rayburn, who has served his nation so well and so faithfully for so many years."

Depending on "Mr. Sam's" stamina, one doctor said, he could hold out for several months, even longer. Another said "two or three weeks" seemed more likely.

A non-medical aide to Rayburn said following Thursday's exploratory surgery the end could come in several days.

An official hospital spokesman told newsmen "it is too early" to say that Rayburn's cancer in incurable.

"Is he going to die?" a reporter asked.

"It is too early to say that he is going to die," the spokesman said. He added that it also is too early to say that Rayburn would recover.

Asked if it was possible for Rayburn to recover the spokesman replied in the affirmative.

He said Rayburn would be allowed to return to his home in Bonham if he wished to do so "and if we feel he is well enough to go," but "his condition would have to change before he could go back to Washington."

The lymph gland was removed from Rayburn's right groin during Thursday's surgery.

A hospital bulletin said "the biopsy revealed a metastatic malignancy" and "the most likely primary site of the malignancy is the pancreas."

This means, a doctor explained, that the malignancy has spread from its original site to other points in Rayburn's body.

Rayburn had not been told late Thursday how serious his condition is. He was under heavy sedation to relieve extreme pain but talked briefly with members of his family who remained nearby during the night.

Funeral Set Saturday

Death Claims Will Blake, Former OIC Chairman

Funeral will be held Saturday for Will T. Blake of East Liverpool, retired Ohio Industrial Commission member under seven governors and chairman for several terms, who died Thursday at 1:20 p.m. after a lengthy illness.

He had been in City Hospital since March after a lingering illness that had cut short his fifth term on the OIC in 1957.

A former potter and newspaperman, he was editor and business manager of the IBOP's Potters Herald for a number of years before entering state service originally in 1929. In all he served the state over 25 years, first as industrial relations director then as a member and chairman of the commission three times.

He resided in Columbus while in state service but since retiring had made his home with his

Teenage Boy Confesses To Slaying Girl

Enticed Her Into Field, Attacked, Then Drowned Her

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—A teenage boy admitted Thursday night, police said, he enticed a 7-year-old neighbor girl into a weedy field, raped her and drowned her in a rainwater pond.

Police said Steven Schloneger, 13, a tall seventh grader, told them: "I just did it for a thrill. I heard you could get a thrill from it."

The nude body of blonde, blue-eyed Yvonne Elliott was found face down in the field near her home by her father, Edward, 27, Wednesday night. She had bicycled to a neighborhood store to get a package of cigarettes for her father.

The boy was charged with delinquency and held in the Du Page County jail in Wheaton. William Bauer, Du Page County state's attorney, said Schloneger will be charged with murder at a court arraignment Monday.

Herbert Mertes, chief deputy sheriff, said Schloneger was arrested after Albertine Fisher, 29, told a deputy her son Steven, 7, related that he had seen Schloneger and Yvonne Wednesday evening standing near a tree in the field where her body was later found.

Merter said Schloneger lives with his stepfather and mother, Edward Pivonka, 42, and Helen June, 42, on the outskirts of nearby Elmhurst. Deputies found a pair of soiled overalls in the boy's home which he admitted he had worn Wednesday, Mertes said.

Seal-Coating Project Will Begin Next Week

The Tri-State Asphalt Corp. of Martins Ferry expects to start work next week, possibly Monday, on seal-coating of 17 East Liverpool blacktop streets, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today.

Tri-State, awarded a city contract earlier in the summer, said it will begin the job "on the first nice day next week," Owen explained.

The job will begin in the Beechwood area, with the first work scheduled on Anderson Blvd. and Rubicon St.

1st Ballots Delivered On Franklin-Southern

First ballots were delivered today to the County Election Board by the printing contractor for write-in election of a new Board of Education Nov. 7 in the newly-created Franklin-Southern Local School District.

The election board delayed starting the printing job until about a week ago because of a controversy before the County Board of Education over the merger, followed by a threat of court action that has not materialized so far.

The ballots provide spaces for write-in election of three members for four-year terms and two for two-year terms. The same ballot lists candidates for the State Board of Education and the County Board of Education.

Deaths and Funerals

Former Ware Employe Dies

Raymond E. Dawson, 80, of Georgetown, a retired potter, died Thursday about 12:30 p. m. at City Hospital after a lingering illness.

He was born in Georgetown to George Dawson and Isadore Winch Dawson. He was employed last at the Homer Laughlin China Co., and retired about 15 years ago.

He is survived by a brother, Carl L. Dawson of Pittsburgh, and a sister, Miss Edna E. Dawson of Georgetown.

Services will be held Saturday at 3:30 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. David Dayen, pastor of the Georgetown Methodist Church. Burial will be in Georgetown Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Miss Odessa Smith

Miss Odessa R. Smith, 420 College St., a native of East Liverpool, died Thursday at 6:15 p. m. at City Hospital, after an illness of five years. She was 43.

Miss Smith was born Aug. 12, 1918, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, with whom she resided. She spent her entire lifetime here. She worked for eight years as a secretary for the Aronson law office until December 1960. She was a 1936 graduate of East Liverpool High School and of the Ohio Valley Business College, where she also was an instructor for several years. She was a member of the First Church of Christ and the Protective Home Circle.

Besides her parents, she leaves four brothers, Dennis H. Smith, Earl E. Smith, Ralph E. Smith Jr. and Gene Smith, all of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Raymond (Vioma) Stevens of Chester, and several nephews and nieces.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by John E. Mostoller, minister. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Scott Allen Moore

Scott Allen Moore, 4-day old son of Earl and Carol Featherstone Moore of New Cumberland R. D., died this morning at 2:40 at City Hospital. He was born Monday.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Kelly Jo Moore at home; maternal grandparents, Mrs. Ruth Fowler of Sarasota, Fla., and Charles Featherstone of Ft. Worth, Tex.; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Moore of Chester, and the paternal great - grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Springer of East Liverpool.

Graveside services will be held Saturday at 3:15 p. m. at Locust Hill Cemetery in Chester by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

The Arner Chapel of Chester is in charge of arrangements.

Senior Citizens Name Chairmen

Mrs. Louise Belaney was appointed membership chairman and Mrs. Alice Tittle, hospitality chairman, at a meeting of the East Liverpool Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon in the VFW Hall.

Mrs. Sam Hall, president, conducted business when tentative plans were discussed to hold a "walk-in" one day a week at the VFW home.

A birthday party was planned Oct. 26 to honor members observing birthdays in August, September and October.

The meeting was opened by Miss Laura Mae Swan who used Ps. 91 for Scripture and read a poem, "Lord Keep Me Busy."

Lunch and social hour followed.

Next meeting is Thursday at the VFW Home.

City Driver Injured In Wreck On Bridge

An East Liverpool motorist was hurt but his Midland companion escaped uninjured in a wreck which demolished two cars Thursday night on the Rochester-Beaver Bridge.

West Bridgewater police said a westbound car operated by Pete Palijash, 20, of New Brighton smashed into a car owned by Richard Monroe, 39, of 440 Orchard Grove Ave., which was parked in the middle of the bridge.

Charges for parking in the middle of roadways are pending against Monroe, police said.

Monroe was treated at Rochester General Hospital for multiple contusions and abrasions while his companion, Walter Allen, 26, of 400 Midland Ave., Midland, was examined and released. Palijash also was examined and released.

Death Claims Will T. Blake

sister, Miss Adeline Blake, 1947 St. Clair Ave., a former member of the high school faculty.

Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, he was the son of the late W. V. Blake and Mary Thornborn Blake.

His father was a former mayor of East Liverpool and state senator from the 20th-22nd District.

As a youth the family moved to Trenton, N. J. and were naturalized, coming to East Liverpool about 1889. He was educated in Trenton and East Liverpool public schools and attended Franklin College at Columbus and Ohio State University.

As a young man he entered the potteries. During his apprenticeship, he recalled in a letter to a local historian, he had worked with Henry Schmidt, German ceramic artist who developed the now famous Lotus ware while employed with the former KTK works.

He said: "I was selected as Mr. Schmidt's assistant by Ben Harker, foreman of the clay shop, for two specific reasons — one to help Mr. Schmidt, who spoke only German, to acquire a quick working knowledge of English, and the other was so that if he should become ill or suddenly decide to leave, the firm would have someone to fall back upon to carry on the work. I kept this position for several years."

He also described the preparation of the now rare ware and told of some of the difficulties in its production.

After his apprenticeship, he became a journeyman turner. Mr. Blake joined the IBOP's paper after earlier newspaper experience on the former Morning Tribune here and in 1924 was granted a year's leave of absence to return to Ohio State University.

He returned to the city, serving as editor until his first state appointment. After that expired, he became editor again following the death of the incumbent, handling the paper for two or three years previous to his 1935 appointment to the state commission.

Mr. Blake entered the state service in 1929 when Gov. Meyers Cooper named him a member of his "cabinet," designating him as industrial relations director. The OIC had not been established then.

Completing his term, he returned to East Liverpool then was called back to Columbus in 1935 when named a member of the commission by Gov. Martin L. Davey. He served continuously until his retiring, being chairman at least three terms. He was reappointed in 1941 by Gov. John Bricker and in 1947 by Gov. Thomas Herbert.

In 1953, he was appointed to a six-year-term by Gov. Frank Lausche, a Democrat, and was the lone Republican in the three-man commission.

He submitted his resignation to Gov. C. William O'Neill in August of 1957, when his health began to fail.

He took an active interest in the Columbiana County Safety Committee's program each year and was among the principals at most of the annual awards banquet.

He was the labor representative on the commission.

In East Liverpool, he served on the YMCA and City Hospital boards and was a member of Riddle Masonic Lodge 315. He was a member of Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Besides Miss Blake, he is survived by another sister, Mrs. Joseph (Isabelle) Holloway of Shaker Heights and a brother, Perce R. Blake of East Liverpool.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Harold Blake, George Blake and Howard Blake, and a sister, Ida Blake.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Boosters Set Fund Drive At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A campaign to equip a football field at the new Southern Local High School by 1963 will be launched Oct. 17, it was decided at a meeting of the Boosters Club Thursday night at Salineville High School.

A fund drive will be held to obtain lighting, seats and other equipment for the field at the new school to be built on Route 39 east of here.

Tom Leek, high school principal, was appointed to arrange a program for the kickoff meeting to be held at the high school. A speaker is to be obtained to estimate costs and details of the project.

Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect who designed the $756,000 structure, was in Columbus Thursday and submitted plans for final approval of the building. Officials have indicated advertising for bids may be held within a month, following state approval.

The Boosters have had a program printed for sale at the homecoming game Oct. 14 with Crestview School. Martin Adams is in charge of the sale.

Club members today began the sale of football-shaped savings banks from which proceeds will be used for the general fund.

Warren Dunlap, president, was in charge. About 11 attended.

90 Parents Hear New Grade Plan

Ninety attended a group conference of parents of primary pupils at the Pughtown elementary school Thursday afternoon.

The school has adopted the "ungraded" primary in which pupils advance as quickly as their abilities merit, and the "faster" youngsters do not compete in classroom work with the "slower" ones.

There are 290 pupils in the ungraded primary classes. Principal R. O. Stevens commented that "the ungraded primary is working out fine, and it appears to be the coming thing in primary education."

Mrs. Virginia Owens, faculty member, and Mrs. Audrey Litman, curriculum co-ordinator of Hancock County elementary schools, explained the primary mental ability test taken by first graders the first week of school to determine their learning abilities.

Mrs. Litman and the principal answered questions following the discussion. the Parent - Teacher Association served lunch.

New Frontiersmen On The Trail

Comments are being made freely on the Kennedy administration's plan to send leading New Frontiersmen to Chicago, St. Louis, Houston, Nashville, Detroit, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Los Angeles to confer with local settlers. It's an interesting idea, though as old an idea as asking the local party contact how things look in his bailiwick.

The purpose is to generate enthusiasm for the Kennedy administration programs that sputtered out in the recent session of Congress. Cabinet members and other representatives of the administration ordered to hit the road will try to whoop up enthusiasm for aid to education, more funds for urban redevelopment, medical care for the aged and ways to boost employment.

IF THEY DIG deep enough to find out why U.S. representatives and senators dragged their feet this year, their trips will be worthwhile. But if they have nothing better in mind than to ask the Democratic mayors and machine bosses why they like the New Frontier, they might as well stay in Washington.

To do worthwhile digging, the Kennedy men would avoid talking with the mayors of the cities they will visit. The mayors are either Democrats or nonpartisan, which is what some Democrats like to think they are when there are enough Republicans registered to make trouble at the polls.

The diggers would have to go to the suburbs and even farther to discover what happened to such ill-advised proposals as wholesale federal aid to schools and development of urban real estate at an ever-faster pace to bail out people who turned it out to pasture after they'd milked it dry.

THEY WOULD have to solicit straight answers from spokesmen for people who came within a sliver fraction of one per cent of not electing John F. Kennedy president last November.

They would even have to spend time studying the political opposition. If they ever started that, they might trudge back to Washington to report glumly that the New Frontier seems to have gone the way of the Edsel. The buildup was stupendous. The design was delightful. The performance chart was breath-taking. The country could scarcely wait, but when it came — phhtt! The idea didn't sell.

At that, the New Frontiersmen might find out why by talking to the Democrats who all but monopolize big-city politics. The New Frontier hasn't bowled over Democrats, either. They're too busy with Old Problems.

Will T. Blake, Public Servant

Will T. Blake died Thursday and his passing is a loss both to the state and to the city where he resided for more than 70 years.

Mr. Blake was the state's first industrial relations director and served five terms on the Ohio Industrial Commission until retiring in 1957.

As evidence of his wide knowledge and great devotion to this vital agency, he was reappointed by successive governors, Republican and Democrat, although at times he was the only GOP member.

Mr. Blake retired four years ago, when his health began to fail, but procedures and policies he helped establish during his long tenure will serve as a monument to his contributions to the workingman's protection.

The compensation standards the agency developed during his administration have been copied by several states. Such an agency had not been created when Mr. Blake first began his state duties.

As the labor representative, he brought wide experience to the job, coupled with an understanding of industry's problems. And he was aware of the public's right to know about the affairs of his agency, having been editor of the Potters Herald for many years before taking the state appointment.

At one time he was a reporter on former The Morning Tribune here, gaining experience that fitted him for the editorship of the weekly journal of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, and which provided his stepping stone to the state career. He put in his apprenticeship in district potteries, which made him familiar with a laboring man's problems.

He found time for civic duties and aided the YMCA and City Hospital by serving on their boards. Although he had been inactive in his twilight years, his contributions during his state career will long be recognized.

Go South For The Right Reason

A National Labor Relations Board ruling this week against a Philadelphia clothing manufacturer who "went South" during a labor dispute may slow down a practice that is giving fits to northern states.

Every time one of their employers gets into a hassle with a union that promises to become a deadlock they can count on hearing that the employer has been approached by a shill from a southern state with a proposition for moving the plant.

This is as sure-fire a pitch as selling windstorm damage insurance during a gale. The southerners are willing to offer everything, including the use of the local mayor's spare bedroom—tax forgiveness, free improvements, special police protection and, of course, freedom from labor organizers.

To all this, NLRB has replied in effect that employers who "go South" wholly to get out from under a labor dispute must provide jobs for its displaced employes either at the new location or the old one. There is nothing to keep a plant from moving to a new location for a variety of reasons, but now there is an NLRB ruling to keep it from going there to strand its employes if they were involved in labor negotiations.

There will be an appeal, and there may be a reversal. But as things stand now, the next southerner who tries to entice a northern enterprise to move South to get away from a union deadlock had better be prepared with ideas for taking care of the old employes as well as the new payroll, the real estate, improvements, overhead and police protection.

Seen, Never Forgotten

The greatest show in nature—the coloring of the leaves before they fall each Autumn—is staged with a master's touch.

The curtain is opened on a bleak and dreary stage, unlighted and seemingly empty. It is one of those damp October days with a weather range from bleak to desolate.

Then a miracle of lighting occurs before millions of wondering eyes. The weather brightens. The colorless stage is transformed into a kaleidoscope of color as sunlight picks out the crimson on the maple leaves, the russet of the oak, the blood-red leaves of sumac, the golden tan of linden and the black green of pines huddled securely in their winter coats.

The color spectacle runs on endlessly. As the eye moves across its span and back again, everything changes in the space of seconds. The greatest show in nature more than fills the eye.

It fills the mind and the whole being of the beholder, so much so that once seen it never is forgotten. The staging is a miracle in itself—not just the beginning but the end.

The miracle fades away. The lights go down. Darkness settles on the scene. Offstage there is the patter of Autumn rain. Then—emptiness. The color spectacle is over for another year. The greatest show in nature has moved on.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Hospitals are filled with baseball fans suffering from "asteriskitis," a battered-up condition due to arguments over ruling that Roger Maris' total of 61 homers in regular season doesn't officially beat Ruth record because "Bambino's" season wasn't quite so long.

(Injured fans can't get necessary treatment because doctors and nurses join in argument. One ambulance driver broke records getting fan to emergency ward, but will get asterisk after name because another driver did better 30 years ago on less gasoline.)

We talked with an injured Maris supporter who said: "Does a potato king get an asterisk if he sells more potatoes than any previous dealer, but takes an extra week?

Does a song writer lose face if he sells more recordings than the previous high man because previous record holder spent less time at piano? Would it be fair to put an asterisk beside Ford Frick's name if he gets more publicity than Judge Landis, but takes six more interviews?

"If my wife wins more arguments with me in 1961, won't it count much on account of somebody's missus did better 30 years ago over a shorter route?"

He was quite disturbed and went on to argue, "No football star who makes a dozen 90 yard touchdowns this year will get an asterisk because a player of the past did it in less time.

No race horse winning three derbies would be rated below one who had won two with a couple of weeks more between races."

He had one more question: "Baseball's biggest sensation is the number of managers fired. If a manager loses his job three seasons in a row, does he get an asterisk because some manager got fired twice in two seasons?"

WE JUST HEARD of a baseball fan who is building a shelter to protect him from fallout from hassles over Maris-Ruth homer record. He had better stock it with supplies enough to last all through winter.

After reading Mark Schorer's book on life of Sinclair Lewis you wonder whether he was reviewing the writer's life or running him through a concrete mixer.

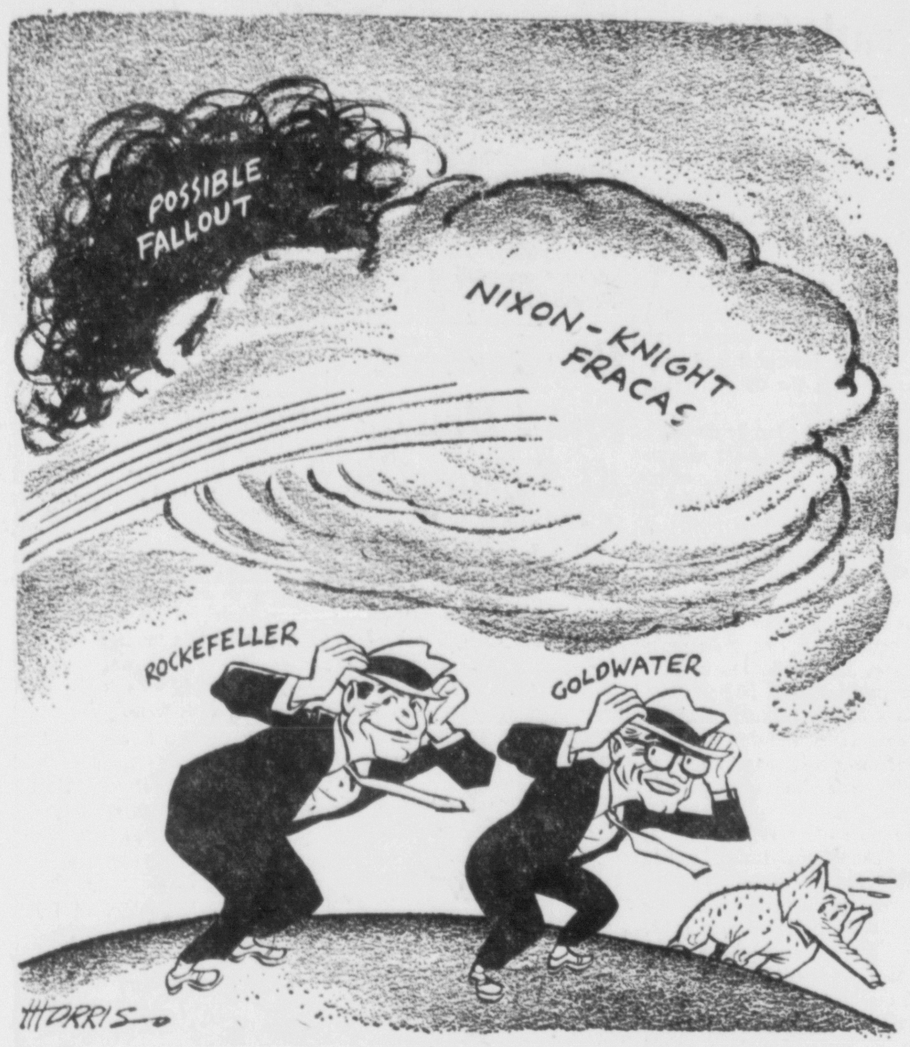

U.N. has $118 million in unpaid bills. Only a few nations pay any attention to them, the noisiest of all, Russia, not contributing a dime. Soviet consider it an aggressive act if it gets a bill.

Goldberg's Hat Pushed To Ring

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK

It had to happen. A thousand enthusiasts cheered a proposal here that Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg become the first Jewish candidate for the presidency of the United States.

Victor Riesel

Most of those who cheered were as Irish as a garland of shamrock hung on a shillelagh. They were the delegates to Mike Quill's Transport Workers Union convention. The roar for Goldberg's candidacy came after Quill had unleashed a confetti - raining, tape-flowing, placard-waving clamor for the drafting of Mr. Goldberg to run against Nelson Rockefeller for governor of New York in 1962.

The demonstration to convince John Kennedy's closest home front adviser to set up residence in New York ran on and on until Quill gaveled down the shouting, stomping crowd. Goldberg then went into his formal talk.

The suggestion that he someday run for the presidency came an hour later after one of the most unique performances put on by a speaker in all the years this reporter has been covering the breaking news.

AFTER SPEAKING for some 45 minutes, Goldberg opened himself up to sharp questioning by the delegates right from the floor—unrehearsed and as spontaneous as a forest fire.

Furthermore, it was Goldberg's suggestion that there be this unprecedented questioning. When Mike Quill telephoned him early Monday for final arrangements, the labor secretary told the Transport Union president he would like such an open forum.

This, apparently, is part of the White House's new technique of putting the New Frontier show on the road leading to the people wherever they are gathered.

At the end of the questioning, one TWU leader arose with the final query:

"Would you reconsider," the delegate asked the labor secretary, who had been recognizing each questioner by calling him "brother," "moving to New York and running for governor in '62?

"Then in 1968, when John Kennedy has finished his terms in the White House, you can be the first man to be nominated as a man of the Jewish faith and to be elected."

-:-

UP WENT THE ROAR again. Goldberg told the convention that he hoped it would really not push the national labor party it had launched during its session. But if it did, he hoped it would accept another Democratic nominee and that he would be happy to come in and campaign for him.

It was, to this observer, one of those moments which should be part of recorded history.

There was other significance amid the tumult. These men were cheering Goldberg because as their lawyer through the years he had hammered out many a win for them.

They did not cheer him, however, as a representative of the government, though they were pleased that a Cabinet member would come and run a 90-minute town hall for them.

They found themselves opposed to him on many issues.

They are for socialization of the railroads and airlines. Goldberg told them that where governments owned such means of transportation, the employes were usually worse off.

-:-

THEY ARE for a national labor party. Goldberg told them this, in effect, was futile and their place was in the Democratic party.

They are critical of John Kennedy. Goldberg told them that the President had rolled up "the greatest record since Franklin Roosevelt's first 100 days."

Their leader is for the readmission of Jim Hoffa's Teamsters to the AFL-CIO. Goldberg indicated how little he thought of Hoffa.

In spite of this a few minutes later Quill went before TV cameras and twice again called Hoffa the "cleanest man in the U.S." and then consulted with other TWU leaders on inviting Hoffa to the conclave.

When this reporter asked him if he would urge his union to join Hoffa's Conference for Transportation Unity, Quill said certainly.

Quill added he would be for joining Hoffa in a national parley of all transport unions, which have members who work on the land, on the sea, in the air and on rockets and moon bases too.

I never let Quill's quips and make-believe buffoonery obscure the seriousness of his strategy.

-:-

SHOULD QUILL join with the Teamsters, the Transport Workers Union chief would bring into Hoffa's combine some 150,000 TWU members in public utilities, universities, Cape Canaveral operations, key railroads, workers on some 17 airlines, drivers of buses and trolleys and subway trains in the nation's biggest, most congested communities.

When reminded that this would please neither Mr. Goldberg nor the White House, Mr. Quill said:

"We are not the servants of the Kennedys."

Even as Quill uttered these words, Goldberg was on his way over to a National Association of Manufacturers lunch to tell them that we are in the greatest era of industrial peace — and while he was driving over, scores of thousands of men were striking on the Pacific Coast, at Ford, and all along the line right on up to our radar warning systems.

For the moment Mr. Goldberg had only the cheers for his personal popularity to comfort him.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I read every word of a large advertisement in a national magazine about a pill to help people break the tobacco habit because it's my observation that smoking the cause of more personal unrest than even alcoholism.

When Generalissimo Franco of Spain says his government is getting ready to "restudy" its pacts with the United States, that's a eumphemism, son. And what's a eumphemism, daddys? It's when you use a sweet-smelling expression for a stinking idea, like "restudy" for "raise the price."

I like the candor that surrounded the firing of Jimmie Dykes as manager of the Cleveland Indians. Everybody had a good word to say for everybody else, except Dykes, who declared he had a lousy bunch of personalities who didn't amount to much as ballplayers either and figured his successor would be in the same trouble.

I like the looks of all the new automobiles this year and shudder when I see one of those horrors of a few years ago when designers were all having nightmares simultaneously.

It's an odd thing about my working associates who went to faroff places on their vacations that they all came back this year with a conviction that if this weren't where their work and friends are they would turn it in for a one-way ticket. Other years I thought they seemed glad to be back because they thought there was "no place like home."

NBC's Sunday night documentary on the late Ernest Hemingway seemed first-rate to me, because it explained the Hemingway who could write "The Old Man and the Sea," of which my own younger son said at the age of 14, "I just finished the book and thought it was swell. I understood every word in it."

Hard feelings in California between former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon can be traced in some part to a letter written in 1958 by the wife of former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland, who said her husband tried to take over the state governorship because Knight was making California a satellite of Walter Reuther's "labor-political empire. Nixon was Knowland's friend and still is.

A stirring tribute was paid to Dag Hammarskjold in Sweden, where he was accorded the ceremonial funeral customarily reserved for royalty. Why? Because his countrymen were paying tribute to a quality more honored than even royal blood-flawless personal integrity.

I wonder why football spectators don't use a kind of boat seat I used once on a fishing vacation—your weight on the thing holds a back rest in place, to get rid of that al-gone feeling in the third quarter. Or do they?

Strange U.N. Silence

By David Lawrence

No Action Taken On Cuban Executions

Notwithstanding the eloquent speeches and the big fanfare in the United Nations every now and then about human rights, the organization is rapidly losing the respect of mankind because of its crass indifference to the quest for human freedom in many parts of the world.

David Lawrence

The U.N. has ignored a string of executions in Cuba by the Castro regime. The pace of one-a-day murders has been deliberately adopted in Cuba in the hope that these atrocities will go unnoticed, especially by the U.N.

More than 600 persons are believed to have faced firing squads in Havana in recent months. Trumped-up charges of treason are usually cited but there is no such thing as a fair or public trial.

It's the same kind of brutality that the Soviets practiced in Hungary. Indeed, it is suspected that the Communist advisers of Castro are coaching him on how to put down internal opposition.

But the amazing aspect of the whole thing is the double standard adopted by the United Nations itself.

The U.N. didn't fail to put through its Security Council on April 1, 1960, a resolution urging South Africa to stop repressing the demands of its Negro population for equal treatment. In fact, the Security Council asked the secretary general to consult with the South African government on policies to conform with "the purposes of and principles of the U.N. Charter."

The United States voted for that resolution, as did the Soviet Union. The American ambassador declared that when a nation's domestic policies "evoke the deep concern of a great part of mankind, they . . . contribute to tension among nations."

AGAIN, IN MARCH 1961, following local disturbances in Angola, there was a proposal for a U.N. investigation. It was defeated in the Security Council, but the United States and the Soviet Union voted for it.

Then the Security Council on June 9, 1961, approved a resolution calling on Portugal to halt "severely repressive measures" in Angola. The United States and the Soviet Union voted for it.

Irrespective of whether it is proper for the U.N. to attempt to deal with internal questions, the fact remains that its principal members have taken the position that internal affairs are actually the concern of the U.N.

In view of that record, why is Cuba being exempted from any action by the United Nations?

Much pious talk, moreover, has been heard at the U.N. General Assembly about the rights of man and the humane considerations that should guide member states in handling their governmental affairs. But it is a paradox that no such guidance has been attempted in the case of Fidel Castro.

Perhaps it is because behind Castro stands the Soviet Union, and there is timidity about offending Moscow. Many of the African nations are among the "non-aligned" group. It's strange how quickly they line up if there's a riot in the streets of a South African town but say nothing by way of protest when day after day human beings are placed before firing squads in Havana and shot to death.

WHY IS SUCH cruelty ignored? These episodes are taking place just 90 miles away from the United States.

Once upon a time, when Spain's military executioners were engaged in killing Cuban patriots, the United States intervened and helped Cuba to win its independence.

Today, there is instead a blind indifferrence to the cruelties of the Cuban dictator not only by the United States government but by virtually all the other nations that call themselves humane and which make high-sounding speeches extolling the U.N. as an exponent of human rights.

The Organization of American States sent an investigating commission to the Dominican Republic recently, but apparently no similar mission is to be undertaken in Cuba. But it did cause another part of the organization — The Inter-American Commission on Human Rights — to cable the Cuban foreign minister asking for information on the possible death sentences of 11 Cubans now being tried.

Among the accused is Alfredo Riva, former editor of a newspaper in Havana and the only member of The Inter-American Press Association remaining in Cuba.

Here is something which also concerns the U.N. very directly because freedom of the press is supposed to be one of the rights which the United Nations would presumably be interested in defending. But the U.N. is strangely silent.

Free Trade Drive

By Joseph R. Slevin

Supporters of freer trade have launched a drive to push a liberalized trade law through Congress in 1962.

It may seem like an early start, for Congress has just left town, but the freer trade backers figure they can't begin too soon.

Congressional protectionist sentiment is growing stronger and early soundings suggest that the 1962 trade battle will be the bitterest legislative clash in many years.

The immediate goal of the freer trade advocates is to win grass roots backing. Three different organizations have sent new booklets to this reporter in recent days.

One came from an influential business group, the Committee for a National Trade Policy. Its chief members are the heads of companies that believe they will benefit from a rising foreign trade volume.

A second pamphlet came from the AFL-CIO. It was prepared by the labor organization's research department and holds to the AFL-CIO's established national policy of pressing for freer trade.

THE THIRD broadside was published by one of the best known public service groups in the country, the 132,000 member League of Women Voters. The ladies have battled for liberalized trade policies since 1936 and they have made freer trade the chief program for which they will campaign during the next six months.

Foreign trade is becoming an increasingly hot issue because the latest extension of the 27-year-old reciprocal trade agreements act will expire on June 30, 1962.

President Kennedy wants Congress to approve a greatly liberalized new program but the protectionists plan to counter with demands for fresh restrictions that would make it more difficult for foreign companies to sell their goods in the American market.

The President has not yet settled upon the details of his program but there is general agreement among his advisers that it must give him broad tariff-cutting authority that will allow the United States to offer substantial concessions to sellers from the increasingly powerful European Common Market in return for generous concessions from the Common Market countries to American producers.

The most widely backed plan would replace the current painstaking item-by-item international bargaining with broad, across-the-board cuts in tariff rates. Injured domestic industries and workers would be helped by federal loans and retraining programs instead of by tougher restrictions on foreign goods.

The major difficulty that the freer trade groups face is demonstrating the very real increases in profits and jobs that flow from large exports. It is relatively easy for the protectionists to tell Congress that imported goods are forcing some American manufacturers to cut production and layoff workers.

THE BUSINESS members of the free trade CNTP are offset—often in their own communities—by the business members of protectionist groups.

The AFL-CIO staunchly espouses freer trade but many of its local unions write their congressmen to voice violent objections. The textile, clothing, and electrical workers now are complaining about Japanese competition while the glassworkers are protesting against imports from Europe.

Individual congressmen report that the protectionist pressure from their constituents never has been more intense than it was during the just completed legislative session.

In addition to the textile, clothing, electrical and glass groups they heard from coal, oil, lead and zinc, cement, baseball gloves, carpet, fishing rods, pottery and steel spokesmen.

Wreck Hurts Alliance Man

A 38-year-old Alliance man, who was thrown out of his car along Route 30 east of Lisbon Thursday afternoon just before it hit guardrails and sheared through a utility pole, is in "fair" condition today at Alliance City Hospital.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Robert H. Owens suffered a fractured collarbone, possible rib fractures, laceration of the head, bruises and abrasions of the back, legs and hands and puncture wounds of the right foot and hand.

His car veered off the highway about three miles east of Lisbon yesterday afternoon at 3:30, and went over an embankment onto the roadway of old Route 30, the patrol said.

Owens was thrown out of the car to the old roadway, but the auto careened on through guardrails, through a pole supporting telephone wires and stopped in a field.

Officers said telephone wires were not broken. Owens was taken to Salem City Hospital and later transferred to Alliance.

Firemen To Inspect Grandview School

Plans to inspect the Grandview School as part of a Fire Prevention Week project were made by the Lawrenceville firemen at a meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

The firemen will inspect any homes or business for possible fire hazards if requested, it was announced. A fire drill will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 at the fire station.

Eight members received certificates for completion of the fire school held in May by the Hancock County Firemen's Association. Okey Leaisure, president, was in charge. Next meeting is Oct. 19.

125 At Installation Rites For Officers Of DeMolay

One hundred twenty-five attended an installation ceremony of Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Thursday night in the Masonic Temple.

A slate of new officers headed by Homer (Dale) Hoffman Jr., master councilor, was seated by Carl Bevington, past master councilor of Dillon Crist Chapter of Alliance, and a state senior councilor aide.

The new master councilor was presented a gavel by his father, Homer Hoffman. Jack Geren presented the DeMolay Rose ceremony, a tribute to motherhood.

The interpolation prayer was offered by Steve Neville, chaplain. David Conley, past master councilor, was presented a jewel and a DeMolay Bible.

The newly - installed officers were escorted by officers of Bethel Chapter 61 of Job's Daughters. Mary Alyce Stark is honored queen.

A reception was held in the diningroom following the ceremony. Mrs. Eric Young was in charge for the Mothers' Circle.

Three petitions for membership were received.

Other officers seated include Larry White, senior councilor; Mark Wilson, junior councilor; Roger Hicks, scribe; Ed Carnes, treasurer; David Hoffman, senior deacon; Phil Irwin, junior deacon.

Wellsville Autoist In Crash Due Hearing

A hearing is scheduled Saturday morning for Earl W. Reed, 1900 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, who was cited for reckless operation after a mishap in Wellsville at 8:40 a. m. Thursday.

Police said Reed's car struck the parked pickup truck of Patrolman Denton Kevan, 1504 Clark Ave., at 18th St. and Clark Ave.

Reed was treated at City Hospital for a fracture of the eighth rib on the right side and later released.

The hearing will be held before Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville.

Pittsburgh Driver Fined $25 At Chester

Arthur Goss of Pittsburgh was fined a total of $35 and costs Thursday night by Mayor Ray Collins of Chester on charges stemming from a collision with another auto and backing his car against a pedestrian Sept. 25.

Goss was fined $25 and costs for failure to yield the right-of-way and $10 and costs for failure to have his car under control. His car was struck by another at 1st St. as he made a left turn from a right lane, and a few minutes after the mishap, he backed into a Carolina Ave. woman.

Wellsville VFW Sets Fete Tonight

Plans for a social tonight were outlined by Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9285 at a meeting Wednesday night.

The social will follow the Wellsville football game.

Rex Reich, past county commander, spoke on the necessity for more taxes in the county and how an increase would aid the veterans.

A wrestling show will be held in November at the Beacom Memorial Gymnasium.

Richard Carter was named membership chairman for East Liverpool and Ben Thompson and Ed Parker were named for Wellsville. Sixteen were present.

A barbecue and chicken dinner was served. Some members will attend the 6th District meeting Sunday at Orville. The post will host a 6th District dance in the future.

Chester

Sen. William Tompos of Weirton and House of Delegates member, Miss Callie Tsapis, of Weirton in expediting the processing of the application.

The recent rejection of the application was the third for the community since the city began to seek federal assistance.

The city achieved a total of 38.75 points in the rating system established to set priority for communities seeking federal funds allotted to West Virginia for such projects.

Chester had 15 points for urgency of pollution control (out of a possible 25) having received a third notice from the Ohio River Sanitation Authority.

The city also received 5.75 points out of a possible 15 for effects of present sewage on downstream conditions.

Chester received 12 out of a possible 15 points for progress rating, claiming final plans are approved, cost estimates current and financing arranged.

The Todd firm has conducted a preliminary survey for the system, and tentative financing procedures have been discussed with Todd and a representative of a bonding firm.

Union Seeks Site At Cleveland For Housing Project

A union foundation with which the IBOP is affiliated, has announced it is seeking a four-acre site in Cleveland for construction of a $5 million housing development for retired trade unionists.

E. L. Wheatley, IBOP president, is a member of the Board of Directors of Four Freedoms, which said it is seeking a site in a Cleveland urban area to erect moderate cost rental homes.

The union foundation plans to build a 400-unit 14-story building if it can find a suitable area with ample shopping, transportation and cultural facilities.

The first property acquired by Four Freedoms is the 205-room President Madison Hotel at Miami, Fla. Purchased about six months ago, it was visited in June by delegates to the IBOP's international convention, which was held in Miami.

Ruritan Club To Elect

LISBON — Officers will be elected at a meeting of the Lisbon Ruritan Club Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the First Christian Church. State Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon will summarize the recent 104th assembly.

Firemen Let Building Job

A contract was awarded to the Boyd Lumber Co. for construction of an $8,900 addition to the fire station when the Glenmoor Firemen's Association met Thursday night.

The addition will be erected in the rear of the present station on land owned by the department. Trustees of the department and a building committee are in charge of plans.

In other business conducted by Devine Banks, president, firemen approved plans to organize a "50-Cents-a-Month Club" in which members will contribute for department operations. Joseph Arcuragi is chairman.

It was reported that a hose reel for the No. 3 truck has been welded. Reports from the secretary and treasurer were heard. Twenty attended. Next meeting is Oct. 19.

Court Handles 115 Cases In September

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of 11 more cases in September than were filed, according to a report to the administrative assistant to the Supreme Court, furnished by clerk of courts Carl L. Stacey.

Beginning Sept. 1, the court had 885 cases pending and during the month 104 were filed for a total of 939. The court disposed of 115 with 874 pending as of Oct. 1.

Disposition shows 75 were tried by the court, 12 were cognovit and default judgments and 28 were settled and dismissed.

One traffic point system case was terminated during the month. The 7th District Court of Appeals trimmed two cases, leaving five pending.

what's new at Olsen's?

"Ollie Olsen"
Fashions for the Petite
Cheers for the fashions for the smaller woman and girls. Doll-sized females take note. You can walk into Olsen's, buy a dress or coat, walk right out with it without hem or waist or other once usual alterations. How come? Because of the new sizings—"Junior petites" . . . "Custom size" — there are many different names for it, but it all adds up to one thing . . . Perfect fit for the gals 5 feet 2" and under.
There is nothing like a fur trimmed coat to make a girl "enjoy being a girl." Olsen's have gathered together a wonderful selection of these fur-trim coats for the petite figure—dainty mink collars, raccoon, and fox. Of course they are all removable. If you are 5 feet two or under, you will want to stop in Olsen's tomorrow and see these coats truly for the "petite" figure. No more costly alterations — new abheviated sleeves — cut smaller thru the shoulders — and the lengths are just right. In the smartest of styles and falls best colors, in sizes 5 to 15 and 6 to 16. Why not take advantage of Olsen's convenient lay-away plan. Select your coat now and pick it up at a later date.
Olsen's buyers did not stop with just coats for the "petites" — they have loads of dresses on display for the doll-sized figure. For the juniors who are 5 feet 2 and under, we have colorful wool flannels with dainty self-ruffle at the wrist . . . some with wide collars and cuffs . . . nearly all of them with giant button trim. These dresses are custom sized, scientifically created for you who are small, carefully made to fit and flatter your tiny figure, especially proportioned and designed to save you the trouble and expense of costly alterations. Such beautiful autumn colors, too. Just right for home-coming dances and parties. Remember these dresses can be layed away for as little as 50c just to hold them for a later date.
We found a fashion scoop for the shorter woman — 5 foot 3 and under. One of the best-known woman's dresses in the country is Olsen's exclusively in this district. "Korell" is the name. "Korell" means perfect fit. "Korell" means newest styles. Best of all, "Korell" means they are priced to fit any budget. "Korell" comes in plus sizes (instead of the old half-sizes) 12 plus to 24 plus. If you are one of these women with a figure problem, your problem is gone, if you buy one of the new "Korells," dresses especially designed smaller thru the shoulders, shorter in the waist line, the skirts are made to exact length, your choice of gored or sheath skirts, too. The necklines are made to flatter the shorter woman.
The colors are so exciting this fall. Milady has thrown that old idea of black out the door. Now she wears glamorous colors that her daughter wears, and looks just as lovely. These plus sizes are in all the most wanted fabrics — crepes, matte jersey, wool jersey —and the newest blends. "Korell" designers did not forget style either. These dresses are just as smart on the plus size figure as the sizes 12 are on a smaller woman.
My advice to you—if you have a figure problem—is to stop in at Olsen's dress department and try these wonderful-fitting dresses on. See for yourself. Be satisfied.
Don't forget Olsen's are open every night until 9 for your shopping pleasure. That's all today. See you next Friday.

Burglary

Store personnel were summoned, but they were unable immediately to determine the extent of the loss. The intruder smashed a hole about 4-x-4 feet in a curved piece of plate glass on the south side of the store. Plywood was placed over the opening and the balance of the jewelry was removed from the display window.

Police said a watchman at the D. M. Ogilvie & Co. store heard the crash of breaking glass and discovered the window broken in the store next door.

A window at Shaw's was looted on at least two previous occasions. Capt. Robert B. Pyle nabbed one of the intruders several years ago in an alley about a block away.

The burglary at Shaw's was similar to a case less than two months ago at the James Locke Jewelry on E. 5th St. An intruder smashed a window and took merchandise worth about $900. It was the second such burglary at Locke's.

Dow Finsterwald placed second to Doug Sanders in the 1956 Canadian Open, the 1958 Western Open and the 1959 Coral Gables Open.

19 Arrested To Face Trial

MCCOMB, Miss. (AP) — Nineteen demonstrators arrested for protesting the suspension of two Negro students remained in jail today with no indication bond would be posted.

The 18 Negroes and one white man—part of a group of 119 demonstrators arrested Wednesday afternoon for demonstrating on the steps of City Hall—will go on trial Oct. 23 on disturbing the peace charges. Ten of the group have also been charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The other 100 demonstrators, all juveniles, will go before Youth Court Judge Hansford L. Simmons at a later date.

Thursday the 19 were arraigned before City Judge Robert Brumfield. All pleaded innocent to the charges. Bond was set at $100 on the peace charge violation and $200 for the others.

Negro attorney Jack Young, who represented the 19, said no arrangements had been made for posting bond. All were returned to the Pike County Jail at nearby Magnolia.

Most of the demonstrators were from Burgland Junior and Senior High School, located near a new Negro housing project.

The students had walked out of a school assembly Wednesday because they said officials would not allow Brenda Travis, 16, and Isaac Lewis, 20, to re-enter school immediately.

Police had arrested the two Aug. 30 after a sit-in attempt at the McComb Bus Station. They were released last Saturday after posting $1,000 cash bonds.

Cuyahoga Unit Urges Censure Of Dr. Wolfe

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cuyahoga County Council of the Army and Navy Union passed a resolution Thursday night calling upon Western Reserve University to fire or censure Dr. Rolland E. Wolfe, chairman of the WRU department of religion.

The action resulted from a speech Wolfe made last Sunday at the sixth annual Peace Seminar in Lakewood Methodist Church. He deplored what he called the American people's insane mania of antipathy toward the Russian people, called for recognition of Red China and Cuba by the United States and said this country has been brandishing bombs while Russia is talking peace.

READY FOR LECTURES. Mayor Bert Goodballet buys the first ticket for series of "World Travel And Adventure" travelogues sponsored by the Quota Club. Mrs. Jeannette Carpenter, ways and means chairman, hands him the ticket as Miss Phyllis Crook, president, looks on. The movies with commentaries are scheduled Oct. 17, 24 and 31 and Nov. 7 at Westgate School. Tickets may be purchased from members and at the door. Miss Gladys DeBolt, chairman, said proceeds will go to the Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Masonic Lodge And Chapter To Hear Past Grand Master

Louis B. Henderson of Steubenville, past grand master of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Ohio, and a 33rd Degree Mason, will be the guest speaker at the banquet of the John Washington Masonic Lodge and John Washington Chapter 68, Order of Eastern Star, Sunday at 7 p. m., marking the opening of their new Masonic Hall on Locust St.

He is employed in the metallurgical department of the Weirton Steel Co. and served the Ohio lodge through various grand offices since 1939.

He was grand master in 1953-55 and is now chairman of the Home Board.

He is a member of the Bezaleel Consistory Chapter 15 of Cleveland and LeHassa Temple Chapter 28. He was awarded the 33rd degree in 1952.

He was graduated from Case Institute of Technology and is a member of the Quinn African Methodist Episcopal Church of Steubenville. He is also active in civic and religious affairs.

Richard Carter will be master of ceremonies and Caesar A. Peters, also past master, will introduce the speaker.

Greetings will be given by Eugene Taylor, worthy master, and Mrs. Sarah L. Taylor, worthy matron. Remarks will be given by Dennis Palmer of Steubenville, deputy Ohio grand lecturer. Officers and visitors will be recognized.

Mrs. Gladys Peters Freeman of Youngstown, a former resident of East Liverpool, and Joseph Porter will present solos.

About 150 persons are expected to attend. Guests will be from Youngstown, Steubenville, Bridgeport, Warren and Midland.

Wellsville Club To Help Buy Item

The Wellsville Oni Boosters Club voted Wednesday night to pay half the cost of a new whirlpool for the athletic department. The Athletic Association will pay the other half.

The new equipment will cost $500. Mrs. Margaret Kiggans, secretary, presided in the absence of the president and vice president.

She reported 165 attended the teen-age dance held Saturday night at MacDonald School. Another will be held this Saturday night.

It was reported 100 were served a meal following the Wellsville-Ashland footbal game Friday night. Plans were made to provide refreshments for the team mothers following the New Philadelphia game tonight.

Don Hutchinson and Russell Baughman were named to sell membership tickets at the game.

Next meeting is Oct. 18.

High point in golfer Bob Rosburg's career was his victory in the 1959 PGA championship. He's a former Stanford athlete.

Singer Lu Ann Simms To Marry Salesman

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Singer Lu Ann Simms is going to remarry.

Miss Simms, 30, took out a marriage license Thursday with Casper Stolt, 32, a Rochester liquor salesman.

The couple will be married in New York on Oct. 15 and then move to Los Angeles, she said.

Miss Simms, who gained fame on the Arthur Godfrey show, had been running the music publishing business of her first husband, Loring Buzzell, since his death in 1959. The couple had two children.

Boys Get Terms For Burglary Of Green Ln. Home

Two East Liverpool boys, 12 and 13, were sentenced to the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster Thursday afternoon by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for burglary of an unoccupied Green Ln. home Sunday.

The 13-year-old was paroled from the institution in June, so he will be returned as a parole violator. The judge ordered the two turned over to custody of the County Welfare Department until they are admitted to the institution.

Court records show both boys had been before the judge on several previous occasions. Judge Tobin said yesterday's appearance was "the end of the line" for the two.

The boys were charged with entering a home at 821 Green Ln. owned by Mrs. Thelma Goodley, who now resides in Florida. Police said the house has been placed in the hands of a realtor for sale.

Receiving a tip from a neighbor, police nabbed the two inside the home. The boys told the judge they noticed the grass on the lawn was high, so they knocked on the door to ask if the owner wanted it cut. They said the door opened and they went inside. Then the door locked and they were unable to get out, they said.

Hadassah Film Chairman Will Address City Chapter

Mrs. Hazel Greenwald of New York City will be guest speaker for the donor meeting of the East Liverpool Chapter of Hadassah Monday night at 8:30 o'clock at the B'nai Israel Temple.

She is national film chairman of Hadassah and has been a member of the National Board for more than a quarter of a century. She has been directly responsible for the production of many movies, filmstrips and still photographs for showing to "live and TV" audiences to promote Hadassah and its work throughout the country.

Mrs. Greenwald has traveled all over the world in making the movies, recently returning from Russia with more than 600 pictures.

Her filmstrip, "Sulamith Finds Tommorrow," earned her an "Oscar" from the American Film Assembly in New York. Another movie, "Hannah Means Grace," showing Hadassah's medical work, was one of the few non-commercial films selected for showing at the 1959 Venice and Edinburgh Film Festivals.

This is the 50th anniversary year of Hadassah, the women's Zionist organization of America. The program, founded by Miss Henrietta Szold in 1912, began as a modest attempt to raise the health standards of what was then Palestine. It has become an intricate system of healing, teaching and medical research, child rescue work, vocational education, social welfare and land redemption, sponsors said.

Trinity Women Dedicate Sewing Items Of Projects

Dedication of sewing highlighted the meeting of the Women's Association of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in the social rooms.

Mrs. Leonard Kupchinsky, program chairman, explained where items of the sewing projects were sent and conducted a question-and-answer session. She was assisted by Mrs. John F. Wood, Mrs. Edgar Pittenger, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and Mrs. Wesley Montgomery, who gave closing prayer.

Mrs. J. R. Mackall conducted devotions, reading Scripture from John 15: 12-18 and a poem, "I Love You Much—This Much." Mrs. Harold Dray sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go." The group sang "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" with Mrs. Kupchinsky at the organ.

Prayer for missions was led by Mrs. Emmett Lawrence, who remembered the station at Long Island, N. Y.

Mrs. Leonard Gamble, president, opened business with prayer. The group voted to continue with the contributions for parish work and the regular Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Kenneth Persohn, treasurer, read the financial report and presented the goal sheet, which was discussed at the Executive Board meeting preceding. A motion was passed to accept it.

Suggestions for equipment for the kitchen in the new church were presented by Mrs. Harold Allison who, along with a committee, visited several churches of the area.

Mrs. Donald Baxter, membership chairman, introduced new members, Mrs. John Carpenter, Mrs. James Huston and Mrs. Gene Toot.

A large group plans to attend the fall meeting of District 1 of Steubenville Presbyterial Tuesday at the Glenmoor church.

Dr. Edward Fairman of Pittsburgh will be guest speaker for the annual thank-offering service the morning of Nov. 12.

A buffet lunch was served 40 by members of the Bergman Group with Mrs. Lawrence, chairman. The table was covered with a green cloth and featured fall flowers, leaves and orange tapers. "Happy Birthday" was sung for Mrs. Roxie Marquette.

The next meeting is Dec. 5 at the church. Mrs. Lester Hall is program chairman. Mrs. Lawrence will have devotions. All groups will assist with the social hour.

Rural Groups To Hold Discussion Meetings

LISBON — Plastic containers and floor coverings will be discussed when the Elkrun Township Home Demonstration Group meets Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Elkton Parish Hall, according to Miss Julia Shank, county extension agent in home economics.

Jewelry showing will be presented at the meeting of the Hanover Township group Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the New Garden Methodist Church.

Officers and directors were elected, tribute was paid a local resident for community service and the vital role of the volunteer was emphasized when the East Liverpool Chapter of the American Red Cross held its annual dinner meeting Thursday night in the banquet hall at St. Aloysius Parochial School. There were 110 present.

James Walker, who has been serving as first vice chairman, was elevated to chairman of the chapter's Executive Committee during brief business.

OTHERS NAMED are H. Judson English, first vice chairman; J. Norman Nicely, second vice chairman; Mrs. Lawrence Black, secretary, and John K. Allison, treasurer. Mrs. Black and Allison were re-elected.

Chosen directors for a term ending in 1964 were J. Christ Pallis, Eugene Hall, Mrs. Evelyn Balser, Frank Hancock, Mrs. F. D. Irwin, Mrs. J. Donald Thompson, Mrs. Richard Mayers, Mrs. Neil Shope, Frank Dawson Jr., Alton Weber, Alvin T. Babb, Howard E. Tice, George Mueller, Samuel Brown, Alwyn Purinton Jr. and Allison.

Mrs. Thompson, who has been active in the Red Cross and many other civic organizations over the years, was honored for community service. Following a review of her many endeavors by Miss Nell Robinson, superintendent of City Hospital, Mrs. Thompson was presented a "certificate of appreciation" and a pin "for 20 years of faithful service."

SHE ALSO received a gift from directors of the Child Counseling Center with which she has been associated since its founding. This presentation was by Mrs. Russell Smith, president of the center's directors.

The tribute was included on the program as a "surprise" for Mrs. Thompson.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Gordon Millott of Sandusky, volunteer field consultant for the American Red Cross.

She had words of praise for the efforts of the local chapter, but pointed out that more volunteers are always needed to constantly expand such a program.

SHE URGED all ex-secretaries to "come out of hiding" and help with the chapter's paper work; cited the value of well-organized canteens; asked for more workers in the field of water safety; called for soundly-organized classes to further home nursing, and suggested refresher courses in first aid to keep up with new techniques.

She also lauded the Gray Ladies program.

The speaker declared "there is a place in Red Cross for everyone".

She described Red Cross as an organization encompassing many people and many lands and standing as an "expression of our concern for one another in time of need."

Volunteers were pictured as those "who give service of their own free will" in an unselfish manner.

—:—

MRS. MILLOTT was introduced by Miss Mary Katherine Brady of Steubenville, Red Cross field representative.

Judge Louis Tobin, retiring chapter chairman, presided. Harold Sneddon was chairman of the nominating committee.

The invocation was by the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church and the benediction by Mrs. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army.

Musical selections were presented by "The Stepping Tones" of the Sweet Adelines barbershop singing society. The quartet included Miss JoAnn Vannoy, Mrs. Madalyn Mack, Mrs. Edith Alexander and Mrs. Marjorie Stover.

Granges Hold Joint Service

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I live in Port Elizabeth, South Africa, but since human problems are the same all over the world, I think you can help me.

My husband is an only son. He is devoted to his thrice-divorced mother although she gave him to an aunt for raising.

Before we married I made it clear I did not want to share quarters with her. He agreed, but ask if she might occupy our new flat while we honeymooned. I said, "Fine."

When we returned she was settled in our place and made no mention of leaving. After two months I insisted that WE find another flat because he didn't have the nerve to ask her to leave.

Now my husband wants to start a family but I fear eventually his mother will ask to live with us and he will be too gutless to refuse. I will then be trapped. Perhaps the time to end the marriage is now, when there are no children. — WORRIED.

Dear Worried: If you are seeking an excuse to end your marriage or put off having a family, this is as good as any.

It would be foolish, however, to take such a drastic step in anticipation of a problem which may never materialize. Simply adhere to your position of a separate roof for Mama and adopt a positive approach toward your marriage. It will work — if you want it to.

No More Mistakes

Dear Ann: I'm 18 and expecting a baby in three months. My boy friend refused to marry me although we went steady for two years and we talked about marriage a lot. I was so heartbroken and ashamed I told him I never wanted to see him again. I decided to put my child up for adoption.

Last night his mother came over to talk to me. This is the first I've heard from her since I became expectant, although she has known for quite some time. She offered to pay all medical expenses plus $500 if I would give my baby to her sister-in-law.

Her sister-in-law has been married for 13 years and has no children. She is 42 and having a difficult time getting a baby through an agency.

My head is swimming from all the advice I've had. I've decided to do as you say. — BITTER TEARS.

Dear Bitter Tears: If you sell your baby to this boy's aunt it will be the second biggest mistake of your life.

Haven't you suffered enough? Do you want the additional pain of watching your child grow up under your very nose—probably unable to get near him except on phony pretexts?

Tell the woman NO — then continue with your plan to put the child up for adoption through a licensed agency.

Tone Deaf And Blind

Dear Ann: I can't let you get away with this any longer. You keep telling kids they should take music lessons even if they hate it "because it's good for you." Don't you know this only makes kids hate it more?

I'm a grown man now but I have vivid memories of the agonies I suffered practicing the trombone. I was tone deaf and had no sense of rhythm. The neighbors upstairs used to knock on our floor with a hammer. The neighbors downstairs pounded their ceiling with a broom handle.

We had fights every day. I can still hear my mother yelling, "Practice' Lessons cost money!"

I have three children and when we want music in our house we turn on the radio or spin a few records. Peace, it's wonderful! — POP.

Dear Pop: Yes — and who makes the music? Probably musicians who hated to practice when they were young.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

2 City Men Face Judge

Two city area men and two from Wellsville were among eight district motorists penalized at hearings Thursday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine.

Lawrence Sullivan of Maine Blvd. was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center at the crest of a hill, and Howard Bomberger of R. D. 2 was fined $10 and costs for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Donald J. Coran, 524 Broadway, Wellsville, and Charles E. Clark, 1906 Nevada St., Wellsville, each forfeited $15 bonds for speeding.

Carl White of East Palestine R. D. 2 was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Robert Kiddey of New Waterford was fined $50—with $35 suspended—for permitting an unlicensed minor to operate a vehicle.

James A. Quetot of Rogers was fined $5 and costs for lack of turn signals.

Judge Arfman reported court collections in September totaled $3,456. He heard 97 criminal cases and 30 civil cases.

Brakeman Killed In Weird Mishap

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A huge concrete culvert bounced off a flatbed truck when it was hit by a freight train Thursday. The culvert, eight feet in diameter and weighing about 10 tons, slammed into the diesel engine and crushed to death a brakeman who was standing on the front platform.

The unusual accident in suburban Kettering killed Wendell J. Smith, 53, of Xenia.

The truck driver, James A. McGinnis of Orient, Pickaway County, was not hurt. Kettering police were holding him for investigation of manslaughter.

The crossing where it happened is not protected by flasher signals.

Another fatality involving a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train occurred earlier Thursday in Dayton. An unidentified woman was struck by the train as she appeared to be crawling toward the tracks, according to the engineer, Earl F. Williams, 65, of Columbus.

Judge Reverses Trip's Direction For Winter Visit

Raymond (Sarge) Franklin, facing Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff Thursday for the umpteenth time on an intoxication charge, said he thought it was about time he headed south for the winter, but the judge had other ideas.

"You're going north — north to the County Jail in Lisbon," he told Franklin. Judge Chertoff imposed a fine of $100 and $7.50 costs, which will keep Franklin behind bars for close to six weeks.

Franklin protested that he entered city jail as a "sleeper" Wednesday night, but when he asked to leave the following morning he was told an intoxication charge had been placed against him.

Paraphrasing a famous book's title, the judge told Franklin: "Somebody down there doesn't like you."

Fire Prevention Date Proclaimed

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet issued a proclamation today setting aside next week as Fire Prevention Week in East Liverpool.

The mayor's proclamation called on all departments of city government "to co-operate actively in a campaign for improved fire safety." It also asked every citizen "to take part in eliminating harardous conditions and making our city a safer community."

The local observance is part of a nationwide program. The East Liverpool program is sponsored by the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with area members of the Fire Insurance Underwriters' Association and Local 24, International Association of Fire-Fighters.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Austin Meehan, 64, for many years a power in Republican politics in Philadelphia, died Thursday, apparently of a heart attack.

K. Of C. Council Plans Activities

Future events were discussed at the meeting of Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening in the K. of C. Hall.

A fish fry will be held Oct. 20, first degree ceremony Oct. 24, district K. of C. Communion at Lisbon Nov. 12, and the district second degree exercise at the local council Nov. 21.

Ralph McNicol is chairman of the fish fry to be held from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from members.

Ralph Yanni, financial secretary, reported that the council has been placed on the national membership insurance honor roll. Yanni said tickets for the Pitt-Notre Dame football game Nov. 11 will be available.

Fr. Anthony Esposito, retiring chaplain, gave a brief talk. He will leave Friday to assume his new duties at Girard.

Following the Canton Central-Potter football game Friday night, a party will be held at the council rooms for members and their guests. The next meeting is Tuesday evening.

Costume Parade Scheduled In Chester Halloween Fete

A costume parade headed by the Chester High School band and a street dance will highlight a Halloween celebration in Chester Oct. 31.

Chester firemen Thursday night furthered plans for the community event.

The parade will form at 7:30 at the high school, and move to 4th St. where Ruth Hissam's orchestra of East Liverpool will provide music for a street dance.

Costume prizes will be awarded, and treats will be furnished for youngsters.

In observance of national Fire Prevention Week, firemen will inspect schools, industries and business places starting Monday.

Blaine Dotson and Richard Shingler were accepted as regular members after serving one-year probation. The group accepted the resignation of Harley Freeman who has moved to Newell after 13 years service with the department.

Melvin Hissom and Paul Doughty were enrolled for a one-year probation period. Lunch was served 17 by Jerrold Wilson and his committee.

Fire Chief William Glover presided. Next meeting is Nov. 2.

Hammondsville Family Returns

Mrs. Wayne Householder and children, Wanita and Calvin, of Pine Grove near Hammondsville have returned from a motor trip in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ferry and family have moved from Wellsville to Cambridge. They are former local residents.

The young girls' class of the Methodist Church Sunday School realized $45 from a recent bake sale, Mrs. Fred Davidson, teacher, reported.

Mrs. Stanley Cooper is a patient in St. John's Hospital in Steubenville.

Mrs. Hazel Griffith Williamson has returned after visiting her husband, Pfc. William B. Williamson, of Ft. Sill, Okla.

Mrs. John Boyle is recovering at home after recent eye surgery in the Cleveland Clinic.

Kenneth Burgett is recovering after a recent illness at his home on Chestnut Grove.

Stage Set Designer Hurt In 20-Foot Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—Peter Wexler, designer who arranged the sets for the Shakespeare production at the White House Wednesday night, was injured Thursday in a 20-foot fall onto the stage of Radio City Music Hall.

Wexler, 24, suffered a concussion, fractured rib and cuts and bruises. At Roosevelt Hospital, his condition was described as fair.

Humorist Is Resting After Brain Surgery

NEW YORK (AP) — Humorist James Thurber rested comfortably Thursday night at Doctors Hospital after undergoing surgery for removal of a blood clot on his brain.

Although Thurber had a steady pulse and normal blood pressure, the hospital continued to list his condition as critical.

Music Parents Plan Drive For Members

Plans for a membership drive were aired at a meeting of the Beaver Local Music Parents Association Wednesday night at the high school.

The membership committee will meet Oct. 18 at 7:30 (EST) at the high school to map further arrangements for the drive to be launched later this month.

Mrs. Norman Ankrim and Mrs. B. L. Porter are in charge. Mrs. Paul Dailey, president, conducted business. About 25 attended. Next meeting is Nov. 1.

Carl Allison To Head ASC

C. C. Herron, elderly Pughtown farmer, has lost his first "election" in 25 years.

Herron was unseated as chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Committee today after heading the group for a quarter-century.

He lost to Carl Allison of Gas Valley Rd., Pughtown, 66 votes to 61. Herron, however, was given enough votes to be elected vice chairman of the committee.

Ballots mailed by county farmers were counted this morning by Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager.

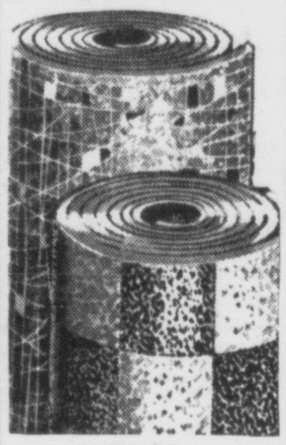

Shields Mayhew of Pughtown was returned as regular committee member with 60 votes.

Elected as new alternate members are Plummer Smith of Pughtown and Leslie Cuppy of Tope Hill Rd., New Cumberland. They succeed Harry Nichol and Donald Allison. Officers will assume duties Nov. 1.

Retiring members of the committee met today. A regular meeting of newly-elected committee members will be held Nov. 15.

Pennsylvania Potters Await NLRB Election

An NLRB-supervised election is scheduled Oct. 25 at the Phalsgraf Pottery Co., a York (Pa.) earthenware firm, in which employes will ballot on a bargaining agent, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

The union said two of its international representatives canvassed the plant's employes and secured sufficient signatures to call for an election on naming a bargaining agent. The IBOP then filed a petition with the NLRB and the date was set.

Meanwhile, the international union said it has been informed that Local 308 has called off a strike against Slidell Brick & Tile, Inc., at Slidell, La., which had been under way since May 15. The local walked out when contract negotiations reached a stalemate, the union said. Announcement of termination of the strike was received here Thursday, but further details are lacking, the IBOP said.

Unfair Labor Charge Slated To Be Filed

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — An unfair labor practices charge will be filed today or Monday with the National Labor Relations Board office in Cincinnati against the Master Electric Division here, says a union official.

The firm, a division of Reliance Electric Co. of Cleveland, plans to move its Dayton operations to Madison and Columbus, Ind., next month, leaving its 1,100 workers without jobs. Leo Palewicz, president of Local 2154, International Association of Machinists, which represents the workers, said that will be the basis for the unfair labor practices charge.

According to Palewicz, recent NLRB rulings indicate that a company under contract with a union "does not have an unlimited right to run away."

Old Movies Threaten TV Program Idealism

Funny thing happened at NBC the other Saturday afternoon. The network received a phone call from a woman who inquired: "What time does the double feature start?"

Marie Torre

A trenchant reminder of our movie-going days, the question holds special significance for those who follow trends in TV. Will the heavy reliance on old feature films turn the television medium into a projector for movies?

Thinking men of television have taken to pondering this dire prospect as they examine the varied and numerous uses television makes of Hollywood features, from silents to talkies.

They abbreviate and rewrite old movies and call them TV adaptations. They turn old movies into weekly series. They use old movies for morning viewing, and afternoon viewing, late night and late, late night viewing.

AND NOW they're showing vintage celluloid in the prime time hours.

After many years of rating futility opposite the CBS Western Goliaths ("Have Gun, Will Travel" and "Gunsmoke" NBC launched this season the two-hour "Saturday Night at the Movies," utilizing films never seen on TV before (followed locally by another movie — which is what prompted the aforementioned "double feature" inquiry).

The opening presentation, "How To Marry a Millionaire," with Marilyn Monroe, achieved the desired effect, but the people least happy about that are apperceptive citizens of TV who fear that the experiment, should it prove successful in the long run, will encourage — nay, force— the other networks to follow suit, and thus, discourage programming made specifically for TV.

AT CBS they admit no surrender to movies in prime time, but they are watching the "Saturday Night at the Movies" results with more than a passing interest.

"We do not believe," said a CBS man who requested anonymity, "that putting old feature films in prime time is a network function. It may be all right for local marginal time, where there are economic problems.

"And it also is all right to put on an occasional film classic, such as 'The Wizard of Oz,' but movies in prime time on a regular basis defeat the purpose of TV programming."

While network men await the results of the NBC venture, the word at CBS is "let's not panic" should early returns prove unwelcome to the long-reigning Westerns.

The corporate feeling is that NBC had to buy B-movies along with the A's, and that NBC obviously is showing the best of its film package in the early weeks of "Saturday Night at the Movies."

-:-

OTHER INDUSTRY men support this theory, their attitude being that NBC will at some point run out of Marilyn Monroe, Ava Gardner or Gregory Peck movies, and then what?

An ABC man speculated that there aren't enough top-drawer post-1948 movies available for wholesale use of Hollywood pictures—on NBC or anywhere else. Additionally, movie producers are not turning out films on a scale to accommodate an increased television demand.

Where motion picture producers once made 50 films for $50 million, they're now producing 30 or 35 movies for the same $50 million or more.

But the major concern of many industry men is the fear that old-movies-in-prime-time will become a common practice, putting the TV medium at the mercy of the motion picture industry.

If it becomes so easy to defeat the competition, ask TV men, what will become of that urge to create so necessary to the future of television?

-:-

"CAPT. KANGAROO," TV's most honored children's program, will be expanded to an hour this week. Asked to explain the CBS program's success, creator-performer Bob Keeshan said: "We talk the same language the children do. We meet them in a never-never land where they find reality. We give them fantasy and we give them education—learning about things in the world they are growing up in," . . .

James (Gunsmoke) Arness will leave the guns at home when he appears as host of "The Chevrolet Golden Anniversary Show," an hour-long salute to the auto company on the occasion of its 50th year in American industry. Nov. 3 is the date.

Top IBOP Officers Plan Fall Conference

The 12 - member Executive Board of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters will open its fall conference Tuesday, Oct. 17, in Chicago.

The session, expected to last three days, will be held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel. The IBOP said the board will study "matters of a specific nature" and also "take up pending legal matters and appeals and complete unfinished business."

The Executive Board is comprised of international officers and is headed by E. L. Wheatley, president. The IBOP members also may attend meetings of the National Safety Council, which will meet concurrently at the same hotel.

Court Income Cut Again As Fines Decline

Municipal Court revenue totaled $3,330 in September, off $233 from August's $3,563, it was shown today in the monthly report of Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The court turned over $2,892 to the city treasury, a decline of $389 from the $3,281 paid the city in August.

For the second consecutive month, a drop in criminal receipts accounted for the decline in the court's overall revenue. The criminal receipts produced $2,164 last month, down $378 from the $2,542 shown in August. The August criminal receipts were off $658 from July's $3,200.

The city's share of the receipts included the $2,164 in fines, costs and forfeitures from criminal cases and $727 from costs in civil cases.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $125 to the state treasury from state cases, $211 to the county treasury, also from states cases, and $102 to the Law Library Association.

The overall amount handled by the court last month gained by $2,628. It was $13,199 in September — $6,894 in the civil branch and $6,305 in the criminal branch —compared with $10,571 in August.

McNamara Warns Military Speakers At Seminar Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has decreed that military speakers at private seminars must stick to military subjects, avoid partisan expressions and must not challenge established policy.

McNamara drew these and other boundaries Thursday for military participation in seminars and other information programs sponsored by nongovernmental groups.

He left with local commanders the responsibility for determining whether military personnel, equipment and facilities should be allowed to take part in such activities.

But he specified that no military organization may sponsor or co-sponsor such programs unless he or a service secretary expressly approves.

Pentagon sources said the rules, filling out what have been general policies, are intended to dispel any doubts or confusion in the minds of local commanders.

McNamara circulated the memorandum at the top level of the Pentagon as a Senate subcommittee was preparing to open an inquiry, perhaps next month, into Defense Department policies in this field.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., has argued that the Pentagon has been stopping officers from espousing anti-Communist views in speeches and lectures.

Other senators have complained that some military officers have been involved in seminars leaning toward the far right.

Sharon Finley Heads Future Nurse Group

Sharon Finley was elected president of the Future Nurses of America of Chester High School at a meeting Thursday.

Others named were Susan Wilson, vice president; Linda Carpenter, secretary; Shirley Kennye, treasurer, and Charmil Pugh, reporter.

The program committee includes Linda Carpenter, Bonnie Graham, Carol Tuttle and Karen Greenlee. The group meets every Thursday noon, and plans monthly evening meetings.

Youth, 16, Killed As Car Flips Over

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—Kenneth S. Watson, 16, of Xenia died early today in a single car crash on Ohio 380 four miles south of here.

The Xenia post of the Ohio Highway Patrol said Watson, traveling alone, lost control of the car and that it crashed into a bridge and flipped over several times.

Get Your Gas Furnace Ready For Winter NOW!

Now—while the weather is mild—is the time to make sure your Gas furnace is in tip-top working order. By calling your heating contractor or dealer early, you avoid the rush for service when cold weather strikes . . . assure your family they'll have heat when they need it.

And, you protect your furnace. Like anything mechanical, your Gas heating equipment will last longer and give better service if you give it proper care. Periodic check-ups insure continuous, efficient, economical operation of your Gas heating plant.

Make arrangements now to have your heating dealer clean your furnace . . . check burners and pilot light . . . inspect vents and flues for stoppages . . . replace clogged, dirty filters if you have a forced-air system. The cost for these important services is low, and you'll be glad later that you acted early to put your furnace in shape for better service all winter long.

Now is the time, too, to join our Budget Heating Plan. Ask about this helpful plan which lets you spread your winter heating bills evenly over 10 months, starting in October.

But Auditor Cites Hazard

Annexation Seen Answer To City's Population Loss

Extending the city limits is one way of solving the population and tax losses caused by postwar population shifts to the suburbs, but there's no guarantee it would be wise for the municipality from an economic standpoint, City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate said today in a review of fiscal problems and policies.

Sometimes the new obligations a city assumes by annexation are far greater than the increase in income resulting from additions to the tax duplicate, Applegate commented.

"Many cities have delayed annexation moves too long, with the result that extensive subdivisions have been developed with inadequate water supplies, poor streets, little or no storm drainage and no central sanitary facilities," he said.

"Sometimes the additional costs of annexation exceed the revenues the city will receive from the new area for many years," he commented. "If annexation is too costly, the city must turn to its run-down neighborhoods in order to avoid continued deterioration of the economic base that has supported it in the past," he added.

"Any city that does not enlarge its boundaries or rehabilitate its present buildings is sure to suffer financial difficulties."

Applegate pointed to the nationwide "tendency of people to move out of old - fashioned houses and crowded districts into new homes in the suburbs."

The migration has left older residential sections "stricken with blight," with a consequent drop in real estate values and a cut in the city's financial resources, he said.

Applegate declared that the first concern of the city government and the citizens should be "maintenance of a healthy business climate" here.

"A city that has a bad lighting system, rough streets, run-down properties and a lack of civic pride never will attract new industries," he said. "We are losing customers in our local stores because of limited parking facilities, yet there are those who condemn Council when it strives to provide those facilities on a self-liquidating basis."

Applegate pointed out that revenue bonds will be issued to finance purchase of the Ceramic Theater and convert the property to off-street parking. In a revenue bond issue, the money received from the facility pays the principal and interest and there is no additional direct cost to the public, he pointed out.

Turning to the wages and salaries paid city officials and employes, Applegate declared they cannot be compared with the payrolls of private industry because the limits are set by the city's ability to pay.

"City officials realize that employes under their jurisdiction are underpaid in most instances and would like to do something about the situation," Applegate said. "But operating funds are not available to boost salaries or wages. If the public is not willing to pay for certain services, then it has no right to expect them."

Bethesda Church Will Give Dinner

Plans for a public chicken and ham dinner Oct. 25 at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church at Millport were made at a committee meeting Tuesday with Faye Grubbs.

Others on the committee are Harvey Grubbs, chairman, Mildred Walker, Irma Thompson, Ruth Phillips, Laura Stewart and Della Treffinger.

The Senior Youth Fellowship of the church will meet Sunday night at 8 at the church with Mrs. Judy Burrows as leader.

Mrs. Jennie Bettis and Mrs. Hazel Hart of Salineville visited Mrs. Francis Burns Tuesday.

Miss Donna Crawford, student at Youngstown University, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford, over the weekend.

Georgetown WSCS Meets

The WSCS of the Bethel Methodist Church plans to sell Christmas cards, candy and sponsor a rummage sale in Weirton, Dec. 14-16, according to plans made at a joint meeting with the Quilters Circle of the society Tuesday in the church near Georgetown.

The topic was "Decisions by Bible Women."

Speakers were Mrs. Charles Fazikas, president, Mrs. Ronald McAfee, Mrs. Helen Tingler and Mrs. Reason Mayhew. Mrs. Fred Stroud led devotions.

Mrs. Bruce Hobbs spoke on "Great Decisions by Bible Women." Decorations on the church altar table were sweet peas, lilies-of-the-valley and a Bible on red velvet.

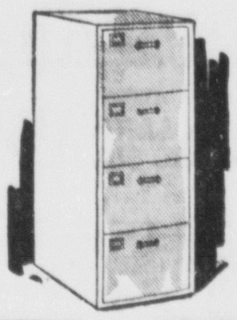

Mrs. Mayhew sang, accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Bish. Bible verses beginning with the letter "B" were used to answer roll call.

Mrs. John McConnell gave the closing prayer. Next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the church. The willing Workers' Circle will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Gates.

Mrs. Lloyd Beal is president of the Willing Workers Circle and Mrs. L. B. Hobbs the Quilters Circle.

Series Moves To Cincy All Even After Yanks Fall, 6-2

Clutch Pitching By Jay, NY Errors Help Reds

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— The World Series flares anew Saturday after a change of scenery and certainly a chance of prospects for the lightly-regarded Cincinnati Reds in their postseason championship duel with the New York Yankees.

The Reds, seemingly well outclassed in losing Wednesday's opener, came back to life in New York Thursday with a 6-2 decision that proved the Yankees mighty human after all.

But while the Yankees were playing Alphonse and Gaston with themselves as the two-game New York phase of the series concluded, the Reds uncorked the same type of performance that confounded the experts while they ran off with the National League pennant.

Strapping Joey Jay was the pitcher against the Yanks his regular season 21-10 record stamped him to be. But additionally, Cincinnati's cast of unknowns produced a couple of sideshow whizzes in Venezuelan second baseman Elio Chacon and reserve catcher John Edwards.

When the series third game is played at Crosley Field Saturday (2 p.m. Eastern Standard Time), the Yankees will find themselves hammered down to 2 to 1 favorites from a 4½-1 choice prior to the loose frolic Thursday before 63,083 in Yankee Stadium.

As for the third game—in which Cincinnati's knuckleballer, Bob Purkey (16-12) faces New York's Bill Stafford (14-9)—the Yankees are a 7-5 pick to triumph in the cozy confines of Crosley Park. The forecast for Saturday is fair and pleasant.

In the three games that now must be played in Cincinnati in the best-of-7 series, the Yankees are expected to be bolstered by return of ailing Mickey Mantle, who sat out—very gingerly—the two New York games because of an infected hip.

Certainly Mantle's long-ball hitting is needed to offset a terrific swoon thus far by Roger Maris, the man who set an all-time season home run record with 61.

Maris, still hitless in seven series official at-bats, has struck out three times, twice being whiffed Thursday by the 6-4, 225-pound Jay. Roger hasn't hit a ball out of the infield in the series.

Although he allowed only four hits, Jay kept walking himself into and pitching himself out of trouble, no small thanks to the 5-9, 163-pound Chacon from Caracas, Venezuela.

Chacon, substituting for regular Don Blasingame, who had a jammed finger, started two crackling double plays, a department in which Cincinnati supposedly is hurting.

But Chacon's big feat was an explosive bit of base-running on a short passed ball for an unearned but decisive tally in the fifth off Yankee loser Ralph Terry which put the Reds ahead 3-2.

Although the Yankees committed three other errors, the big miscue was when Terry pitched a slider which eluded catcher Elston Howard in the fifth with Vada Pinson at bat and Chacon on third and Eddie Kasko on first.

The ball rolled only about 10 feet from the plate and was quickly retrieved by Howard. Chacon set sail from the plate "on his own" but neither Howard nor Terry was aware the flying Chacon was in full flight until it was too late. Terry hung back instead of covering the plate, and Howard first looked to see if Kasko was heading for second before making a futile dive at Chacon racing home.

As events turned out, that was the ball game, but the 6-4, 220-pound Edwards, catching in place of ailing Darrell Johnson, still was to taste some World Series glory.

Right-hander Terry, after spinning across two strikes for an 0-2 count, let a fat pitch fly and Edwards singled into right field, scoring Post for a 4-2 Cincinnati lead.

Again, in a weird eighth inning, Freese was walked intentionally and Edwards uncorked a bloop double which scored the sixth and final Red run.

The Redleg eighth, in which lefty Luis Arroyo proved anything except the ace reliever he is supposed to be, found veteran Yogi Berra flitting from a hero to goat role.

Berra, who slammed a two-run homer in the fourth to gain New York a 2-2 tie, let Post's drive whistle between his legs for a three-base error, setting up the second Red run of the inning. Berra seemed to have the ball caught for the third out, but it sank rapidly and streaked past him to the wall.

But Berra's two hits hoisted his record series total to 70 in 70 series games and his other continuing marks for the post-season classic now include 38 RBI's, 40 runs scored and 116 total bases.

Although Houk said he was uncertain over his Sunday pitcher, it most likely will be Whitey Ford, who pitched a two-hit 2-0 opening victory Wednesday and can break Babe Ruth's pitching record of 29 2-3 scoreless innings. Ford has pitched 27 runless innings—three successive shutouts, including two against Pittsburgh last year.

What Would Games Be Like? . . .

These are only opinions of "the man on the street," but collectively they spell out the same thing. The question which arose among Potter followers was on the subject of East Liverpool and Beaver Local getting together in football.

Will the series be a good one from the standpoint of the outcome of each game?

Several fans pointed to the score of Monday's reserve game which showed the Potter jayvees walking away with a 50-0 victory over the Beaver Local reserves.

Now these are the boys who will be playing varsity football in the future. If this is an indication of what would occur in the next few years, then a Potter-Beaver Local series would not be advisable.

Looking over the enrollment of boys in each school, East Liverpool more than doubles the male enrollment of Beaver Local.

In the four upper grades Beaver Local shows a little over 200 boys while East Liverpool, in only its three upper grades, at last count, had 514.

The schedules played by each school don't match either. We feel that week after week East Liverpool plays a much stronger schedule. This season the Potter eleven hasn't done so well with a young team, losing by lopsided scores to Niles and Steubenville Central.

We doubt if Beaver Local could remain undefeated very long playing East Liverpool's schedule. They just don't have the enrollment and manpower to compete with the larger schools, year in and year out.

A Potter-Beaver Local series might be a fine backyard rivalry. Maybe the only way to find out is to try it, but that is up to the officials and coaches from both schools.

Thayer Signs With Browns . . .

APPARENTLY looking for more strength at quarterback for next season, the Cleveland Browns have signed as a candidate in New Cumberland's Jack Thayer, who has completed a three-year stint with the Army.

Thayer, an All-West Virginia selection in 1956, inked a contract in Cleveland on Sunday for a try-out at quarterback when the Browns report to Hiram College for pre-season drills next July.

Although there was no announcement on terms, Thayer is believed to have signed for a substantial sum.

Thayer graduated from New Cumberland High School in 1956 after starring at quarterback under Coach Charlie Miller. He entered West Virginia University soon after with Larry Foltz of Newell and East Liverpool's Jim Potts.

After the freshman football season was over, Thayer dropped out of WVU and enrolled the next year at Dayton University. He enlisted for Army duty following the grid season and played quarterback at Fort Knox and in Texas.

The Army life apparently agreed with Thayer, as he increased in stature to 224-pounds, and 6-3½ inches. Coach Paul Brown indicated he was well-pleased with Thayer's size last weekend in Cleveland and commented he wished Thayer would have been discharged from the service a little earlier.

The Browns have informed Thayer that he "definitely has a good chance of making the squad."

However, if he makes the Browns' roster, getting a starting job with the professional squad would be another matter. The Browns are three deep at quarterback this season, with Milt Plum (6-2, 205), Len Dawson (6-1, 190) and John Roach (6-4, 200).

Thayer is married and has three sons. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thayer of Chester St., New Cumberland.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

WE ENJOYED one of our most successful weekends of "crystal ball" football picks with 12 out of 13 correct. The only miss came when Crestview (New Waterford) won its first game of the season over North Lima.

Here's the way we see them this time: Canton Central 30, East Liverpool 6; Wellsville 20, New Philly 12; Midland 12, Monaca 6; Warwood 32, Chester 6; South Side 19, Newell 0; East Palestine 26, Lisbon 12; Minerva 32, Leetonia 13; Columbiana 24, Canfield 12 and Salem 12, Marietta 6.

Saturday, in that big one at Hanoverton between the undefeated of Columbiana County, we like Beaver Local by a 14-6 margin over United. In others, Stanton Local to remain undefeated 32-6 over Salineville; New Cumberland 14, Follansbee St. Anthony 9 and McDonald 22, Crestview 12.

THURM ALLEN of East Liverpool, a brother of Bernie the ex-Purdue quarterback, is a sophomore end at Purdue. Although Thurm stands 6-foot-2 and weighs 190 pounds, he is the smallest end candidate on the Boilermaker squad.

—:—

ANOTHER area gridder starring at Purdue is Weirton's Tom Bloom, who averaged seven yards per carry in a 13-6 opening win over Washington last week.

—:—

NICK MUSURACA, ELHS class of 1958, is the third ranking ground gainer in the Ohio Conference.

The Denison University fullback, in his third season as a regular, has gained 196 yards in 44 carries for an average of 4.5 in the first two games.

Musuraca also ranks seventh in total offense in the conference, and all his 44 carries this season hasn't lost yardage.

WE WISH Fr. Anthony Esposito, who was the assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, the best of luck in his new assignment at Girard.

He has many friends here and was a big hit with the youth of his church. Fr. Esposito will be greatly missed at the East Liverpool football games where he formed a "cheering section" for the Potters. You always knew the "cheering section" was around by the sound of a bugle blowing the old University of Southern California "C-H-A-R-G-E."

—:—

CRAIG BURBICK, who lettered in three sports at East Liverpool, is the No. 2 man on the Navy varsity golf team. Burbick, who was a top golfer in high school, is competing this weekend at Penn State University in the Eastern Collegiate sectional qualifier.

The top 10 golfers and the first four teams which qualify at Penn State will advance to the Eastern Collegiate tournament next weekend.

IT'S ON to Cincinnati for yours truly, who will get to see what the Yankees and Reds look like in person, after watching them on the magic screen for the last two days.

The odds have shifted now, but Cincy pitching will have to be particularly careful in the small confines of Crosley Field. Don't count the Reds out of it.

Ham Shoot Slated

The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will hold another ham shoot Sunday at 1:30 at the club's range located on the Lisbon-Elkton Rd. Trap shooting is also on the schedule for the hunters of the area to sharpen up their eye for the coming hunting season.

Canton Is Heavy Favorite Here

TOM BECHERER
Will Quarterback Crusaders.

Baker Will Start At QB

Sophomore passing star Chuck Baker is scheduled to get the call at quarterback tonight when the underdog East Liverpool Potters take on the husky Canton Central Crusaders at Patterson Field. Kickoff is set for 7:45 p. m.

Baker has recovered from a leg injury and his appearance will be the first since the Steubenville Central game two weeks ago. He sat out the New Philadelphia game last Friday night with a pulled leg muscle.

The sophomore passer is responsible for the only touchdown scored by East Liverpool's offensive forces in three games. He completed three for over 100 yards against Steubenville and pitched a TD pass after setting up the tally through his aerials.

Coach Bob Hedmond indicated he would go to the air tonight with Baker in the lineup. However, the hard-charging defensive line of Canton Central, which will average over 200 pounds, may put the "blitz" on any Potter aerial attempt.

That was the case a year ago when East Liverpool suffered a 22-0 defeat at the hands of the Crusaders. Kenny Cunningham was quarterback then for the Potters and was rated one of the best passers in the state. But he couldn't combat with the big Canton lineman which put the rush on him.

Vince McKinnon, a 150 - pound senior, started at quarterback last week but suffered a bad ankle sprain in the final minutes of the game. He responded to treatment faster than expected and may be ready to see some action tonight.

Another change in the Potter backfield shows Allen Douglas, a senior letterman, moving back to his right halfback spot in place of sophomore Bob Mercer.

However, Hedmond indicated Mercer and senior Gene Wolfe would be used quite a bit.

Jerry Bell, the most spirited runner in the Potter backfield, goes to fullback while "old reliable" Tom "the foot" Kraft will be at left halfback.

Kraft does the punting for the Potters and turned in a fine job against New Philly in several desperate situations.

Scotty Musuraca will replace injured Jim Wilson at right guard. Wilson is sidelined with a knee injury.

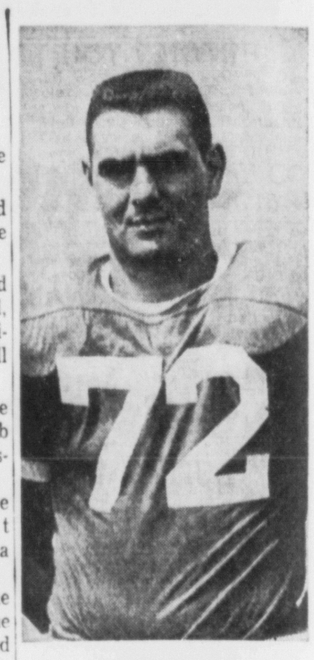

Jim Richardson will be at one end, with Bud McElhaney on the other side. Jeff Hayes, who turned in a good job last week, will be at one tackle, along with captain Jim Ferello.

Bob Parsons will man the other guard spot with Ron Kennedy handling the duties at center.

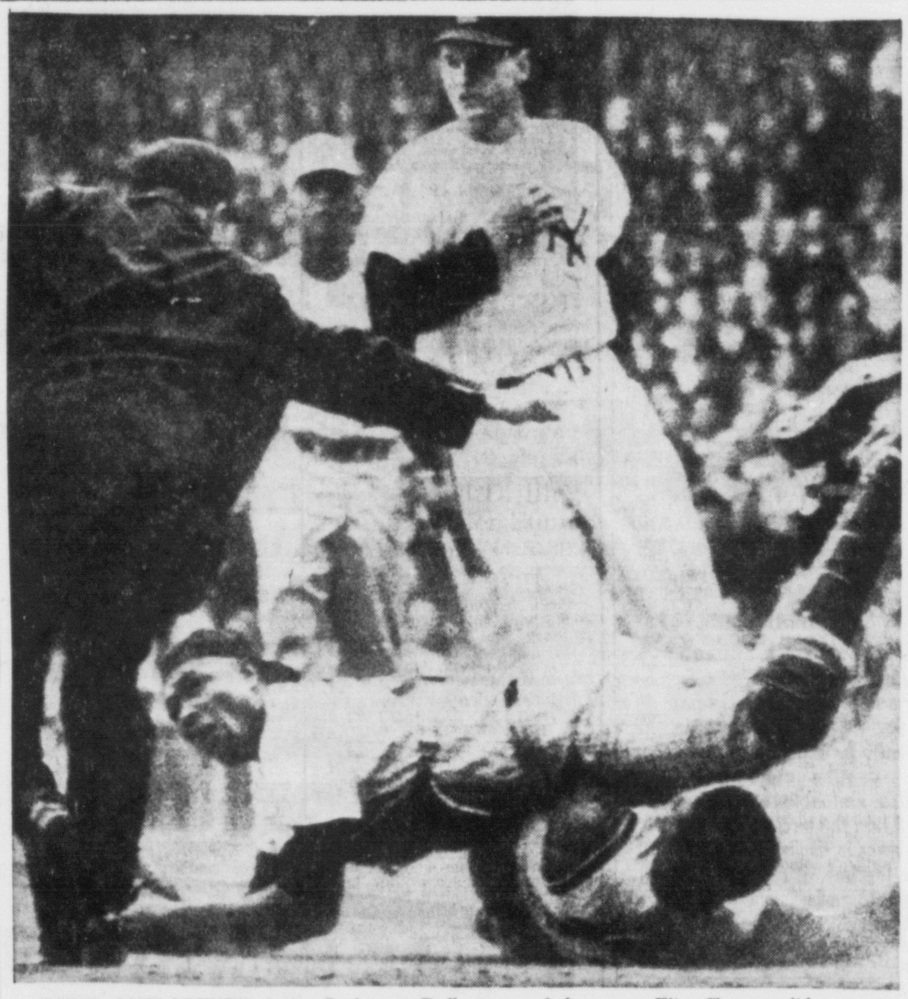

Coach John McVay's Central eleven brings a 3-1 record here and is fresh from defeating Jackson Memorial, 16-0, last Saturday night.

With a big line in front of them to open up huge holes in the opponent's defenses, Central shows a balanced backfield when it comes to yardage gained.

Canton will stick primarily to the ground with quarterback Tom Becherer the team's leading gainer.

'SAFE', SAYS UMPIRE Jocko Conlan as Redleg second baseman Elio Chacon slides across home plate on a daring run in the fifth inning of Thursday's World Series game in New York. Should Terry Have Covered Home?

'Didn't See Chacon Right Away,' Yanks' Howard Says

NEW YORK (AP) — What if Ralph Terry had come in fast to cover the plate in the confusing play in the second World Series game on which Elio Chacon scored the run that put Cincinnati ahead of the New York Yankees 3-2.

"I doubt if it would have made any difference," said Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees.

As it was the Reds went on to get three more runs on some rather improbable Yankee baseball, and Joey Jay, the ace of the Cincinnati pitching staff, tamed the Yankee hitters in masterful style. The final score was 6-2, and the series stood even today at one game each.

It happened with two out in the fifth and the score 2-2. Chacon singled to center on a ball Roger Maris was late going after, and went to third on Eddie Kasko's single.

Then Elston Howard, Yankee catcher, let one of Ralph Terry's sliders get away from him for a passed ball.

He jumped back to retrieve it and looked to second, expecting Kasko to break. Meanwhile, Chacon was racing—unnoticed — toward home.

"I didn't see him right away," said Howard. "When Kasko broke I expected to throw to second, but then I caught Chacon out of the corner of my eye he was starting to slide, so I dove on top of him. It was a close decision."

Cincinnati opened the scoring in the fourth after Frank Robinson was safe on Cletis Boyer's error. Gordon Coleman belted a 400-foot home run into the right field bleachers to make it 2-0.

The Yankees came back in the bottom of the inning on Yogi Berra's 12th home run in series play, scoring Roger Maris who had walked.

Following Chacon's key run in the fifth, the Redlegs added another in the sixth when with two out Wally Post doubled, Gene Freese was intentionally passed, and catcher John Edwards crashed a single that scored Post. Jay grounded out, ending the inning.

The final two Cincinnati runs came in the eighth.

Jim Piersall Not Surprised By His Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Piersall, not at all surprised by his trade, will play center field for the Washington Senators next season—with pleasure.

"I wasn't at all surprised by the trade," said Piersall after it was announced just before the second World Series game that he had been sent to Washington by the Cleveland Indians in exchange for pitcher Dick Donovan, outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a fourth player to be named later.

"The first thing my wife said when she heard of it was that she was happy," the 32-year-old Piersall said in Boston. "If she's happy, then I'm happy."

Jim Doran, 34, is the oldest member of the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League. This is the 11th pro season for the former Iowa State star who plays outside end.

Injuries Could Slow Beaver Local Game

At full strength, Beaver Local would go into Saturday's showdown game with United a slight favorite, but injuries have cropped up in Coach Jack O'Rourke's camp and the battle of the undefeated must go down as a "toss-up."

The contest will get underway Saturday at 2 p. m. with a capacity crowd expected at the United High gridiron.

Francis Possage, one of the leading scorers in the district, was discharged from City Hospital only Wednesday and will not be permitted to play for at least a week to 10 days. Possage, regular halfback for the Beavers, suffered a slight concussion in the Salineville game last Saturday night.

Mike Klembara, Beaver's top-notch quarterback, also may be sidelined along with fullback George Gaydos. Klembara has a knee injury and Gaydos is suffering with a stiff neck.

John Broadbent will be running the team at quarterback in place of Klembara. Broadbent, a senior is a very capable alternate at this position and has played everywhere in the backfield for the Beavers.

In Possage's place, O'Rourke will use either freshman Jim Nulph or Larry McLaughlin. McLaughlin is the more experienced of the two.

If Gaydos isn't at full strength, Floyd Saltsman will fill in at fullback.

Beaver Local will be counting on Carl Hoppel to carry the burden from his halfback position. Hoppel, a senior, is his team's leading ground gainer and at present the second leading scorer in the district with 39 points.

With its offensive forces suffering a blow, the strong defensive team which has been as tough as a stone wall may have to turn in an all-out performance.

Since a 14-14 tie in the opening game with Leetonia, Beaver Local has not been scored upon in its last three contests.

In order, Beaver Local shut out Chester, 40-0, posted a 24-0 win over Union Local and last week routed Salineville, 46-0.

The starting line will show Gary Berhar and George Wilkinson at ends. The tackle posts will be filled by Roger Walker and Keith Berger while All-Ohio candidate Dave Myers will be at one guard and Dave Stacey at the other spot. Snapping the ball at center will be Larry Carroll.

Chief replacements on the defensive team are John Detchon and Gary Bookman at ends and Gary Rambo who moves into a guard post.

Beaver Local will have to contain United's fullback Larry Marks who currently is leading the district in scoring with 44 points. The Golden Eagles also have a fine passer in quarterback John Hanna..

Starting at the halfback positions will be Bill Schroyer and Bill McGranahan.

The two rivals have played one common opponent. United, in its opening game, defeated Chester, 14-8, but Beaver Local gained a 40-0 shutout over the Panthers.

After the Chester contest, United went on to tackle Crestview, 22-6, defeated Springfield Local, 41-6, then blanked Jackson Milton last week, 16-0.

Beaver Local Fans To Form Car Caravan

A motor caravan for Beaver Local followers to the United game at Hanoverton Saturday afternoon will form from 11:30 to noon at the Beaver Local High School.

The caravan will leave no later than 12:30 and fans are urged to form in time to have their cars decorated free. The caravan is being sponsored by the Junior Class of Beaver Local High school.

Navy Faces Miami's Mira-Miller Combine

Iowa, S. Cal. Tangle In TV Tilt Saturday

By The Associated Press

Navy's football team knows it is in for a tough night when it takes on Miami's Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl tonight. But far be it from the hosts to underestimate their opponents.

There is a mutual respect on both sides, Navy because of the passing and running of quarterback George Mira and the pass catching of end Bill Miller, and Miami because of Navy's all-around good condition, hustle and offensive potential.

Mira, whose action may be limited by rib bruises suffered in the victory over Kentucky two weeks ago, ranks fourth nationally in total offense with 394 yards, 305 of those through passing. Miller has caught 12 for 172 yards and is a pillar on defense.

Navy, loser in its opener 20-10 to Penn State which Miami leveled 25-8 last week, showed good offensive power in beating William & Mary 44-6, with junior quarterback Ron Klemick leading the way.

Penn State tries to regain its touch at Boston against winless (0-2) Boston University while Tulane, which has given only a pair of field goals and touchdowns in two losing games, meets Florida, which has a victory and a tie.

There is full-scale action Saturday, with all the top teams except 10th ranked Baylor in action, plus a bevy of conference games.

Iowa, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll, journeys to Los Angeles ot meet the University of Southern California, in a game that will also be televised nationally (ABC-TV, 4 p.m. Eastern Standard Time). The Hawkeyes, who walloped California last week, will be without halfback Larry Ferguson against the Trojans (1-1).

There are some other intersectional games involving members of the top ten. Fifth ranked Texas (2-0) plays pass-minded Washington State; Michigan State (No. 6) takes on surprising Stanford (2-0); UCLA travels to meet eighth-ranked Ohio State and Michigan, ranked ninth, is at home to Army (2-0).

Second-ranked Mississippi tackles a tough little customer in Florida State as it goes for its 18th straight game without a loss. Georgia Tech (No. 3) the surprise so far of the 1961 season, has an SEC game against defense-minded Louisiana State while fourth rated Alabama (2-0) has an SEC battle aginst Vanderbilt, also (2-0). Both are at night.

OSU Faces Single-Wing

Buckeyes Rate 2 TD Edge Over Visitors From UCLA

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Bruins of UCLA, who meet Ohio State at 1 p.m. Saturday in Ohio Stadium, are an air-minded group.

This is the third straight weekend they've winged their way from home. Two weeks ago, they made the Los Angeles-Denver round trip and beat the Air Force Academy. Last week, it was a Los Angeles-Ann Arbor round trip, to lose 29-6 to Michigan.

They were due in here today, to bang into Ohio's two-touchdown favorites.

On the football field the Bruin aerial record is not too good. Maybe it's because they use the almost obsolete single wing, but they've completed only 7 of 22 passes.

Coach Woody Hayes has worked his deflated Bucks hard this week, following last Saturday's 7-7 deadlock with underdog Texas Christian.

With All - America fullback Bob Ferguson booming up the middle, Ohio figures to gain a lot of ground. But the Buckeye defense is due for a rugged afternoon since a college team seldom gets a look at the single wing offense as employed by the coast club.

Bob Smith, a senior, is the Bruins' No. 1 man in the tailback slot. He has gained 192 yards in 42 carries, but he's completed only two of nine passes for 23 yards—and two were intercepted.

While Ferguson's battering-ram tactics are expected to be Ohio's bread - and - butter offense again, Hayes said he'd run his halfbacks more than he did a week ago. Two costly interceptions cost victory against TCU, and Woody is expected to keep the aerial offnese locked up until dire need arises. Ferguson carried the ball 35 times for 137 yards against TCU — and if he keeps up that pace he'll break all the records in the Buckeye book.

Thursday, Hayes made three changes in his starting lineup for the UCLA tilt. Bob Middleton of Marion got back the offensive right end job he held most of last season. Tom Jenkins of Dayton takes over as offensive left guard so that Mike Ingram won't have so much double duty at that spot. And Dick Laskoski of Shamokin, Pa., will defend at left tackle to relieve Bob Vogle from double duty.

Practice Injury Fatal To College Gridder

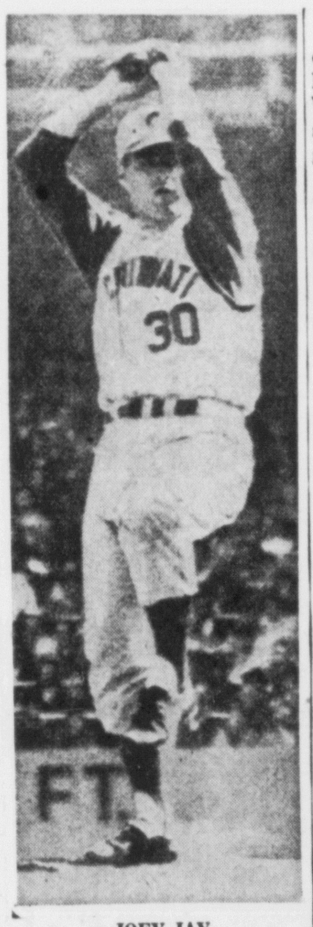

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A college football player died Thursday, 10 days after he received internal injuries while making a tackle during practice.

William Foster, 20, third-string guard for Johnson C. Smith University here, was kicked in the stomach Sept. 20. A surgeon who performed an exploratory operation Wednesday, said the player died of a stoppage in the small intestine.

Foster was a native of Indianola, Pa.

Jay Gets Loudest Cheers As Reds Fans Greet Team

JOEY JAY
4-Hitter Evens Series.

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, all even with the New York Yankees in the 1961 World Series after two games, should be getting used to howling greetings when they return home.

They got it several weeks ago when they returned after sweeping a key three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers. They got it a week ago Tuesday night on their return from Chicago where they had clinched at least a share of the National League pennant.

And they got it again Thursday night as they returned from New York where they bounced back earlier that day for a 6-2 victory over the Yankees after losing the opener, 2-0.

Greater Cincinnati Airport was jammed with fans. They waved banners and shouted as the players and their wives began to emerge from the charter plane which had brought the team back immediately after the game in Yankee Stadium.

A caravan of horn-blaring automobiles followed the team's bus into the downtown area.

Biggest cheers, of course, went to Joey Jay, the pitching hero of Thursday's victory; to Elio Chacon, the little second baseman whose dash to home on a passed ball broke a 2-2 tie; to rookie catcher Johnny Edwards who got two hits and drove in two runs, and to Gordy Coleman, whose home run drove in Cincinnati's first tallies of the World Series.

'Yanks Aren't Supermen, Can Be Beaten'—Purkey

By JOE REICHLER

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—"The Yankees are no supermen. They're the same as anybody else. They can be beaten."

Bob Purkey, who will pitch for Cincinnati against the Yankees on Saturday in the third World Series game, (the opener at Cincinnati), was telling of his reactions after watching the clubs split the first two games at Yankee Stadium.

The Reds, behind right-hander Joey Jay, defeated the Yankees 6-2 Thursday after Whitey Ford had shut them out 2-0 in a southpaw duel with Jim O'Toole in the opener.

"We gained confidence by winning," said the 32-year-old right-hander. "It showed us they were not unbeatable. It also must have changed the Yankees' minds about us. That we're not the ragamuffins we're supposed to be.

"Now we know they do make mistakes like everybody else, that good pitching can stop them, and that their pitchers make bad pitches, too.

"From what I've read, nobody is supposed to beat the Yankees. I watched them in last year's World Series in Pittsburgh. I live there. So I knew before this series they could be beaten."

Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson, according to plan, held Purkey out for the game in Cincinnati, when he'll have five days of rest, counting today's off day.

Warped Floor Stops Game At Steubenville

A warped floor caused the exhibition game between the Cincinnati Royals and New York Knicks to be called at halftime Thursday night at Steubenville.

The portable floor which had been stored since last March came apart in sections some as much as four to five inches.

The two professional clubs, fearing injuries to their players, requsted the game be called. Both teams put on a basketball clinic for the fans after the game was stopped.

Read what the experts say about anti-freeze:

Car manufacturers:
Check your car owner's manual. Most Detroit car manufacturers advise draining the cooling system, then filling with fresh anti-freeze every fall.

Automotive engineers:
Engineers have been quick to point out that there's nothing really new in anti-freeze. The so-called "2-year" and "no-drain" products are ethylene glycol plus inhibitors. Ethylene glycol was introduced by "Prestone" Anti-Freeze in 1927.

Experienced owners:
By making it today's best-selling anti-freeze, millions of car owners say "Prestone" Anti-Freeze is best. Insist on the world's most tested, most trusted winter protection: "Prestone" brand Anti-Freeze with its exclusive Magnetic Film.

8 Shooting For Big $ In Frizette

By The Associated Press

Cicada, heir-apparent to the 2-year-old filly championship, will go after her sixth and richest stakes prize of the season Saturday in the $70,000-added Frizette Stakes at Aqueduct.

Cicada and seven other filly misses are lined up for the Frizette, a one mile affair. Owned by Christopher T. Chenery, Cicada is expected to be an entry with the stable's other good filly, Baroda. The combination may go off as the 4-5 choice.

The Frizette already is worth $114,075 through various fees, payments and the $70,000 added by the New York Association. Eight starters at $1,000 would hike the total of $122,075 with $84,575 to the winner.

There were three supplementary nominees at $5,000 apiece, Ogden Phipps' Broadway, King Ranch's Tamarona, and E. Barry Ryan's Firm Policy. Broadway beat Cicada in the Polly Drummond Stakes at Delaware Park.

Another filly who will gain some support is John E. Hughes' Island Belle.

Dawson Slight Choice In USGA Senior Golf

TULSA (AP) — A 58-year-old sportings good executive entered today's semifinal round of the seventh annual U.S. Golf Association Senior Amateur Tournament as the title favorite.

George Dawson, Glen Ellyn, Ill., closed out his match against Merrill L. Carlsmith, Hilo, Hawaii, with a short putt on the 18th green. Dawson won 4 and 3.

Dawson was paired against Dexter H. Daniels, Winter Haven, Fla., who Thursday defeated C. C. Taylor, Durban, South Africa, 2 and 1.

William K. Lanman had to go 19 holes to shake off John W. Roberts. Lanman met Richard H. Guelich Jr., Buffalo, N.Y., in their other semifinal match. Guelich stopped Ted B. Payseur, Evanston, Ill., 1 up.

Costello To Start For Browns Sunday

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vince Costello, who lost his middle line backing job with the Cleveland Browns to Dave Lloyd this season after four years as a starter, will get a starting opportunity Sunday when the Browns play the Washington Redskins at Municipal Stadium.

Galen Fiss, the left side backer, pulled a thigh muscle against the Dallas Cowboys last Sunday and will be replaced by Costello against the Redskins. Fiss was feeling better Thursday, but did not participate in defensive drills at League Park.

Hockey All-Stars To Play Black Hawks

CHICAGO (AP) — Dominated by players from Montreal and Toronto, the National Hockey League All-Star team challenges the Chicago Black Hawks, Stanley Cup champions, Saturday night.

A sellout crowd of some 14,000 will pack Chicago Stadium for the 15th game in the series in which All-Star teams have won 6, lost 4 and tied 4.

Sid Abel, whose Detroit Red Wings bowed to Chicago in the sixth game of the best-of-seven championship series last season, will coach the All-Stars.

THIS YOUNG SOUTH SIDE football squad will be looking for its second win of the season tonight at Newell. Coach Dave Nichol shows only three seniors on the squad which gives the Hookstown area school a bright outlook for next season. The 1961 edition includes, first row—left-to-right: Bob Butterfield, John Buchanan, Dick McGaffick, John Barrett, Tom Moore, John Mackall and Ken Rosak. Second row—John W. McLaughlin, Dave Tremble, John F. McLaughlin, Bill Cooper, Joe Sipp, Bill Misouk and Jerry Skolnekovich. Third row—Dave Nichol, head coach, Ernest Nejus, Dave Brooks, Jim Kisling, Clyde Curtis, Vince Golden and Chuck Schmidt. Fourth row—Scott Walker, Joe Barrett, Wilber King, Bob Malone, Jim Todd and Dave Wern, assistant coach.

21 Contests Scheduled For Ohio Grid Teams

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State, tied by TCU in last week's 7-7 opener, hopes to head toward the heights Saturday when the Bucks battle the UCLA Bruins before 82,000.

That's the big game on a 21-contest program involving the state's collegiate gridders this weekend.

The President's Conference plays its opening games, and some clearing of the title picture is due in the other leagues.

Bowling Green and Western Michigan, each 1-0 in the Mid-American, tangle on the Bee-Gee grid to determine which stays on top. Kent State, last week's surprise victor over Ohio University, entertains Miami's Redskins who haven't scored a touchdown in three starts.

Only one tilt between unbeaten teams is on in the Ohio Conference, Wooster going to Mount Union for a night fray. Four other with clean conference records go against league opponents.

Ohio Northern and Findlay, tied with Ahsland for the peak in the Mid-Ohio circuit, clash at Findlay. Ashland meets Defiance, and Bluffton and Wilmington, each seeking its first loop conquest, meet on the latter's field.

The non-league slate, headed by the OSU-UCLA event, has some eye-catchers. They include Xavier at Cincinnati, Ohio University at Dayton, and a pair of two-time winners — Youngstown and Baldwin Wallace—at Berea.

Saturday's slate, with won-lost records:

UCLA (1-1-0) at Ohio State (0-0-1)

West Liberty at Marietta (0-2-0) (N)

Ohio University (1-1-0) at Dayton (0-3-0) (N)

Youngstown (2-0-0) at Baldwin Wallace (2-0-0) (N)

2 Games Open Big 10 Race On Saturday

By The Associated Press

The Big Ten football championship race gains momentum Saturday with a pair of conference games that send Northwestern to Illinois and Wisconsin to Indiana.

In six games against outside opponents, Big Ten teams are favored in all but one. Notre Dame is a one-point choice of most oddsmakers at Purdue.

Only one conference game has been played thus far. Michigan State romped over Wisconsin 20-0 last week and gained the No. 6 spot in The Associated Press poll.

It will be the first game for Indiana and Purdue in two weeks. They got a head start in the season, the Hoosiers losing 14-8 at Kansas State and the Boilermakers winning 13-6 at Washington.

Top-ranked Iowa is favored by 14 points in a nationally televised game with Southern California in Los Angeles; Michigan by 7 over Army; Michigan State by 17 over Stanford; Ohio State by 12 over UCLA; and Minnesota by 8 over Oregon. Iowa is the only team on the road.

Most Fans Pleased With Piersall Trade

CLEVELAND (AP)—The majority of fans contacted in a newspaper poll and Jim Piersall were pleased with the trade that sent the fiery centerfielder to the Washington Senators.

The Cleveland Indians announced Thursday they had traded Piersall to Washington for veteran pitcher Dick Donovan, outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a fourth player to be named later. No cash was involved.

"Good riddance." "He was a troublemaker." "Glad he's gone." were the most frequent comments from a majority of the fans contacted by a Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter for their opinion on Piersall's departure.

Duke Rodney Favored In Kentucky Futurity

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — It was the field against Duke Rodney for today's 69th Kentucky Futurity, a $59,320 trotting classic for 3-year-old standardbreds over Lexington's famed Red Mile.

The Duke, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick di Gennaro of Rochester, N.Y., was a solid 2-1 favorite for the futurity, third jewel in trotting's triple crown. A field of eight was entered.

Duke Rodney won the first leg of the crown, the Yonkers Futurity, but was beaten in the Hambletonian by Harlan Dean when he broke stride in both heats.

Caleb and Matastar, first and second respectively in the Hambletonian, were expected to give the major competition.

Deem Scores 2, Westgate Registers 2nd Win, 22-6

Fullback Dick Deem tallied two touchdowns as Westgate rolled to its second straight victory with a 22-6 decision over Wellsville Thursday at Patterson Field.

Coach Norm Six's team took the opening kickoff and marched 60 yards, with Deem crashing over from the three-yard line.

In the second quarter, Westgate on the march again, Deem went over from the one. Danny Burke, who tacked on the two-point conversion after the second touchdown, scored the final TD from two yards out following a sustained drive. Chuck Taylor scored the conversion on a run.

Westgate meets Toronto Thursday at Patterson Field.

The Westgate-Wellsville contest was highlighted by a 98-yard touchdown run turned in by Wellsville halfback Ron Daniels. The TD sprint by the youngster is one of the longest ever turned in by a junior high player in this area.

East Junior Scores Twice In 4th To Gain 14-14 Tie

East Junior was forced to punch across a touchdown in the last two minutes of the game to come out with a 14-14 tie Thursday at Toronto.

The young Red Knights scored first in the second quarter, but East Junior tied it with a touchdown early in the fourth period on a three-yard run by Mike Snowden. The conversion failed on both TD's.

Toronto took a 14-8 lead on a touchdown and two-point conversion midway through the final period. On the kickoff after the touchdown, East Junior High's Duane Lacey returned the kick 70 yards to set up the touchdown for Coach Dom Cascio's team.

Jim White crashed over from 10 yards out and then added the conversion on a run for the deadlock.

East Junior now shows one victory and one tie.

Cascio pointed out Nick Marchbanks safety man for his defensive work.

Not one penalty was called on either team.

Why Do Some Quit College? Council On Education Asks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Business is booming but half the customers walk out after sampling the merchandise.

That's one of the chief problems nagging higher education today.

Every year the tide of college-bound students runs stronger, and enrollments rise by leaps and bounds.

But for every two students who start college, one will drop out before graduation.

Why? That's a question which has plagued college officials for years and it is plaguing them here at the annual meeting of the American Council on Education.

"We have been writing and talking about this for 40 years, and we still do not have the answer," Blanchard L. Rideout of Cornell University said Thursday.

"What we do know is that 50 per cent of those who start college don't finish.

"Less than one-third of the dropouts can be classed as academic failures. The others leave because they are unhappy, because they run out of money, because they get married, or because they are thinking of getting married.

"What we really need is better counseling and more exciting teaching, particularly at the freshman level."

Governor Asked To Probe Alleged Elections Fraud

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A Trumbull County commissioner has asked Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to assign a special prosecutor to investigate alleged illegal operations and an alleged vote fraud at the Trumbull County Home.

Joseph J. Baldine in a letter to the governor complained that Lynn B. Griffith Jr., Trumbull County prosecutor, failed to act on his request for such an inquiry.

Baldine, a Democrat, won a victory Wednesday in the Ohio Supreme Court. The high court let stand a common pleas court decision that Baldine won the office by an 11-vote margin over Dr. W. A. James, a Republican, who originally was declared elected.

The trial court found irregularities in the markings of disabled voter ballots by employes of the county home and tuberculosis hospital for patients.

Baldine's letter to the governor said in part: "I was shocked to learn that he (Griffith) is unable, or unwilling, to proceed with the prosecution of the vote-fraud case, and claims he has discovered no evidence of illegal operations at the county home."

Baldine requested immediate action because of the statute of limitations on vote dispute runs out early next month, and an appointment to discuss the matter with the governor.

Griffith declined to comment on Baldine's letter.

Announcer Paddles Own Canoe, Then Given Lift

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — Pete Stenger, a radio - TV announcer here, once said on the air that if the Cincinnati Reds won the National League pennant he would paddle a boat down the Ohio River to see the World Series in the Queen City.

The Reds won the pennant, and some of Stenger's listeners insisted that the New York Yankee fan keep his promise.

Thursday Stenger began paddling away from Huntington in an inflated rubber boat, with Cincinnati 150 miles downstream.

But if he paddled all the way, he'd never make it for the third game of the series Saturday. Perhaps that's why a Coast Guard cruiser took his boat in tow before he was out of sight of Huntington.

They towed him to Portsmouth, Ohio, 47 miles from here, but today he planned to board the Coast Guard craft for the rest of the trip to Cincinnati.

Driver Jailed For 9 Months On 2 Charges

A 34-year-old Beechwood man who pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on charges of driving while intoxicated and operating a car after his license had been suspended by the state Bureau of Motor Vehicles drew two jail terms totaling nine months in addition to a $500 fine.

Hal Hamblet, 170 Haywood St., was sentenced by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who told him at the end of a scatching lecture:

"If you think you're bigger than the state of Ohio, you have nine months to think it over."

Court records show it was Hamblet's third arrest for drunken driving in six years. He was arrested first on June 22, 1955, and again on Jan. 19, 1961.

As a result of the January arrest, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles suspended his operator's permit for three years or until he posted proof of financial responsibility. At the same time, his permit was suspended for a year by the local court.

Police said Hamblet was arrested at 11:59 a. m. Thursday by Patrolman Floyd K. Heddleston on Boyce St. Hamblet gave a statement in which he admitted consuming "three beers" a short time earlier at the Veterans Social Club, police said.

Judge Chertoff ordered that Hamblet must serve the two jail terms consecutively rather than concurrently. With a concurrent sentence, he could have been out of jail in six months.

"You seem to be making a career of driving while drunk," the judge told Hamblet after reading his record. "I'm going to prove to you that the state means business when it suspends your license!"

"You knew you weren't supposed to drive that car, but you did so deliberately," Judge Chertoff said. "I am going to impress on you that when the court speaks you're going to believe it. If you feel you're bigger than the state of Ohio, you have nine months to think it over."

Under Ohio law, Hamblet will be required to take a driver's exam before he can obtain a new license.

"But I will do everything in my power to see that you do not get a license again," the judge said.

Assistant Fire Chief Aids Training Class

Asst. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne is assisting in instructing a class on radiation for the Lisbon volunteer fire department.

Twelve members of the department plus three volunteers, George Dotson, Ed McKee and Ray Hempstead, village clerk-treasurer, are enrolled in the six-week course which meets each Wednesday under the direction of Sal Trainer, Civil Defense director of Smith Township near Sebring. Thirl Flugan is chief of the Lisbon department.

The course will be offered city firemen starting about the middle of November, Van Dyne said. He received instruction on the subject at a course in Akron.

Madison Missionary Group Will Convene

The Women's Missionary group of the Madison congregation of the Beaver Valley United Presbyterian Larger Parish will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

A feature will be screening of thank-offering slides.

Especially For You . . .

THE WARMTH AND FRIENDLINESS OF AN OPEN FIREPLACE on a winter evening is yours in the large carpeted living room of this fine home on Calcutta Smiths-Ferry Road. An oil furnace keeps the 5 rooms and 1½ baths cozy all winter, too. The 6½ acres of ground are a beautiful setting for this brick home surrounded by planned landscaping. A dream home, at a modest price. Drop by and see it for yourself. $19,000.00

BRAND SPANKING NEW? No, but it's a well taken care of older home. A two story 6 room home on Chester Avenue with 1½ baths, garage, oil furnace, and many extras. All rooms except 1 of the 3 bedrooms are carpeted, and there's a plate glass mirror to reflect your pride in being a "happy home-owner". Give it a good look and it will give you plenty of good living. $10,500.00

THE MAGIC CARPET is already laid in the hall and 1 of the 2 bedrooms of this 1 story home in LaCroft. The kitchen has built-in cabinets, and it's all heated by a gas furnace. A fairly new home at a fair price. Shrubs and trees provide the final touch to this cozy home.

ARE YOU THINKING of selling your home or business? Give "Mac" a call for complete realtor service . . . appraisal, listing, advertising and SELLING! Years of experience in East Liverpool and vicinity make "Mac" your man, for the finest in real estate service for both home and business.

Rep. Moeller Raps Hodges On Aid Plan

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, says he fears that Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges "does not appreciate the severity of the problems of unemployment and underemployment in the so-called depressed areas."

Hodges has criticized the program of federal aid for depressed areas, saying it has many shortcomings. He suggested that areas pull out of the program and conduct their own economic development projects.

Moeller met here Thursday with officials of Athens, Fairfield, Vinton and Hocking counties who are working out a program for federal assistance.

The Lancaster Congressman declared: "Instead of the commerce secretary suggesting communities pull out of the area (Area Redevelopment Act program) let him use the facilities of his office to help people help themselves."

He added: "If the Area Redevelopment Administration regulations were made less strict, if more concern were applied to making loans available to those in need of business expansion, employment would be increased and earning power of our people would also be improved."

Moeller said Hodges should iron out what the congressman called complexities in the ARA program. He said his district (the 10th — Athens, Fairfield, Hocking, Vinton, Meigs, Gallia, Lawrence and Jackson counties) was not getting its fair share of income and that consequently the standards of living are forced lower.

Convention Trip Given To Club

A report of the Ohio Kiwanis convention at Columbus Monday through Wednesday was given by Bert Wakefield, city Kiwanis Club secretary, at a meeting Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Ed Maloney, chairman of the club-sponsored rummage sale to start Oct. 16 at the former Zange & Bence building, reported on collections for the sale.

Al Weber reported on a public pancake and sausage supper to be held in December. Bill Kent, insurance firm manager, was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. Dorothy Horsley and Miss Mildred McGregor of the Quota Club spoke to the club concerning a travelogue series planned by the club.

Jud English, president, was in charge.

Ex-Teamsters Local Granted AFL-CIO Nod

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO, has granted tentative membership to a former Teamsters local, pending the outcome of a National Labor Relations Board election.

Council President Al Bilik said Thursday Local 152-b, Brewery Workers Union, will become a full council member after its 700 members have voted officially to quit the teamsters.

First Report Scheduled

Fund Drive Machinery's Ready

Volunteers in the Community Fund solicitation now under way are shown checking the "machinery" at the YMCA in preparation for the first reports scheduled to be received Monday in the campaign for $77,600.

They indicated that all record-keeping operations have been set up at the headquarters office and explained the reporting procedures.

Each worker received, in working kits distributed at Monday's "kick-off" dinner, a pink "check sheet" to be filled in with the name of the division in which the volunteer is working and the "numbers" of donor envelopes. This "check sheet" is to be turned in with each report.

When the reports arrive at headquarters, file cards, which are maintained for each individual donor and company, are removed from the slotted division "charts" which cover one entire wall at the headquarters office. Since a separate wall chart is maintained for each of the campaign's 10 divisions, drive leaders will be able to make a quick visual check on progress throughout the month-long solicitation.

Emmerling emphasized that instructions given to the workers last Monday night call for periodic reports — the first on Monday, the second Oct. 23— with final reports due Oct. 30. However, he urged all workers to make headquarters their final stop each day, turning in gifts and pledges as they are received.

"If these reporting dates and procedures are observed," Emmerling said, "the Community Fund campaign should be completed successfully by the end of the month."

60 At Mothers' Tea Of LaCroft PTA Unit

Sixty attended a mothers' tea sponsored by the newly-appointed hostess committee of the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday afternoon at the school.

Following the tea, homeroom mothers were appointed with Mrs. Mary Rudibaugh as general chairman.

The group includes Grades 1, Mrs. Betty Harvey and Mrs. Peggy Copestick; Grade 2, Mrs. Dorothy Shafer; Grade 3, Mrs. Marguerite Hargraves; Grade 4, Mrs. Rudibaugh; Grade 5, Mrs. Bernice Deems, and Grade 6, Mrs. Delores Hendricks.

Mrs. Janet Poole was chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Viola Densmore and Mrs. Eileen Purinton.

County Distributes 22 Tons Of Aid Food

LISBON — Approximately 22 tons of surplus food was distributed in September for the county needy, according to Robert Bycroft, welfare director.

A total of 43,957 pounds was distributed to 2,896 persons at the four centers in East Liverpool, Salem, Wellsville and Lisbon.

A breakdown shows 4,372 pounds of dried milk, 204 rice, 10,730 flour, 1,924 dried eggs, 2,714 rolled oats, 5,666 beans, 2,470 lard, 2,663 butter, 2,096 peanut butter and 9,194 of pork and gravy.

Next distribution is Oct. 16 at Salem, Oct. 17 at Wellsville, Oct. 18 at East Liverpool and Oct. 19 at the Lisbon warehouse.

Do you have the freedom that "money-wisdom" can provide?

Does their money travel further than yours?

Some people get left out of living. Others seem to get a lift out of living. So often it's not that they are making more money, but that they've discovered how to make it go further. In all probability, they've learned to use a full-service commercial bank . . . and use it for all it's worth.

A full-service commercial bank—such as ours—takes the clearest view of all your money matters. It can put all your requirements in proper perspective because, by law, it can do more for you. Unlike other financial institutions, it is not just limited to savings and a few kinds of loans. Only at a full-service bank is everything possible from a checking account and savings account to all types of loans and the most thorough kind of counselling.

It's often been said that it's not just the money, but what it can do that counts.

Our full-service bank will gladly see to it that your money makes that little extra effort. Why not pay us a visit . . . soon?
